SCHEDULE B

THE ANGLICAN FUND FOR HEALING AND RECONCILIATION (“AFHR”)

1. The AFHR Committee established under Section 3.1.2 of this Agreement shall receive applications for initiatives or programs designed to assist with healing and reconciliation for former IRS students and their families and communities, and shall make grants or approve In-Kind Services in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
2. The Committee will approve only those In-Kind Services which are new programs or services, or increments to existing programs or services. In addition to receiving applications from community groups, the Committee will also accept applications for grants and funding of In-Kind Services from Anglican Entities, but only to fund healing and reconciliation work which is independent of a denominational, religious ministry. Where an existing application for grants and funding of In-Kind Services is proposed, the Committee may approve the application for grants or In-Kind Service to the extent that the Committee believes the program or In-Kind Service or some part thereof is new or would not otherwise continue.
3. The following criteria shall be applied to applications for grants and for the approval of In-Kind Services. Criteria a) and b) are mandatory in all circumstances, and the Committee shall have regard to the remaining criteria in assessing each application:
 - a) Is the program open to all Aboriginal people and groups regardless of denomination?
 - b) Does the program foster health, healing and reconciliation, which can include the building of relationships of mutual respect and trust between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal participants?
 - c) Do Aboriginal people have input in developing and delivery of the program?
 - d) Has the program been effective in the past?
 - e) To what extent are Aboriginal communities involved in the program?
 - f) Does the program or service deal with former students, or their families and communities and the aftermath of IRS including providing assistance with the recovery of their histories?
 - g) What portion of the overall cost of the program addresses the social, psychological, and health issues without regard to religiosity?
4. For greater certainty, the costs or efforts expended in participation at any part of the work of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, or in proceedings to resolve an IRS claim do not qualify for approval by the Committee.

5. Notwithstanding Section 3 of this Schedule, the Committee may credit the value of a program or service offered between March 31, 2005 and the coming into force of this agreement toward the In-Kind Service provided that:

- a) it meets the criteria set out in section 3 of this Schedule;
- b) the program or service did not exist before March 31, 2005 unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Canada;
- c) the same program or service cannot be certified for a period following the coming into force of this Agreement unless it can be shown that it would not otherwise continue; and
- d) in no case shall the total amount credited for programs and services provided before the coming into force of this Agreement exceed 19.8572 percent of $1,500,000, being $300,000.

6. The parties agree that the Committee may meet and make decisions under article 5 of this Schedule before the coming into force of this Agreement, and that following the coming into force of this Agreement the decisions the Committee makes in this period shall be ratified without further review and the costs and reasonable expenses incurred shall be reimbursed by the Church and to the credit of their debt under this Agreement. For greater certainty, should this Agreement not come into force the decisions made under articles 5 and 6 shall have no force or effect and the Corporation has no obligation to make reimbursement.

(b) the operation of any Indian Residential School.

2. Paragraph 1 of this Release extends to claims that belong to and could be made by me personally, whether asserted directly by me, or by any other person, group or legal entity on my behalf or as my representative, through a class action or otherwise.

7. I represent and warrant that I have not assigned any of the Released Claims to any person or corporation.
8. I agree that I will not make any or continue any claim in relation to the Released Claims against any person or corporation who could claim for any or all of the damages, contribution or indemnity or other relief in respect of my claim from any of the Releasees whether pursuant to the provisions of the Negligence Act (Province or Territory) or its counterpart in other common law jurisdictions, the common law, or any other statute of any jurisdiction.
9. I further agree to indemnify the Releasees in respect of claims that may be brought against them by any person, legal entity, government or government agency that arise out of or are in any way connected with payments made to me by that person, legal entity, government or government agency in relation to the Released Claims. This indemnity includes, but is not restricted to, claims relating to medical and/or dental services or treatment provided to me, and claims relating to compensation paid to me by any government or government agency authority for any of the Released Claims that are criminal assaults.
10. If I later commence a claim that is not a Released Claim for damages for harm or injuries which are the same as or similar to the harm or injuries resulting from the Released Claims, and the Releasees or any of them are made parties to such action, the fact and amount of this Release, as well as the details of the damages or harm which I claimed in the Released Claims, may be disclosed by the Releasees to the court in the context of such later claim.
11. I acknowledge and declare that I fully understand the terms of this Release, and that I have signed the Release voluntarily. I further acknowledge that I have sought and obtained legal advice in respect of the Released Claims and this Release.

12. I understand that the Releasees do not admit any liability to me by acceptance of this Release or by any payment that may be made to me.

I have signed this Release the ____ day of _____, 200_.

SCHEDULE E

SECTIONS OF IRSSA INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE

ARTICLE FOUR IMPLEMENTATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

4.01 Class Actions

The Parties agree that all existing class action statements of claim and representative actions, except the Cloud Class Action, filed against Canada in relation to Indian Residential Schools in any court in any Canadian jurisdiction except the Federal Court of Canada (the “original claims”) will be merged into a uniform omnibus Statement of Claim in each jurisdiction (the “Class Actions”). The omnibus Statement of Claim will name all plaintiffs named in the original claims and will name as Defendants, Canada and the Church Organizations.

4.05 Consent Certification

- (1) The Parties agree that concurrent with the applications referred to in Section 4.03, applications will be brought in each of the Courts for consent certification of each of the Class Actions for the purposes of Settlement in accordance with the terms of the Agreement.
- (2) Consent certification will be sought on the express condition that each of the Courts, pursuant to the applications for consent certification under Section 4.05(1), certify on the same terms and conditions; including the terms and conditions set out in Section 4.06 save and except for the variations in class and subclass membership set out in Sections 4.02 and 4.04 of this Agreement.

4.06 Approval Orders

Approval Orders will be sought:

- (a) incorporating by reference this Agreement in its entirety.
- (b) ordering and declaring that such orders are binding on all Class Members, including Persons Under Disability, unless they opt out or are deemed to have opted out on or before the expiry of the Opt Out Periods.
- (c) ordering and declaring that on the expiry of the Opt Out Periods all pending actions of all Class Members, other than the Class Actions, relating to Indian Residential Schools, which have been filed in any court in any Canadian jurisdiction against Canada or the Church Organizations, except for any pending actions in Quebec which have not been voluntarily discontinued by the expiry of the Opt Out Period, will be deemed to be dismissed without costs unless the individual has opted out, or is deemed to have opted out on or before the expiry of the Opt Out Periods.

- (d) ordering and declaring that on the expiry of the Opt Out Periods all class members, unless they have opted out or are deemed to have opted out on or before the expiry of the Opt Out Periods, have released each of the defendants and Other Released Church Organizations from any and all actions they have, may have had or in the future may acquire against any of the defendants and Other Released Church Organizations arising in relation to an Indian Residential School or the operation generally of Indian Residential Schools.
- (e) ordering and declaring that in the event the number of Eligible CEP Recipients opting out or deemed to have opted out under the Approval Orders exceeds five thousand (5000), this Agreement will be rendered void and the Approval Orders set aside in their entirety subject only to the right of Canada, in its sole discretion, to waive compliance with Section 4.14 of this Agreement.
- (f) ordering and declaring that on the expiration of the Opt Out Periods all Class Members who have not opted out have agreed that they will not make any claim arising from or in relation to an Indian Residential School or the operation generally of Indian Residential Schools against any person who may in turn claim against any of the defendants or Other Released Church Organizations.
- (g) ordering and declaring that the obligations assumed by the defendants under this Agreement are in full and final satisfaction of all claims arising from or in relation to an Indian Residential School or the operation of Indian Residential Schools of the Class Members and that the Approval Orders are the sole recourse on account of any and all claims referred to therein.
- (h) ordering and declaring that the fees and disbursements of all counsel participating in this Agreement are to be approved by the Courts on the basis provided in Articles Four (4) and Thirteen (13) of this Agreement, except that the fees and disbursements of the NCC and the IAP Working Group will be paid in any event.
- (i) ordering and declaring that notwithstanding Section 4.06(c), (d) and (f), a Class Member who as of the fifth anniversary of the Implementation Date had never commenced an action other than a class action in relation to an Indian Residential School or the operation of Indian Residential Schools, participated in a Pilot Project, applied to the DR Model, or applied to the IAP, may commence an action for any of the Continuing Claims within the jurisdiction of the court in which the action is commenced. For greater certainty, the rules, procedures and standards of the IAP are not applicable to such actions.

- (j) ordering and declaring that where an action permitted by Section 4.06(i) is brought, the deemed release set out in Section 11.01 is amended to the extent necessary to permit the action to proceed only with respect to Continuing Claims.
- (k) ordering and declaring that for an action brought under Section 4.06(i) all limitations periods will be tolled and any defences based on laches or delay will not be asserted by the Parties with regard to a period of five years from the Implementation Date.

ARTICLE SEVEN TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION AND COMMEMORATION

- (2) The Truth and Reconciliation Commission may refer to the NAC for determination of disputes involving document production, document disposal and archiving, contents of the Commission's Report and Recommendations and Commission decisions regarding the scope of its research and issues to be examined. The Commission shall make best efforts to resolve the matter itself before referring it to the NAC.
- (3) Where the NAC makes a decision in respect of a dispute or disagreement that arises in respect of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission as contemplated in Section 7.01(2), either or both the Church Organization and Canada may apply to any one of the Courts for a hearing de novo.

ARTICLE ELEVEN RELEASES

11.03 Claims by Opt Outs and Others

- iv. The following conditions apply to the provision of the application to the Government or a church entity:
 - The application will only be shared with those who need to see it to assist the Government with its defence, or to assist the church entities with their ability to defend the claim or in connection with their insurance coverage;
 - If information from the application is to be shared with an alleged perpetrator, only relevant information about allegations of abuse by that person will be shared, and the individual will not be provided with the Claimant's address or the address of any witness named in the application form, nor with any information from the form concerning the effects of the alleged abuse on the Claimant, unless the Claimant asks that this be provided to the alleged perpetrator;
 - Each person with whom the application is shared, including counsel for any party, must agree to respect its confidentiality. Church entities will use their best efforts to secure the same commitment from any insurer with whom it is obliged to share the application;
 - Copies will be made only where absolutely necessary, and all copies other than those held by the Government will be destroyed on the conclusion of the matter, unless the Claimant asks that others retain a copy, or unless counsel for a party is required to retain such copy to comply with his or her professional obligations.

APPENDIX III: INVOLVEMENT OF ALLEGED PERPETRATORS (Schedule D page 21)

- i. The defendants will attempt to locate the alleged perpetrator to invite them to the hearing. If the alleged perpetrator is dead, cannot be located, or declines to attend, the hearing may still occur.

APPENDIX IV: INFORMATION COLLECTION; SETTING HEARING DATE; ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION AT HEARING (Schedule D page 23)

- i. The defendants will collect and submit their documents to the Secretariat.

- vii. Given the non-adversarial nature of this IAP and the neutral, inquisitorial role played by the adjudicators under it, as well as the need to respect the safety of the Claimant, neither an alleged perpetrator nor counsel for an alleged perpetrator may attend while the Claimant gives evidence, without the Claimant's advance consent. Where counsel for a church entity also acts for an alleged perpetrator, this means that they may not attend the hearing while the Claimant gives evidence without the Claimant's advance consent. Government representatives may always attend this part of the hearing, as may representatives of church entities who are parties to the Class Action Judgments except their counsel if he or she is also acting for an alleged perpetrator in the case.

APPENDIX X: THE USE OF EXTRA-CURIAL KNOWLEDGE BY ADJUDICATORS

INTRODUCTION

A number of issues will arise concerning the ability of adjudicators to make use of information obtained or known beyond that provided by the parties in each individual case. There are several aspects to this matter:

- use of background information and/or personal knowledge, for example on
 - schools
 - child abuse and its impacts
 - the residential school system
- carry-forward of information from hearing to hearing, for example on
 - alleged perpetrators and the modus operandi of proven perpetrators
 - conditions at a school
 - credibility findings
- use of precedents from other adjudicators
- ability of adjudicators to confer

The approach to be taken to these issues is set out below, by reference to the source of the information in question.

1. Orientation Materials Provided to Adjudicators

Adjudicators will be supplied with orientation materials on the residential school system and its operations, as well as on child abuse and its impacts.

If any of the orientation materials are specifically identified as containing uncontested facts or opinions, they may be used as follows:

Adjudicators are expected to inform themselves from this material. They may use it to question witnesses, but also to make findings of fact and to support inferences from evidence they find credible, for example to conclude that trauma of a certain kind can be expected to flow from a sexual assault on a child. These latter uses of this information are justified by the fact that representatives of all interests have agreed to its inclusion in the orientation materials for this use, and all participants in a hearing will have access to the orientation materials.

Wherever possible the adjudicator should use the information at the hearing to formulate questions to any witnesses who may be able to comment on it, or whose testimony it may contradict, support, or help explain. Where this is not possible, the proposed use in reaching a decision should be identified to the parties at the hearing to give them a chance to comment on it in their submissions, but so doing is not a condition precedent to the proposed use.

Where the material is used in coming to a finding of fact, or drawing an inference, it should be cited and its relevance and the rationale for its use set out in the decision.

Where orientation information provided to adjudicators does not represent uncontested facts or opinions, it may be used by adjudicators as follows:

Adjudicators may use this category of orientation materials as a basis for questioning witnesses, or testing the evidence, but may not rely on it as an independent basis for their conclusions of fact or their assessment of the actual impact of abuse on an individual.

2. Personal Knowledge of Abuse and its Impacts

Some adjudicators may bring to the job an extensive background in dealing with child abuse, or may receive information on child abuse and its impacts at training sessions or continuing education programs, or through their own reading or research.

The approach to the use of this kind of information is as follows:

Adjudicators may use their personal knowledge, training they have received, or general educational materials, as a basis for questioning witnesses, or testing the evidence, but may not rely on them as an independent basis for their conclusions of fact or their assessment of the actual impact of abuse on an individual.

3. Document Collections

Adjudicators will be provided with Canada's, and potentially a church's, document collection on each school for which they are holding hearings. This material will also be available to Claimants and their counsel.

The approach to the use of this kind of information is as follows:

Adjudicators are expected to inform themselves from this material, which may be used as a basis for findings of fact or credibility. Where any of it is so used by adjudicators, it must be cited and its relevance and the rationale for use set out in the report.

Because this information is specific to the school in question and is provided in advance, it is expected that adjudicators will be familiar with it before starting a hearing to which it is relevant. Given this, before relying on specific documents to help decide a given case, the adjudicator should seek the consent of the parties, or put the relevant extracts to any witnesses who may be able to comment on them, or whose testimony they may contradict or support. Where there are no such witnesses, or where one or more parties contest the use of the documents, the adjudicator may still use them in his or her decision, but wherever possible should advise the parties of the proposed use of the document so that they may address it in their submissions.

4. Previous findings

Adjudicators will hear evidence about, and make findings of fact about, the operations of various schools, their layouts, the conditions that pertained in them, the acts and knowledge of adult employees, and where an individual is found to have committed a number of assaults in a particular way, their modus operandi.

The approach to the use of this kind of information is as follows:

Adjudicators must treat each individual's claim as a unique claim to be determined on the evidence presented, plus information expressly permitted to be used according to the guidelines agreed to for this process. They may not carry forward, much less be bound by, previous findings they have made, including findings of credibility.

They may, though, use information from previous hearings to inquire about possible admissions, or failing that, to question witnesses. This ability to bring forward information from previous hearings for these specific purposes flows from the fact that this IAP is not a party-controlled adversarial process. Instead, the inquisitorial model is being used to have adjudicators inquire into what happened, using their skills and judgment to question witnesses to determine the facts.

While it would not be fair to base a decision on evidence from a previous hearing, since some or all of the parties would not know its context, and would be unable to challenge its reliability, it is also not appropriate to insist that adjudicators act as if each case were their first one. Their job requires them to test evidence and determine what happened. While they cannot call witnesses, it is their duty to question them, and they must be free to pose questions and follow lines of inquiry they believe to be relevant. Whether that belief flows from common sense, instinct, or something heard at another hearing, it is appropriate as a basis of inquiry, although, in the absence of an admission, not as evidence.

5. Stare decisis

Although reasons will be issued in each case, the IAP will not operate on the basis of binding precedent. All adjudicators are of equal authority, and should not consider themselves bound by each other's previous decisions. Through conferencing, adjudicators may come to a common interpretation of certain procedural issues, but each case must be determined on its own merits.

SECTIONS OF MANDATE FOR THE TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION COMMISSION, SCHEDULE N TO THE IRSSA, INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE

10. Events

There are three essential event components to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission: National Events, Community Events and Individual Statement-Taking/Truth Sharing. The Truth and Reconciliation process will be concluded with a final Closing Ceremony.

(A) National Events

The national events are a mechanism through which the truth and reconciliation process will engage the Canadian public and provide education about the IRS system, the experience of former students and their families, and the ongoing legacies of the institutions.

National events should include the following common components:

- (k) participation of high level government and church officials;

(B) Community Events

It is intended that the community events will be designed by communities and respond to the needs of the former students, their families and those affected by the IRS legacy including the special needs of those communities where Indian Residential Schools were located.

The community events are for the purpose of:

- (c) involving church, former school employees and government officials in the reconciliation process, if requested by communities;
- (f) allowing for the participation from high level government and church officials, if requested by communities;

(D) Closing Ceremony

The Commission shall hold a closing ceremony at the end of its mandate to recognize the significance of all events over the life of the Commission. The closing ceremony shall have the participation of high level church and government officials.

14. Budget and Resources

Institutional parties shall bear the cost of participation and attendance in Commission events and community events, as well as provision of documents. If requested by the party providing the documents, the costs of copying, scanning, digitalizing, or otherwise reproducing the documents will be borne by the Commission.

and

EPISCOPAL CORPORATION OF SASKATOON

and

THE • CORPORATION (name to be identified)

WHEREAS the Government and certain Catholic Entities participated in developing and operating residential schools for Aboriginal children in Canada;

AND WHEREAS representatives of the Government and the Catholic Entities are parties to an Agreement in Principle amongst themselves, plaintiffs, the AFN and certain other religious denominations, dated November 20, 2005 in which the Catholic Entities have agreed to enter into a final settlement agreement to give effect to the Agreement in Principle and the Memorandum of Understanding between themselves of the same date;

AND WHEREAS the Government and the Catholic Entities have been and remain committed to working jointly with Claimants to assist in their healing and reconciliation and to employ fair, safe, effective and timely processes to validate and resolve IRS Abuse Claims, which processes will seek to avoid causing additional trauma for Claimants while also protecting the reputations of those named as abusers from unfounded allegations;

PART 1A COMING INTO FORCE

1A.1 This Agreement comes into force and will become effective and binding on the parties on the Implementation Date (see Article 1.01 of the IRSSA). For greater certainty, if the IRSSA does not become effective and binding, then this Agreement has no force and effect.

PART II DEFENCE AND RESOLUTION OF IRS ABUSE CLAIMS

2.1 As long as there is a prospect of settling a claim solely on the basis of the allegations which fall within the definition of an IRS Abuse Claim, it is to be treated as such for the purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding the fact that claims arising from alleged loss or diminution of aboriginal language or culture or other claims falling outside the definition are also being made.

2.2 In this Part, a reference to one or more Catholic Entities means only those Catholic Entities which were associated with the IRS from which a claim arises, or within whose territorial jurisdiction the IRS is or ever was located and is a party to this Agreement.

2.3 It is the Government's intention to defend or resolve all IRS Abuse Claims in which it is a named party. For claims based on intentional torts arising prior to May 14, 1953 the Government will assert immunity if the matter proceeds to trial and will play no role in the defence after a court finds such immunity. The Government will provide written notice of its intention to each Catholic Entity which is a party to these claims not later than 120 days before the start of such trial, and such Catholic Entity will defend the claims or otherwise settle them.

2.3.1 The Government agrees to wholly indemnify the Catholic Entity for all Compensation paid to a Claimant pursuant to this Section or Section 4.2.; and

2.3.2 The Government will further indemnify the Catholic Entity for legal fees and expenses incurred by the Catholic Entity in defending an IRS Abuse Claim based on an intentional tort arising prior to May 14, 1953 for the period of time from and after a court has dismissed the claim against the Government based on Crown immunity to the date of resolution of the claim. The indemnification will be in an amount as agreed between the Government and the Catholic Entity, or as determined in accordance with Part V hereof. In the event of resort to Part V the parties and any Mediator appointed under Section 5.6 shall have regard to the rules, principles and caselaw that would apply in the taxation of a solicitor and own client account in the province or territory where the claim was brought.

2.4 Each Catholic Entity will cooperate in the defence or resolution of all IRS Abuse Claims against it, whether advanced within or outside the IAP, and may elect to participate at its own expense in the defence of any claim, or certain aspects of it, subject to any applicable rules and procedures. In the case of a claim being resolved through the IAP, the Entities' rights to participate and obligations are as set out therein.

2.5 The Government agrees to co-operate with each Catholic Entity to minimize the circumstances in which the Claimant pursues independent causes of action or theories of liability against each Catholic Entity in an IRS Abuse Claim.

2.6 The Government, where requested by a Catholic Entity, shall provide disclosure of and production of relevant files and documents to counsel for that Catholic Entity and its researchers and/or experts, excepting files and documents with respect to which solicitor-client privilege or other lawful privilege applies and is asserted and subject to privacy concerns and legislation. Any information obtained from records pursuant to this Section will be used exclusively for the DRM or IAP processes or for the defence of the IRS Abuse Claim for which the information was sought unless otherwise agreed in writing.

2.7 The Government, the Corporation and each Catholic Entity agree that instructions given to their respective counsel will be consistent with the terms and intent of this Agreement, and further accept and acknowledge that their respective representatives and counsel are instructed by, act for, and represent only their principal.

2.8 The Government and each Catholic Entity will within 60 days of the coming into force of this Agreement withdraw any third party claim or cross claim against each other in IRS Abuse Claims on a reciprocal, without costs basis, other than in a proceeding which includes allegations beyond IRS Abuse Claims, and will refrain from issuing such claims in the proceeding which includes allegations beyond IRS Abuse Claims.

2.9 The provisions of Appendices III and IV of the IAP apply to the collection and submission of documents and to the participation and evidence of an alleged perpetrator in IAP.

2.9A Each Catholic Entity will, upon request by the Government, provide the Government with access to any documents in the possession of the Catholic Entity that could assist with validation of applications for the Common Experience Payment (CEP) as that term is defined in the IRSSA, all at the expense of the Government.

2.10 In litigation, and subject to Appendices III and IV of the IAP, in IAP, where a Catholic Entity elects not to participate in the validation, resolution or defence of IRS Abuse Claims in litigation and, in IAP to the extent that the following provisions apply, the Catholic Entity will at its own expense:

2.10.1 Comply with all reasonable requests from the Government for information during the proceedings;

2.10.2 Provide counsel for the Government and its researchers and/or experts with full access to all relevant files and databases, excepting documents with respect to which solicitor-client privilege or other lawful privilege applies and is asserted. Any information obtained from records pursuant to this section will be used exclusively for the DRM or IAP processes or for the defence of the IRS Abuse Claim, for which the information was sought unless otherwise agreed in writing;

2.10.3 Participate, through a representative, to the extent consistent with its values and traditions in any apologies, reconciliation or closure ceremonies that are agreed to as part of the resolution of an IRS Abuse Claim and, provided the terms of this Agreement have been followed, support the result achieved as if they had been represented by counsel and had defended the Claim. For greater certainty, the Catholic Entity will pay for its own expenses for attendance and participation but not for the ceremony itself;

2.10.4 Provide disclosure and production of relevant documents in its possession or control, and provide witness statements on request;

2.10.5 Attend, as appropriate, at the discovery of their witnesses, and otherwise facilitate the testimony of witnesses within its employ; and

2.10.6 Accommodate a Claimant's reasonable request that a representative of the Catholic Entities attend a hearing while a Claimant is giving evidence or otherwise relating his or her experience at an IRS.

2.11 In IAP, where a Catholic Entity elects not to participate in the validation, resolution or defence of IRS Abuse Claims and subject to Appendix III of the IAP, the Government will:

2.11.1 Provided a witness statement is submitted in advance, or the individual provides a full interview to the Government, the Government will pay the reasonable travel and accommodation costs of a member, employee or former employee of a Catholic Entity to appear at a DRM or an IAP hearing. In other proceedings involving IRS Abuse Claims, the Government will only be responsible for any expense related to the participation of the member, employee or former employee of a Catholic Entity where the Government requires the participation of such member, employee or former employee; and

2.11.2 The Government will participate in and may conclude negotiations to determine the amount of Compensation in any settlement.

2.12 Each Catholic Entity will provide documents to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in accordance with Schedule "E".

2.13 IRS Abuse Claims brought outside the IAP will be settled only where the standard of proof utilized by the courts for matters of like seriousness has been met. Settlement offers will be based on evidentiary considerations and legal principles. IAP Claims shall be settled in accordance with its terms and conditions.

2.13.1 Where a Catholic Entity advises the Government in writing that it wishes to be consulted before the Government settles an IAP claim without holding a hearing, the Government will consult with the Catholic Entity provided that within two weeks of notification the Catholic Entity commits to a reasonable timetable and process for consultation.

2.14 Where a trial is held in a matter arising under the IAP, neither the Government nor a Catholic Entity will rely upon the defence of limitations or the doctrine of laches or other defence not going to the merits. This section does not apply to claims by a plaintiff who has opted out of the IRSSA.

2.14.1 Where an opt-out claim can be settled, the Government and the affected Catholic Entity agree that it will be resolved without regard to possible defences which do not go to the merits, such as limitations or laches. Should such a claim proceed to trial, Crown immunity, where applicable, will be asserted by the Government, and the Catholic Entity will be free to determine the defences it will assert.

2.15 Where a Catholic Entity makes a request in writing the Government will, in a timely manner, provide the Catholic Entity, or its designated representative, with copies of IRS Statements of Claim served on the Government, and copies of Notices of Examinations it serves on IRS Claimants, in order to facilitate informed decisions about potential participation by that Catholic Entity.

2.16 Where IRS Abuse Claims are being advanced in litigation, the Government and the Catholic Entities will each notify the other of any settlement overtures from claimants.

2.17 Where a Catholic Entity receives from the IAP Secretariat a copy of Claimant's IAP application or receives from the Government a copy of an application to the DRM, the Catholic Entity agrees to be bound by trust conditions imposed on it with respect to confidentiality or, if it does not so agree in one or more instances, to return the document(s) without copying, reading or making use of it in any way.

2.18 Releases by Class Members, Cloud Class Members and Non-resident Claimants are as provided for in the IRSSA, specifically Articles 4.06, 11.01, 11.02 and Schedule P, and the Approval Orders. As part of any resolution of a claim brought by any person not bound by the IRSSA arising out of or in relation to an Indian Residential School or the operation generally of Indian Residential Schools, the Government will concurrently secure from the claimant a dismissal of the claim and release for itself and the affected Catholic Entity from any and all past, present and future claims, whether or not now known to or existing at law, arising from or connected to, directly or indirectly, an Indian Residential School.

2.18.1 The release by a person not bound by the IRSSA shall be in the form attached as Schedule D.

2.19 Each Catholic Entity, the Corporation and Canada agree that they will bring no action or claim whatsoever against the other or its counsel related in any way to the validation, resolution or defence of any DRM, IAP or opt-out claim, and agree that this section shall operate as a full and complete defence to any such claim and that each of them shall be barred from recovering as against the other any and all amounts claimed by way of damages, interest, costs or expenses in any way related to such claims. The parties further agree to indemnify each other for any and all costs, expenses and damages suffered by each of them as a result of such action or claim being brought against the other or its counsel by them.

2.20 Section 2.19 does not operate to prevent the Government, the Corporation or a Catholic Entity from taking an action to enforce the provisions of this Agreement.

PART III:
HEALING AND RECONCILIATION AND FINANCIAL COMMITMENTS

3.1 The Catholic Entities will establish a not for profit corporation for healing and reconciliation for the exclusive purpose of implementing and carrying out the financial and In-Kind Services provided for in this Agreement and, subject to approval by the Government of its articles of incorporation, will have established the Corporation before the execution of this Agreement. The Corporation shall provide the Government with its constating documents and bylaws upon incorporation, and as amended from time to time, and with financial statements on its operations no later than 120 days following the end of each fiscal year until the financial and service commitments provided for by this Agreement and the Settlement Agreement are fulfilled.

3.1.1 The Government shall have the right to review and approve the articles of incorporation of the Corporation prior to incorporation.

3.2 The Corporation shall maintain segregated funds, accounts and records for each of the below listed $29,000,000 cash contribution, $25,000,000 In-Kind Services, and the funds raised in the Canada-wide fund raising campaign.

3.3 Each Catholic Entity and the Episcopal Corporation of Saskatoon agrees to pay or transfer to the Corporation for use in accordance with this Agreement the amount of money specified in a confidential list provided to the Deputy Minister, IRSRC. The list shall include amounts and a payment schedule for each Entity (“the Payment List”). The total of such individual commitments shall be $29,000,000, less the aggregate amount paid by one or more of the Catholic Entities or Other Catholic Entity for IRS Abuse Claim Compensation as of the date this Agreement comes into force (the “Net Amount”).

3.3.1 Within 60 days of this Agreement coming into force the Government and each Catholic Entity and Other Catholic Entity shall agree upon the amount that has been paid by the latter for IRS Abuse Claims. The amount remaining payable by each Catholic Entity as set out in the Payment List shall be secured by a promissory note and consent to judgment by that Catholic Entity in favour of the Corporation. The aggregate amount of all promissory notes and consents to judgment shall be the Net Amount. The promissory notes and consents to judgment shall be held by the Corporation in trust to be used only in the event of default, and then only as against an Entity in default.

3.3.2 Each Catholic Entity shall pay its share of the Net Amount as shown on the Payment List within a five year period commencing the day following the coming into force of this Agreement or such earlier date as may be agreed to by the parties. In no case shall the annual contribution to the Corporation by any Catholic Entity be less than 20% of that Entity's share of the net amount. The annual instalment shall be paid by each entity to the Corporation no later than March 31st of the year in which it is due. All payments are subject to verification and audit by a duly qualified person appointed by the Government.

3.4 The Corporation shall pay monies deposited with it pursuant to section 3.3 to the Aboriginal Healing Foundation ("AHF") in accordance with Schedule C or in accordance with Schedule B under the exception set out in section 4 of Schedule C.

3.5 Each Catholic Entity and the Episcopal Corporation of Saskatoon shall provide In-Kind Services as set forth in a confidential list ("the In-Kind Services List"), such list to be provided by the Corporation to the Deputy Minister, IRSRC.

3.5.1 The List shall include the value and a delivery schedule for each Entity. The total of the In-Kind Services by the Catholic Entities in the aggregate shall be $25,000,000 contributed over ten years toward healing and reconciliation for former IRS students, and their families and communities.

3.6 The determination of qualifying In-Kind Services shall be made in accordance with Schedule B. Subject to the exception set out in Schedule B, article 10, the ten year period will commence the day following the coming into force of this Agreement. A minimum of $2,500,000 In-Kind Services shall be made each year for the ten year period or until the In-Kind Services contributions total $25,000,000, whichever comes earlier.

3.6.1 No Catholic Entity shall be liable for more than its scheduled value of In-Kind Services as set out in the In-Kind Services List. In-Kind Services are subject to verification of delivery and compliance with Schedule B and audit.

3.7 Each Catholic Entity shall provide a promissory note and consent to judgment to the Corporation to secure the amount of its In-Kind Services. The promissory notes and consents to judgment shall be held by the Corporation in trust to be used only in the event of default, and then only as against the defaulting entity.

3.8 The Government is entitled to receive from the Corporation and the Catholic Entities on an annual basis information sufficient to enable the Government to verify performance of the obligations contained in sections 3.3 and 3.5 of this Agreement.

3.8.1 Canada may provide the other Church Organizations with the total amounts determined under 3.3.2 and 3.6 of the Agreement annually so they can determine their own proportionate financial obligations under their respective agreements with the Government.

3.9 Each Catholic Entity and the Corporation further agree to use their best efforts throughout the seven year period following the day after the coming into force of this Agreement to raise $25,000,000 through a Canada-Wide campaign to be established by the Corporation for healing and reconciliation for former IRS students and their families and communities. The funds to be raised through the Canada-Wide campaign, net of reasonable and necessary administration costs to raise the funds, shall be paid to the Corporation on an annual basis and awarded as grants in accordance with Schedule B.

3.9.1 Best efforts shall be deemed to have been made where the fund-raising campaign demonstrates on a Canada-Wide level in each of the seven years an approach and means that is consistent with the approach and means used by professionally managed national fundraising campaigns, including those operated by universities and hospital foundations.

3.9.2 Each Catholic Entity shall cooperate with the other Catholic Entities and the Corporation with a view to causing the Corporation to perform its obligations under Section 3.9.

3.9.3 No Entity shall be held in default of its obligation as to best efforts or to cooperate in the campaign where, having regard to the campaign as a whole, best efforts have been made.

3.9.4 For greater certainty, not raising $25,000,000 shall not, in itself, be a condition of default.

3.10 The Government is entitled to receive from the Catholic Entities and the Corporation on an annual basis information sufficient to enable the Government to verify that best efforts have been made and the amount of monies raised through the Canada-Wide campaign.

3.10.1 Canada may provide the other Church Organizations with the total amounts raised annually through the Canada-Wide campaign so they can determine their own proportionate financial obligations under their respective agreements with the Government.

3.11 Prior to the coming into force of this Agreement each Catholic Entity shall provide a statutory declaration of a duly authorized officer to satisfy the Government in accordance with accepted standards that it has the ability to meet its obligations under this Agreement.

3.12 So long as contributions made under section 3.3 to the Corporation are kept current as required by this Agreement, interest accruing on the funds held by the Corporation shall be used by the Corporation, first, for the payment of reasonable administration costs of the Corporation, and thereafter in accordance with Schedule B. The interest on any instalment paid to the Corporation before the due date shall be credited to the entity making the payment for the period of time from the date of payment to the due date.

3.12.1 Should the reasonable administration costs exceed the amount of interest on the funds on an annual basis, then the reasonable administration costs of operating the Corporation may, with the consent in writing of the Government be paid from the capital amount held by the Corporation. The Government may not unreasonably withhold the consent referred to in this Section.

3.13 The occurrence of any of the following events or conditions will be a default by a Catholic Entity:

3.13.1 Failure to fulfill its obligations under Sections 3.3, the first paragraph of 3.5, 3.7 and 3.11 where the default remains outstanding for more than 60 days;

3.13.2 Failure to fulfil its obligations under section 3.9;

3.13.3 Amalgamation with another entity on terms which do not provide that the amalgamated entity assumes the liabilities and obligations of the amalgamating body under this Agreement, the Settlement Agreement and Approval Orders, or becomes insolvent or bankrupt or makes a proposal or files an assignment for the benefit of creditors under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act or similar legislation in Canada or any other jurisdiction, or ceases doing business, or winds up, unless prior to such amalgamation, insolvency, bankruptcy, winding up, or assignment another Catholic Entity that is solvent and with sufficient funds to satisfy the obligations of the first entity assumes the obligations of such entity under this Agreement.

3.14 In the event of default by a Catholic Entity as defined in Section 3.13, the Corporation shall notify the Government in writing and the Corporation shall take such steps as are reasonable to cause the default by the Catholic Entity to be remedied.

3.15 In addition, with respect to a default under section 3.13.1, the Corporation and Government, as applicable, will have the following rights:

3.15.1 The Corporation is entitled to make such use of a defaulting Entity's promissory note and consent to judgment as it sees fit in order to realize on the amount(s) outstanding from the defaulting Entity, including the right to use, sue, file or register, and execute on the promissory note and consent to judgment;

3.15.2 The Government, in its sole discretion, may require the Corporation to deliver to it the defaulting Catholic Entity's promissory note and consent to judgment and, in such event may make such use of the promissory note and consent to judgment as it sees fit in order to realize on the amount outstanding from the defaulting Entity, including the right to use, sue, file or register, and execute on the promissory note and consent to judgment;

3.15.3 The Government, in its sole discretion, may require the Corporation to take all necessary steps to recover against a defaulting Entity on its promissory note and consent to judgment;

3.15.4 All proceeds recovered pursuant to Sections 3.15.1, 3.15.2, or 3.15.3 shall be applied, firstly, to pay the reasonable expenses related the use, suit, filing or registering or execution on the promissory note and consent to judgment and, secondly, to discharge or satisfy the obligations of the defaulting Entity under this Agreement.

3.16 The occurrence of any of the following events or conditions will be a default by the Corporation:

3.16.1 Breach of its obligations set out in Sections 3.2, 3.4, 3.7, 3.15.2 or 3.15.3 of this Agreement;

3.16.2 Failure to fulfil its obligations under section 3.9; and

3.16.3 Amalgamation with another entity on terms which do not provide that the amalgamated entity assumes the liabilities and obligations of the Corporation under this Agreement, the Settlement Agreement and Class Action Judgments, or becoming insolvent or bankrupt or making a proposal or filing an assignment for the benefit of creditors under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act or similar legislation in Canada or any other jurisdiction, or ceasing doing business or winding up, unless prior to such amalgamation, insolvency, bankruptcy, winding up, or assignment another corporation that is solvent with sufficient funds to satisfy the obligations of the Corporation assumes the obligations of the Corporation under this Agreement.

3.17 In the event of default by the Corporation, in addition to any other remedies the Government may have by law, the Government may:

3.17.1 Pursue remedies under Part V in an expedited way, and failing resolution under Part V make a summary application to court for a remedial order; or 3.17.2 Appoint a receiver over the Corporation.

3.18 If the provisions of Section 3.3, or 3.5 to 3.7 are not fully complied with, and the Government has taken reasonable steps against a defaulting Entity to execute on the promissory note and consent to judgment as against such Entity and obligations of that Entity remain outstanding, then in addition to any other rights or remedies to which the Government may be entitled by law, or by this Agreement, the Government may declare this Agreement, or, at its sole discretion, any portion thereof, to be void as to the defaulting Catholic Entity by notice in writing to all Catholic Entities and the Corporation or the Government may thereafter apply to court for an order removing the defaulting Catholic Entity in from the deemed releases which arise under the IRSSA. In such case the defaulting Catholic Entity agrees to consent to judgment.

3.19 Notwithstanding Section 3.17.1, where a dispute arises as to whether the obligations of a Catholic Entity or the Corporation set out under Section 3.9 of this Agreement have been met, in addition to remedies under Part V of this Agreement, the Government may at any time refer the matter to the appropriate court on a summary basis. Where the court finds that the Catholic Entity or the Corporation has failed to meet its obligations under Section 3.9, the Government shall consider reasonable proposals from the defaulting Catholic Entity or Corporation, as the case may be, to remedy the default. Remedies may include additional fundraising efforts, In-Kind Services or additional cash. In addition:

3.19.1 Where the Government and a defaulting Catholic Entity do not agree on a remedy, the Government may declare this Agreement or, at its sole discretion, any portion thereof to be void as to the defaulting Catholic Entity by notice in writing to all Catholic Entities and the Corporation or the Government may thereafter apply to court for an order removing the defaulting Catholic Entity from the deemed releases which arise under the IRSSA. In such case, the defaulting Catholic Entity agrees to consent to judgment.

3.20 The Sections and Schedules of the Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement listed below and reproduced in Schedule F hereto are incorporated into and form part of this Agreement by this reference as fully as if contained in the body of this Agreement. The Sections and Schedules of the Settlement Agreement incorporated by reference are: selected Definitions in 1.01, 4.01, 4.05, 4.06, 7.01(2), 7.01(3), 11.01, 11.02, 11.03, 13.02, 13.03, 13.10, 13.11, 15.01(3), Schedule D Appendices II page 19 (iii) (iv), III page 21 (i), IV page 23 (i) (vii), X pages 39 to 42, XI pages 43 and 44, Schedule N Article 10A(k), 10B(c)(f), 10D, and Part 14 paragraph 3, Schedule P, all plus definitions from Section 1.01 of the IRSSA such as are necessary to give meaning and effect to the foregoing IRSSA Sections and Schedules.

PART IV APPORTIONMENT AND PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION

4.1 Where an IRS Abuse Claim is resolved after the coming into force of this Agreement, the Government will pay in full all Compensation payable for such claim, and the Catholic Entities shall bear no responsibility to pay any part of such Compensation.

4.1.1 For greater certainty, it is agreed that all Compensation for IRS Abuse Claims paid by a Catholic Entity as of the coming into force of this Agreement shall remain undisturbed, and credited in accordance with Section 3.3.1.

4.2 Notwithstanding Section 4.1, where all or part of the Compensation awarded at a trial for an IRS Abuse Claim relates only to an intentional tort committed prior to May 14, 1953 for which the Crown is immune, any Catholic Entity against whom judgment is rendered shall pay 100% of the Compensation that relates to such intentional tort, and Section 4.1 shall apply only to the balance of such Compensation, if any. The provisions of Sections 2.3 and 4.7 shall apply to the amount of Compensation paid by a Catholic Entity under this clause so as to indemnify the Catholic Entity in a timely way.

4.3 Following the coming into force of this Agreement, the Government will, at the request of a Claimant whose IRS abuse claim was settled by the Government without contribution from a Catholic Entity which is a party to such claim and is a party to the Approval Orders, such settlement having been for an amount representing a fixed reduction from the assessed Compensation, offer to pay the balance of the assessed Compensation to the Claimant. Provided, however, that no amount shall be paid to a Claimant pursuant to this section until the Claimant agrees to accept such amount in full and final satisfaction of his or her claim against the Catholic Entity and the Government, and to release them.

4.4 The liability of a Catholic Entity for all Compensation for IRS Abuse Claims is discharged by full compliance of its obligations under this Agreement, and that thereafter the Government will not require further monies be paid or In-Kind Services be provided by such Catholic Entity.

4.4.1 The Episcopal Corporation of Saskatoon, which did not have an IRS located within its territorial boundaries nor did it provide staff to work in an IRS, is a party to this Agreement for purposes of contributing cash and providing In-Kind Services (in accordance with Sections 3.3 and 3.5 to 3.8, 3.11 and Schedule B hereof) and for complying with the requirements as to documents and witnesses and participation in ceremonies (in accordance with Sections 2.10 and 2.12 hereof). The liability of the Episcopal Corporation of Saskatoon for all Compensation for IRS Abuse Claims is discharged by full compliance of its obligations under this Agreement, and thereafter the Government will not require further monies be paid or In-Kind Services be provided by the Episcopal Corporation of Saskatoon.

4.4A The Jesuit Fathers of Upper Canada, the Roman Catholic Episcopal Corporation for the Diocese of Sault Ste. Marie in Ontario Canada, and the Daughters of Mary, being Other Catholic Entities with an existing agreement with the Government that provides for the payment of Compensation (which is paid up) and who are not parties to this Agreement, shall not receive any benefit or incur obligations pursuant to or arising from this Agreement.

4.5 In the event that the terms of this Agreement are fully complied with then notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or elsewhere contained, the Government will release and forever discharge each Catholic Entity from any and all causes of action, claims or demands for damages for IRS Abuse Claims or claims included in the Approval Orders. In such event the Government will also agree not to make any claims or demands or commence, maintain or prosecute any action, cause or proceeding for damages, compensation, loss or any other relief whatsoever against any Catholic Entity arising directly or indirectly from any IRS Abuse Claim or other claims included in the IRSSA.

4.6 So long as a Catholic Entity is complying with its obligations under this Agreement, the Government agrees to indemnify and save harmless such Catholic Entity from any and all claims for Compensation payable to a Claimant in an IRS Abuse Claim. If a Catholic Entity is not complying with its obligations under this Agreement, then the Government will not indemnify and save harmless such Catholic Entity for the period of time it is not in compliance.

4.7 Where the Corporation certifies that a Catholic Entity has fully complied with its obligations under Sections 3.3 and 3.5 of this Agreement, and where best efforts have been made to date and the Canada-Wide campaign is successful having regard to other professionally managed national fundraising campaigns, and the Catholic Entity commits to continue its best efforts in the Canada-Wide campaign, the Government shall release and forever discharge that Catholic Entity from any and all causes of actions, claims or demand for damages for IRS Abuse Claims or claims included in the Approval Orders and shall not make any claim or demand or commence, maintain or prosecute any other cause or proceeding for Compensation made against that Catholic Entity in an IRS Abuse Claim.

PART V
RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES
CONCERNING THIS AGREEMENT

5.1 The parties to this Agreement share the following objectives in the implementation of the Agreement, namely to:

5.1.1 co-operate with each other to develop harmonious working relationships;

5.1.2 prevent, or, alternatively, to minimize disagreements;

5.1.3 identify disagreements quickly and resolve them in the most expeditious and cost-effective manner; and

5.1.4 resolve disagreements in a non-adversarial, collaborative and informal atmosphere.

5.2 If any dispute arises out of, or has arisen relating to this Agreement, or the breach, validity or interpretation or subject matter thereof, the disputing parties will diligently endeavour to settle the dispute through good faith negotiations.

5.2.1 Section 5.2 does not abrogate the rights set out in Section 3.11, nor the right to seek specific performance as set out in Section 5.8.

5.3 If the disputing parties resolve some, but not all issues in dispute during the course of, or as a result of the negotiations, their rights with respect to the remaining unresolved issues shall remain unaffected by the negotiations in any subsequent proceeding.

5.4 Within sixty (60) days of the execution date of this Agreement the Government and the Catholic Entities collectively, shall each appoint one person as their Nominee to an Implementation Steering Committee, for the purpose of overseeing the administration and interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement and shall provide in writing the name of their Nominee to the other. For the purposes of this Part the Government shall be entitled to one Nominee and the Catholic Entities collectively shall be entitled to one Nominee.

5.5 The two Nominees constituting the Implementation Steering Committee shall meet in the Province of Alberta, or otherwise in Canada as agreed, at least once each calendar year during the currency of this Agreement. The purpose of each meeting will be to review performance under this Agreement, and to resolve by consensus all disputes that arise or have arisen in the interpretation and implementation of this Agreement. The minutes of such meetings shall be signed by each Nominee at the conclusion of the meeting and filed with the Government, the Corporation and the Catholic Entities.

5.6 If the disputing parties are unable to resolve a dispute through negotiations within 120 days, either may request the commencement of mediation to resolve the dispute. The Mediator would be a third party neutral, who has no authority to resolve the dispute, but would facilitate resolution.

5.6.1 The mediation will be conducted by one Mediator jointly agreed upon by the Government and the disputing Catholic Entities.

5.6.2 The disputing parties will make a serious attempt to resolve the dispute through mediation by:

5.6.2.1 identifying underlying interests;

5.6.2.2 isolating points of agreement and disagreement;

5.6.2.3 exploring alternative solutions;

5.6.2.4 considering compromises or accommodations; and

5.6.2.5 co-operating fully with the mediator and giving prompt attention to, and responding to all communications from the mediator.

5.6.3 A party to the mediation may withdraw from mediation at any time by giving at least 21 days written notice of its intention to the other and the Mediator.

5.7 Notwithstanding Section 5.6, the Government may by notice in writing request that the Corporation or a Catholic Entity comply with a commitment made in this Agreement.

5.7.1 Where the Government has delivered a written request to the Corporation or Catholic Entity in accordance with this Agreement to have the recipient comply with such request within 60 days and the request has not been complied with, the Government may apply by way of summary application to a court of competent jurisdiction where the Corporation or Catholic Entity is located for a mandatory order that they immediately comply with their obligation.

5.7.2 The Corporation or Catholic Entity may file responding materials to the summary application and the rules of the court having jurisdiction will thereafter determine the process to be followed in determining the summary application.

5.7.3 If the court hearing the summary application finds that the Corporation or Catholic Entity have failed to comply with their obligations under this Agreement the court may order that they immediately comply with such obligations.

6.2 This Agreement shall be binding on and enure to the benefit of each Catholic Entity, the Corporation and their successors and assigns and the Government.

6.3 Any provision of this Agreement which is or becomes prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction that governs the interpretation, applicability or enforceability of this Agreement shall not invalidate or impair the remaining provisions of this Agreement which shall be deemed severable from the prohibited or unenforceable provision and any prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable that provision in any other jurisdiction.

6.6 Time shall be of the essence in this Agreement.

6.7 No Member of the House of Commons or Senate may participate in or derive a benefit through this Agreement other than as a member or officer of the Corporation, a Catholic Entity or as a Claimant.

6.8 This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement among the parties and cancels and supersedes any prior agreements, undertakings, declarations or representations, written or verbal in respect of them, except as follows:

6.8.1 The provisions in the Agreements between the Government and the Catholic entities listed in Schedule A which were in force as of the date this Agreement comes into force continue in effect for the purpose of determining rights and obligations in DRM proceedings, but not as to any financial matters.

6.9 This Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws in force in the Province of Ontario, subject always to any paramount or applicable federal laws. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to or is to be construed as limiting, waiving or derogating from any federal Crown prerogative.

6.10 The Government, the Catholic Entities and the Corporation acknowledge that the participation in the negotiations leading to the execution of this Agreement, and the execution of this Agreement, does not constitute any admission by the Government, the Catholic Entities or the Corporation that they have any legal or financial liability to any party in relation to claims arising from or connected to the operation of an IRS. The Government, the Catholic Entities and the Corporation agree that they will not advance as evidence or argument in any legal claim against each other in relation to claims arising from or connected to the operation of an IRS, the negotiations leading to and the execution of this Agreement.

SCHEDULE B

THE CATHOLIC HEALING, RECONCILIATION AND SERVICE EVALUATION COMMITTEE

1. The parties agree that there shall be a Committee known as The Catholic Healing, Reconciliation Service Evaluation Committee (“the Committee”) which shall be responsible to make grants of monies deposited with the Corporation and to approve In-Kind Services and admissible programs, all in accordance with this Agreement.
2. The reasonable administration costs of operating the Committee shall be paid first from the interest on funds held by the Corporation and thereafter may, with the consent in writing of the Government, be paid from the capital amount held by the Corporation. The Government may not unreasonably withhold the consent referred to in this Section.
3. The Committee shall be composed of seven members of which three members will be appointed by Catholic Entities; three members will be appointed by the AFN; and one member shall be appointed by Indian Residential Schools Resolution, Canada.
4. As much as possible, the Committee shall make decisions by consensus. Where a consensus cannot be reached through reasonable discussion and compromise, decisions may be taken by simple majority.
5. The guiding objective of the Committee shall be to ensure that admissible programs and services are directed to healing and reconciliation for former Indian Residential School students and their families. For greater certainty, the parties recognize that programs and services aimed at the community level may be admissible to the extent that the Committee is satisfied that the programs or service benefits are reasonably connected with healing and reconciliation for IRS students and their families.
6. Where an existing program or service is proposed, the Committee may certify the program or service to the extent that the Committee believes that the program or service or some part thereof is new or would not otherwise continue.
7. Programs and services must be open to all Aboriginal people regardless of denomination.
8. In addition the Committee shall consider the following criteria to applications for grants and for the approval of In-Kind Services.
 - a) Do Aboriginal people have input in developing and delivery of the program?
 - b) Has the program been effective in the past?
 - c) To what extent are aboriginal communities involved in the program?

- d) Does the program or service deal with former students, or their families and communities and the aftermath of IRS including providing assistance with the recovery of their histories?
- e) What portion of the overall cost of the program addresses the social, psychological, and health issues without regard to religiosity?

9. Where the Committee approves a service or program as an admissible In-Kind Service, it shall assess the value in dollars of the program having regard to its actual cost and the market value of similar services. The lesser of these two amounts must be used unless there are compelling reasons to chose a higher amount.

10. The Committee shall require applicants to certify that no program proposed for In-Kind eligibility has received grants drawn from either the Catholic Entities' $29,000,000 cash contribution under this Agreement or the fruits of fund raising under this Agreement. For greater certainty, this condition is only meant to ensure that services funded under the settlement (or portions thereof) are not counted as eligible In-Kind Services.

11. Notwithstanding section 6 of this Schedule, the Committee as an interim measure may credit the value of a program or service offered between March 31, 2005 and the coming into force of this agreement toward the In-Kind Services provided that:

- a) it meets the criteria set out in sections 7 and 8 of this Schedule;
- b) the program or service did not exist before March 31, 2005 unless otherwise agreed to by Canada;
- c) the same program or service cannot be certified for a period following the coming into force of this Agreement unless it can be shown that it would not otherwise continue; and
- d) in no case shall the total amount credited for programs and services provided before the coming into force of this Agreement exceed $1,500,000.

12. The parties agree that the Committee may meet and make decisions under article 11 of this Schedule before the coming into force of this Agreement, and that following the coming into force of this Agreement the decisions the Committee makes in this period shall be ratified without further review and the costs and reasonable expenses incurred shall be reimbursed by the Corporation in accordance with section 3.12 of this Agreement. For greater certainty, should this Agreement not come into force the decisions made under articles 11 and 12 shall have no force or effect and the Corporation has no obligation to make reimbursement.

SCHEDULE C

CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH PAYMENTS ARE MADE FROM THE CORPORATION TO THE ABORIGINAL HEALING FOUNDATION (“AHF”)

The Corporation shall pay monies deposited with it under Sections 3.3 as follows:

1. The Corporation shall receive applications for funding of healing and reconciliation programs.
2. Where the application is one that the Corporation supports, it shall forward the application to the AHF for its consideration.
3. Where the AHF approves the application in accordance with its ordinary criteria, the Corporation shall pay to the AHF the amount of funding approved for the program.
4. Subject to article 5 of this Schedule, where an application is not accepted by the AHF, the Corporation may fund the program if it satisfies the criteria set out in Schedule B.
5. At least 80% of monies paid under Section 3.3 of this Agreement shall be transferred to the AHF in accordance with this Schedule.
6. Where at the end of the 5 year period set out in Section 3.3.2, the Corporation has not spent all the monies paid under 3.3 of this Agreement in accordance with articles 1 through 5 of this Schedule, the balance shall be paid to the AHF to be spent in accordance with its ordinary criteria, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Government and the Corporation.

This indemnity includes, but is not restricted to, claims relating to medical and/or dental services or treatment provided to me, and claims relating to compensation paid to me by any government or government agency authority for any of the Released Claims that are criminal assaults.
10. If I later commence a claim that is not a Released Claim for damages for harm or injuries which are the same as or similar to the harm or injuries resulting from the Released Claims, and the Releasees or any of them are made parties to such action, the fact and amount of this Release, as well as the details of the damages or harm which I claimed in the Released Claims, may be disclosed by the Releasees to the court in the context of such later claim.

- (d) ordering and declaring that on the expiry of the Opt Out Periods all class members, unless they have opted out or are deemed to have opted out on or before the expiry of the Opt Out Periods, have released each of the defendants and Other Released Church Organizations from any and all actions they have, may have had or in the future may acquire against any of the defendants and Other Released Church Organizations arising in relation to an Indian Residential School or the operation generally of Indian Residential Schools.

- (j) ordering and declaring that where an action permitted by Section 4.06(i) is brought, the deemed release set out in Section 11.01 is amended to the extent necessary to permit the action to proceed only with respect to Continuing Claims.

ARTICLE FIFTEEN TRANSITION PROVISIONS

15.01 No Prejudice

The parties agree that the no prejudice commitment set out in the letter of the Deputy Minister of the OIRSRC dated July, 2005, and attached as Schedule “R” means that following the Implementation Date:

- (3) Following the coming into force of the Approval Orders, at the request of an Eligible IAP Claimant whose IRS abuse claim was settled by Canada without contribution from a Catholic Entity set out in Schedule “C” of this Agreement, such settlement having been for an amount representing a fixed reduction from the assessed Compensation, Canada will pay the balance of the assessed compensation to the Eligible IAP Claimant. Provided, however, that no amount will be paid to an Eligible IAP Claimant pursuant to this section until the Eligible IAP Claimant agrees to accept such amount in full and final satisfaction of his or her claim against a Catholic entity set out in Schedule “C” of this Agreement, and to release them by executing a release substantially in the form of the release referred to in Section 11.02 of this Agreement.

SECTIONS OF INDEPENDENT ASSESSMENT PROCESS, SCHEDULE D TO THE IRSSA, INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE

APPENDIX II: ACCEPTANCE OF APPLICATION (Schedule D page 19)

- iii. On admitting the claim to the IAP, the Secretariat shall forward a copy of the application to the Government and to a church entity which is a party to the Class Action Judgments and was involved in the IRS from which the claim arises.
 - A church entity may waive its right to receive applications for all claims, or for defined classes of claims, by notice in writing to the Secretariat, and may amend or withdraw such waiver at any time by notice in writing.
- iv. The following conditions apply to the provision of the application to the Government or a church entity:
 - The application will only be shared with those who need to see it to assist the Government with its defence, or to assist the church entities with their ability to defend the claim or in connection with their insurance coverage;
 - If information from the application is to be shared with an alleged perpetrator, only relevant information about allegations of abuse by that person will be shared, and the individual will not be provided with the Claimant's address or the address of any witness named in the application form, nor with any information from the form concerning the effects of the alleged abuse on the Claimant, unless the Claimant asks that this be provided to the alleged perpetrator;
 - Each person with whom the application is shared, including counsel for any party, must agree to respect its confidentiality. Church entities will use their best efforts to secure the same commitment from any insurer with whom it is obliged to share the application;
 - Copies will be made only where absolutely necessary, and all copies other than those held by the Government will be destroyed on the conclusion of the matter, unless the Claimant asks that others retain a copy, or unless counsel for a party is required to retain such copy to comply with his or her professional obligations.

- i. The defendants will attempt to locate the alleged perpetrator to invite them to the hearing. If the alleged perpetrator is dead, cannot be located, or declines to attend, the hearing may still occur.

APPENDIX IV: INFORMATION COLLECTION; SETTING HEARING DATE; ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION AT HEARING

- i. The defendants will collect and submit their documents to the Secretariat.
- vii. Given the non-adversarial nature of this IAP and the neutral, inquisitorial role played by the adjudicators under it, as well as the need to respect the safety of the Claimant, neither an alleged perpetrator nor counsel for an alleged perpetrator may attend while the Claimant gives evidence, without the Claimant's advance consent. Where counsel for a church entity also acts for an alleged perpetrator, this means that they may not attend the hearing while the Claimant gives evidence without the Claimant's advance consent. Government representatives may always attend this part of the hearing, as may representatives of church entities who are parties to the Class Action Judgments except their counsel if he or she is also acting for an alleged perpetrator in the case.

APPENDIX X: THE USE OF EXTRA-CURIAL KNOWLEDGE BY ADJUDICATORS

INTRODUCTION

A number of issues will arise concerning the ability of adjudicators to make use of information obtained or known beyond that provided by the parties in each individual case. There are several aspects to this matter:

- use of background information and/or personal knowledge, for example on
 - schools
 - child abuse and its impacts
 - the residential school system
- carry-forward of information from hearing to hearing, for example on
 - alleged perpetrators and the modus operandi of proven perpetrators
 - conditions at a school
 - credibility findings
- use of precedents from other adjudicators
- ability of adjudicators to confer

The approach to be taken to these issues is set out below, by reference to the source of the information in question.

1. Orientation Materials Provided to Adjudicators

Adjudicators will be supplied with orientation materials on the residential school system and its operations, as well as on child abuse and its impacts.

If any of the orientation materials are specifically identified as containing uncontested facts or opinions, they may be used as follows:

Adjudicators are expected to inform themselves from this material. They may use it to question witnesses, but also to make findings of fact and to support inferences from evidence they find credible, for example to conclude that trauma of a certain kind can be expected to flow from a sexual assault on a child. These latter uses of this information are justified by the fact that representatives of all interests have agreed to its inclusion in the orientation materials for this use, and all participants in a hearing will have access to the orientation materials.

Wherever possible the adjudicator should use the information at the hearing to formulate questions to any witnesses who may be able to comment on it, or whose testimony it may contradict, support, or help explain. Where this is not possible, the proposed use in reaching a decision should be identified to the parties at the hearing to give them a chance to comment on it in their submissions, but so doing is not a condition precedent to the proposed use.

Where the material is used in coming to a finding of fact, or drawing an inference, it should be cited and its relevance and the rationale for its use set out in the decision.

Where orientation information provided to adjudicators does not represent uncontested facts or opinions, it may be used by adjudicators as follows:

Adjudicators may use this category of orientation materials as a basis for questioning witnesses, or testing the evidence, but may not rely on it as an independent basis for their conclusions of fact or their assessment of the actual impact of abuse on an individual.

2. Personal Knowledge of Abuse and its Impacts

Some adjudicators may bring to the job an extensive background in dealing with child abuse, or may receive information on child abuse and its impacts at training sessions or continuing education programs, or through their own reading or research.

The approach to the use of this kind of information is as follows:

Adjudicators may use their personal knowledge, training they have received, or general educational materials, as a basis for questioning witnesses, or testing the evidence, but may not rely on them as an independent basis for their conclusions of fact or their assessment of the actual impact of abuse on an individual.

3. Document Collections

Adjudicators will be provided with Canada's, and potentially a church's, document collection on each school for which they are holding hearings. This material will also be available to Claimants and their counsel.

The approach to the use of this kind of information is as follows:

Adjudicators are expected to inform themselves from this material, which may be used as a basis for findings of fact or credibility. Where any of it is so used by adjudicators, it must be cited and its relevance and the rationale for use set out in the report.

Because this information is specific to the school in question and is provided in advance, it is expected that adjudicators will be familiar with it before starting a hearing to which it is relevant. Given this, before relying on specific documents to help decide a given case, the adjudicator should seek the consent of the parties, or put the relevant extracts to any witnesses who may be able to comment on them, or whose testimony they may contradict or support. Where there are no such witnesses, or where one or more parties contest the use of the documents, the adjudicator may still use them in his or her decision, but wherever possible should advise the parties of the proposed use of the document so that they may address it in their submissions.

4. Previous findings

Adjudicators will hear evidence about, and make findings of fact about, the operations of various schools, their layouts, the conditions that pertained in them, the acts and knowledge of adult employees, and where an individual is found to have committed a number of assaults in a particular way, their modus operandi.

The approach to the use of this kind of information is as follows:

Adjudicators must treat each individual's claim as a unique claim to be determined on the evidence presented, plus information expressly permitted to be used according to the guidelines agreed to for this process. They may not carry forward, much less be bound by, previous findings they have made, including findings of credibility.

They may, though, use information from previous hearings to inquire about possible admissions, or failing that, to question witnesses. This ability to bring forward information from previous hearings for these specific purposes flows from the fact that this IAP is not a party-controlled adversarial process. Instead, the inquisitorial model is being used to have adjudicators inquire into what happened, using their skills and judgment to question witnesses to determine the facts.

While it would not be fair to base a decision on evidence from a previous hearing, since some or all of the parties would not know its context, and would be unable to challenge its reliability, it is also not appropriate to insist that adjudicators act as if each case were their first one. Their job requires them to test evidence and determine what happened. While they cannot call witnesses, it is their duty to question them, and they must be free to pose questions and follow lines of inquiry they believe to be relevant. Whether that belief flows from common sense, instinct, or something heard at another hearing, it is appropriate as a basis of inquiry, although, in the absence of an admission, not as evidence.

5. Stare decisis

Although reasons will be issued in each case, the IAP will not operate on the basis of binding precedent. All adjudicators are of equal authority, and should not consider themselves bound by each other's previous decisions. Through conferencing, adjudicators may come to a common interpretation of certain procedural issues, but each case must be determined on its own merits.

SECTIONS OF MANDATE FOR THE TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION COMMISSION, SCHEDULE N TO THE IRSSA, INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE

10. Events

There are three essential event components to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission: National Events, Community Events and Individual Statement-Taking/Truth Sharing. The Truth and Reconciliation process will be concluded with a final Closing Ceremony.

(A) National Events

The national events are a mechanism through which the truth and reconciliation process will engage the Canadian public and provide education about the IRS system, the experience of former students and their families, and the ongoing legacies of the institutions.

National events should include the following common components:

- (k) participation of high level government and church officials;

(B) Community Events

It is intended that the community events will be designed by communities and respond to the needs of the former students, their families and those affected by the IRS legacy including the special needs of those communities where Indian Residential Schools were located.

The community events are for the purpose of:

- (c) involving church, former school employees and government officials in the reconciliation process, if requested by communities;
- (f) allowing for the participation from high level government and church officials, if requested by communities;

(D) Closing Ceremony

The Commission shall hold a closing ceremony at the end of its mandate to recognize the significance of all events over the life of the Commission. The closing ceremony shall have the participation of high level church and government officials.

14. Budget and Resources

Institutional parties shall bear the cost of participation and attendance in Commission events and community events, as well as provision of documents. If requested by the party providing the documents, the costs of copying, scanning, digitalizing, or otherwise reproducing the documents will be borne by the Commission.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT ENTERED INTO THIS _____ DAY OF _____, 2006

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN IN RIGHT OF CANADA AS REPRESENTED BY THE MINISTER RESPONSIBLE FOR INDIAN RESIDENTIAL SCHOOLS RESOLUTION CANADA
(hereinafter referred to as the "Government")

and

THE UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA,
(hereinafter referred to as the Church)

WHEREAS the Government and the Church participated in developing and operating residential schools for Aboriginal children in Canada;

AND WHEREAS former residential school students have alleged abuse and other wrongs against the Government and the Church;

AND WHEREAS the Government and the Church have both expressed regret for the unintended harm to Aboriginal people incurred at residential schools;

AND WHEREAS the Government and the Church desire a fair, comprehensive and lasting resolution of the legacy of Indian Residential Schools directed to, among other things, healing and reconciliation and payment of compensation for validated claims;

AND WHEREAS former students who were abused at residential schools should receive Compensation for injuries resulting from Validated Claims;

AND WHEREAS the Government and the Church recognize that court proceedings can be adversarial, lengthy and costly and often not the best way to resolve abuse claims;

AND WHEREAS the Government and the Church have been and remain committed to working jointly with Claimants to employ fair, safe, effective and timely processes to validate and resolve IRS Abuse Claims, which processes will seek to avoid causing additional trauma for Claimants while also protecting the reputations of named abusers from unfounded allegations;

AND WHEREAS representatives of the Government and Church are parties to an Agreement in Principle amongst themselves, plaintiffs, the AFN and certain other religious denominations dated November 20, 2005 in which the parties have agreed to enter into a final settlement agreement to give effect to the Agreement in Principle;

THIS MEMORANDUM WITNESSETH:

PART I DEFINITIONS

1.1 The following definitions apply throughout this Agreement, and, unless specifically defined therein, in any subsequent documents entered into in furtherance of its objectives:

"Catholic Settlement Agreement" means the agreement entered into between certain Catholic Entities, the • Corporation and the Government dated • , 2006.

The statutes adopted the said covenant and were and are each known as The United Church of Canada Act.

"Claimant" means an individual who is entitled to make a claim under the Dispute Resolution Model or Independent Assessment Process established under the Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement or a former student of an IRS or “IRS Abuse Claim” means a continuing claim as defined for the IAP, or outside of the IAP, means a claim for Compensation for the mistreatment or neglect of a child arising from, or connected to, the operation of an Indian Residential School, other than a claim arising from the alleged loss or diminution of aboriginal language or culture (which is a continuing claim as defined for the IAP) that is founded on:

one or more intentional torts such as physical or sexual assault, forcible confinement or the intentional infliction of mental suffering where the Government or the Church has or accepts vicarious liability; and “Validation” means any of the above methods used to decide if an IRS Abuse Claim is a Validated Claim.

1.2 For greater certainty, for purposes of this Agreement the definitions in this Agreement prevail over those used in the IRSSA. Where a word or term is capitalized in this Agreement and not herein defined, then the definition in the IRSSA applies unless the context requires otherwise.

1.3 The following Schedules are appended to this Agreement and are incorporated into and form part of this Agreement by this reference as fully as if contained in the body of this Agreement:

Schedule A, Indian Residential Schools Related to the United Church;

Schedule B, Healing and Reconciliation and In-Kind Services Criteria; and Schedule C, Full and Final Release of Claims by Persons who Opt Out of the IRSSA.

PART II COMING INTO FORCE

2.1 This Agreement comes into force and will become effective and binding on the parties on the Implementation Date (see Article 1.01 of the IRSSA). For greater certainty, if the IRSSA does not become effective and binding, then this Agreement has no force and effect.

PART III DEFENCE AND RESOLUTION OF IRS ABUSE CLAIMS

3.1 As long as there is a prospect of settling a claim solely on the basis of the allegations which fall within the definition of an IRS Abuse Claim, it is to be treated as such for the purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding the fact that claims arising from alleged loss or diminution of aboriginal language or culture or other claims falling outside the definition are also being made.

3.2 It is the Government's intention to defend or resolve all IRS Abuse Claims in which it is a named party. For claims based on intentional torts arising prior to May 14, 1953, the Government will assert immunity if the matter proceeds to trial and will play no role in the defence after a court finds such immunity. The Government will provide written notice of its intention to the Church not later than 120 days before the start of such trial, and the Church will defend the claims or otherwise settle them.

3.2.1 The Government agrees to wholly indemnify the Church for all Compensation paid to a Claimant pursuant to this Section or Section 5.2.; and

3.2.2 The Government will further indemnify the Church for legal fees and expenses incurred by the Church in defending an IRS Abuse Claim based on an intentional tort arising prior to May 14, 1953 for the period of time from and after a court has dismissed the claim against the Government based on Crown immunity to date of the resolution of the claim. The indemnification will be in an amount as agreed between the Government and Church, or as determined in accordance with Part VI hereof. In the event of resort to Part VI the parties and any Mediator appointed under Section 6.6 shall have regard to the rules, principles and case law that would apply in the taxation of a solicitor and own client account in the province or territory where the claim was brought.

3.3 The Church will cooperate in the validation and resolution of all IRS Abuse Claims against it, whether advanced within or outside the IAP, and may elect to participate at its own expense in the validation and resolution of any claim, or certain aspects of it, and reconciliation, subject to any applicable rules and procedures. In the case of a claim being resolved through the IAP, the Church's rights to participate and obligations are as set out therein.

3.4 The Government agrees to co-operate with the Church to minimize the circumstances in which a Claimant pursues independent causes of action or theories of liability against the Church in an IRS Abuse Claim.

3.5 The Government, where requested by the Church, shall provide disclosure of and production of relevant files and documents to counsel for the Church and its researchers and/or experts, excepting files and documents with respect to which solicitor-client privilege or other lawful privilege applies and is asserted and subject to privacy concerns and legislation. Any information obtained from records pursuant to this section will be used exclusively for the DRM or IAP processes or the defence of the IRS Abuse Claim for which the information was sought unless otherwise agreed in writing.

3.6 The Government and the Church agree that instructions given to their respective counsel will be consistent with the terms and intent of this Agreement, and further accept and acknowledge that their respective representatives and counsel are instructed by, act for, and represent only their principal.

3.7 The Government and the Church will within sixty (60) days of the coming into force of this Agreement withdraw any third party claim or cross claim against each other in IRS Abuse Claims on a reciprocal, without costs basis, other than in a class action or representative proceeding which includes allegations beyond IRS Abuse Claims, and will refrain from issuing such claims in the future, except in a class action or representative proceeding which includes allegations beyond IRS Abuse Claims.

3.8 The provisions of Appendices III and IV of the IAP apply to the collection and submission of documents and to the participation and evidence of an alleged perpetrator in IAP.

3.8A The Church will provide documents to the Government as required to assist with validation of applications for the Common Experience Payment (CEP) as that term is defined in the IRSSA.

3.9 In litigation and, subject to the provisions of Appendices III and IV of the IAP, in IAP, where the Church elects not to participate in the validation or resolution of IRS Abuse Claims, then the Church will at its own expense:

3.9.1 Comply with all reasonable requests from the Government for information during the proceedings;

3.9.2 Provide counsel for the Government and its researchers and experts with full access to all relevant files and databases, excepting documents with respect to which solicitor-client privilege or other lawful privilege applies and is asserted. Any information obtained from records pursuant to this section will be used exclusively for the DRM or IAP processes or for the defence of the IRS Abuse Claim for which the information was sought unless otherwise agreed in writing;

3.9.3 Participate, through one or more representatives, to the extent consistent with its values and traditions in any apologies, reconciliation or closure ceremonies that are agreed to as part of the resolution of an IRS Abuse Claim, and, provided the terms of this Agreement have been followed, support the result achieved as if they had been represented by counsel and had defended the Claim;

3.9.3.1 For greater certainty, the Church is responsible for the expense of participation by its representative at the event or ceremony, but is not responsible for any of the expense of the event or ceremony itself;

3.9.4 Provide disclosure and production of relevant documents in its possession or control, and provide witness statements on request;

3.9.5 Attend, as appropriate, at the discovery of their witnesses, and otherwise facilitate the testimony of witnesses within its employ; and

3.9.6 Accommodate a Claimant's reasonable request that a representative of the United Church attend a hearing while a Claimant is giving evidence or otherwise relating his or her experience at an IRS.

3.10 In IAP, where the Church elects not to participate in the validation or resolution of IRS Abuse Claims and subject to Appendix III of the IAP:

3.10.1 Provided a witness statement is submitted in advance, or the individual provides a full interview to the Government, the Government will pay the reasonable travel and accommodation costs of a member, employee or former employee of the Church to appear at a DRM or an IAP hearing. In other proceedings involving IRS Abuse Claims, the Government will only be responsible for any expense related to the participation of the member, employee or former employee of the Church where the Government requires the participation of such member, employee or former employee for its own purposes; and

3.10.2 Subject to Section 3.11, the Government will participate in and may conclude negotiations to determine the amount of Compensation in any settlement.

3.11 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Settlement Agreement or the IAP, it is agreed that in IAP Claims in which the Church is financially contributing to the Compensation paid to a Claimant, the Government will, at the sole discretion of the Church, require the claim to proceed to a hearing. In the event that the Church insists that a hearing proceed in this manner, the Church will pay 50% of the reasonable process costs of that hearing.

3.11.1 In an IAP Claim in which the Church is not financially contributing to any resulting award, the Government agrees to consult with the Church prior to settling the claim.

3.12 Where a trial is held in a matter arising under the IAP, neither the Government nor the Church will rely upon the defence of limitations or the doctrine of laches or other defence not going to the merits. This section does not apply to claims by a plaintiff who has opted out of the IRSSA.

3.12.1 Where an opt-out claim can be settled, the Government and the Church agree that it will be resolved without regard to possible defences which do not go to the merits, such as limitations or laches. Should such a claim proceed to trial, Crown immunity, where applicable, will be asserted by the Government, and the Church will be free to determine the defences it will assert.

3.13 The Government will in a timely manner provide the Church with copies of IRS Statements of Claim served on the Government, and copies of Notices of Examinations it serves on IRS Claimants, in order to facilitate informed decisions about potential participation by the Church.

3.14 Where IRS Abuse Claims are being advanced in litigation, the Government and the Church will each notify the other of any settlement overtures from claimants.

3.15 Where the Church receives from the IAP Secretariat a copy of a Claimant's IAP application or receives from the Government a copy of an application to the DRM, the Church agrees to be bound by trust conditions imposed on it with respect to confidentiality or, if it does not so agree in one or more instances, to return the document(s) without copying, reading or making use of it in any way.

3.16 Releases by Class Members, Cloud Class Members and Non-resident Claimants are as provided for in the IRSSA, specifically Articles 4.06, 11.01, 11.02 and Schedule P, and the Approval Orders. As part of any resolution of a claim brought by any person not bound by the IRSSA arising out of or in relation to an Indian Residential School or the operation generally of Indian Residential Schools, the Government will concurrently secure from the claimant a dismissal of the claim and release for itself and the Church from any and all past, present and future claims, whether or not now known to or existing at law, arising from or connected to, directly or indirectly, an Indian Residential School.

3.16.1 The release by a person not bound by the IRSSA shall be in the form attached as Schedule C.

3.17 The Church and Canada agree that they will bring no action or claim whatsoever against the other or its counsel related in any way to the validation or resolution of any DRM, IAP or opt-out claims, and agree that this section shall operate as a full and complete defence to any such claim and that each of them shall be barred from recovering as against the other any and all amounts claimed by way of damages, interest, costs or expenses in any way related to such claims. The parties further agree to indemnify each other for any and all costs, expenses and damages suffered by each of them as a result of such action or claim being brought against the other or its counsel by them.

3.18 Section 3.17 does not operate to prevent the Government or a Church from taking an action to enforce the provisions of this Agreement.

PART IV HEALING AND RECONCILIATION AND FINANCIAL COMMITMENTS

4.1 The parties agree that the maximum the Church is required to contribute towards IRS Abuse Claims is $6,891,170 determined as follows:

4.1.1 $4,710,420, consisting of $2,529,670 in cash and $2,180,750 in In-Kind Services, which is the Church's proportionate amount of the dollar value of the cash and In-Kind Services contributions made in the Catholic Settlement Agreement (being $29,000,000 cash and $25,000,000 in-kind required of the Catholic Entities), plus

4.1.2 A maximum of $2,180,750, being the Church's proportionate amount of the Catholic Entities' commitment to use best efforts through a national campaign over seven years to raise $25,000,000, as set out in the Catholic Settlement Agreement. The seven year period commences on the day following the coming into force of the Catholic Settlement Agreement.

4.1.2.1 Of the $2,180,750, set out in section 4.1.2, the Church will pay $1,744,600 regardless of the amount raised by the Catholic Entities through the national campaign, and will pay a further $436,150 upon the Catholic Entities raising over $20,000,000.

4.1.2.2 The Church shall satisfy its In-Kind Services contribution over a maximum of ten years from March 31, 2005.

4.2 Except as provided in Section 5.2 of this Agreement, the Church will have no further obligation to pay Compensation for IRS Abuse Claims beyond the amounts set out in Section 4.1.

4.2.1 For greater certainty, the Government agrees that it will be responsible for all further Compensation under the DRM and IAP, and all settlements and judgments for IRS Abuse Claims in the IAP or by opt-out claimants save for claims for alleged loss of language and culture by opt-out claimants.

4.3 Notwithstanding Sections 4.1, 4.2 and 5.1 the Church retains the right, in its sole discretion, to make some or all of its In-Kind Services contribution in cash and the further right, in its sole discretion, to make additional cash or In-Kind Services contributions above and beyond what is required under this Agreement.

4.4 The parties agree that as at November 20, 2005 the sum of $5,444,420 has been paid by the Church in Compensation to Claimants for Validated Claims.

4.5 Within 60 days of this Agreement coming into force, the Government and the Church will agree on the amount of Compensation paid by the Church between November 20, 2005 and the date this Agreement comes into force (the “transition period”). Within 60 days of such agreement, the Government will pay to the Church:

4.5.1 the amount of Compensation, not to exceed $1,010,600, paid by the Church for Compensation between November 20, 2005 and the date of this Agreement coming into force, which amount will be irrevocably committed for funding of the UCHRSEC and paid out in accordance with the terms of Schedule B; (the “Committed UCHRSEC Amount”); and

4.5.2 the amount of Compensation paid by the Church between November 20, 2005 and the date of this Agreement coming into force, which exceeds $1,010,600.

4.6 The amount of $5,444,420 as set out in Section 4.4 plus the amount determined in accordance with Section 4.5 shall be a credit to the Church as against the amounts required to be paid or In-Kind Services to be provided in accordance with Sections 4.1, 4.7, 4.8 and 4.9.

4.7 The amount to be drawn down under the credit established by Section 4.6 or paid by the Church after the credit is exhausted, as the case may be, up to the maximum of $6,891,170 to be contributed by the Church will be determined as follows:

4.7.1 The aggregate of $4,710,420 and $1,744,600 (from sections 4.1.1 and 4.1.2.1), being $6,455,020, minus the amount determined under section 4.5; plus

4.7.2 The amount raised by the Catholic Entities through the national campaign that exceeds $20,000,000 and up to $25,000,000 multiplied by 0.08723.

4.7.3 For purposes of calculations under this Agreement, the Catholic fundraising campaign will terminate seven years from the date this Agreement comes into force or such longer period as may be agreed to by the Church and Government, but in no case shall the period exceed 10 years from the coming into force of this Agreement.

4.7.4 No later than sixty days after the date on which the amount raised by the Catholic Entities through the national campaign exceeds $20,000,000 the Government will deliver a statement to the Church containing sufficient information to enable the Church to verify the amount raised by the Catholic Entities.

4.8 Any amount required to be paid by the Church or In-Kind Services to be provided may be satisfied by making grants for healing and reconciliation in accordance with Schedule B, and a corresponding credit given against the payments or In-Kind Services required under Section 4.1.

4.8.1 All decisions concerning the eligibility of grants for healing and reconciliation shall be made by the United Church Healing and Reconciliation Service Evaluation Committee (“UHRSEC”) established in accordance with Schedule B hereto.

4.8.2 The reasonable administration costs of operating the Committee may, with the consent in writing of the Government be paid from amounts that would otherwise be applied to grants or In-Kind Services. The Government may not unreasonably withhold the consent referred to in this Section.

4.9 Any amount required to be paid by the Church may be used to contribute to the Compensation payable to a Claimant for an IRS Abuse Claim, and the Government contribution to such Compensation shall be accordingly reduced. In such case, there shall be a credit given to the Church against the payments or In-Kind Services required under Section 4.1. The credit shall be in the amount of contribution by the Church to the Compensation to the Claimant.

4.9.1 The Church agrees to provide reasonable notice to the Government in advance of finalization of settlement documentation of its intention to invoke this Section in any Validated Claim.

4.10 The occurrence of any of the following events or conditions will be a default:

4.10.1 If monies are not paid or In-Kind Services provided pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; or

4.10.2 Amalgamation with another entity on terms which do not provide that the amalgamated entity assumes the liabilities and obligations of the Church under this Agreement, the Settlement Agreement and Approval Orders, or becoming insolvent or bankrupt or making a proposal or filing an assignment for the benefit of creditors under The Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act or similar legislation in Canada or any other jurisdiction, or ceasing doing business, or winding up, unless prior to such amalgamation, insolvency, bankruptcy, or assignment to another entity that is solvent and with sufficient funds to satisfy the obligations of the Church assumes the obligations of the Church under this Agreement, the Settlement Agreement and Approval Orders.

4.11 In the event of default as defined in Section 4.10, in addition to any other rights or remedies to which the Government may have against the Church by law, the Government may:

4.11.1 Pursue remedies under Part V in an expedited manner, and failing resolution under Part V make a summary application to court for a remedial order.

PART V APPORTIONMENT AND PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION

5.1 Subject to the rights of the Church in Section 4.3, where an IRS Abuse Claim is resolved after the coming into force of this Agreement the Government will pay in full all Compensation payable for such claim, and the Church shall bear no responsibility to pay any part of such Compensation.

5.1.1 For greater certainty, it is agreed that all Compensation for IRS Abuse Claims paid by the Church as of the coming into force of this Agreement shall remain undisturbed, and the amount thereof as determined under Section 4.5 shall be credited against the amounts set out in Section 4.1.

5.2 Notwithstanding Section 5.1, where all or part of the Compensation awarded at a trial relates only to an intentional tort committed prior to May 14, 1953, the Church shall pay 100% of the Compensation that relates to such intentional tort, and Section 5.1 shall apply only to the balance of such Compensation if any. The provisions of Section 3.2 and 5.6 shall apply to the amount of Compensation paid by the Church under this section so as to indemnify the Church in a timely way.

5.3 Following the coming into force of this Agreement, the Government will, at the request of a claimant whose IRS Abuse Claim was settled by the Government without contribution from the Church, on terms which do not release the Church from potential liability to the Claimant, and for an amount representing a fixed reduction from the assessed Compensation, offer to pay the balance of the assessed Compensation to the Claimant. Provided, however, that no amount shall be paid to a Claimant pursuant to this section until the Claimant agrees to accept such amount in full and final satisfaction of his or her claim against the Church and Government and to release them.

5.4 The liability of the Church for all Compensation for IRS Abuse Claims is discharged by its full compliance with the terms of this Agreement, and that thereafter the Government will not require further monies be paid or In-Kind Services be provided by the Church.

5.5 In the event that terms of this Agreement are fully complied, then notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or elsewhere contained, the Government will release and forever discharge the Church from any and all causes of action, claims or demands for damages for IRS Abuse Claims or other claims included in Approval Orders. In such event the Government will also agree not to make any claims or demands or commence, maintain or prosecute any action, cause or proceeding for damages, compensation, loss or any other relief whatsoever against the Church arising directly or indirectly from any IRS Abuse Claim or other claims included in the Approval Orders.

5.6 The Government agrees that full compliance by the Church with this Agreement shall operate conclusively as an estoppel in the event of any such claim, action or proceeding and may be pled as such, and further agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Church from any and all claims or demands for damages and assessed costs and disbursements payable to any party other than the Church in any IRS Abuse Claim or other claim included in the Approval Orders.

PART VI RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES CONCERNING THIS AGREEMENT

6.1 The Government and the Church share the following objectives in the implementation of the Agreement, namely to:

6.1.1 co-operate with each other to develop harmonious working relationships;

6.1.2 prevent, or, alternatively, to minimize disagreements;

6.1.3 identify disagreements quickly and resolve them in the most expeditious and cost-effective manner; and

6.1.4 resolve disagreements in a non-adversarial, collaborative and informal atmosphere.

6.2 If any dispute arises out of, or has arisen relating to this Agreement, or the breach, validity or interpretation or subject matter thereof, they will endeavor diligently to settle a dispute through good faith negotiations.

6.2.1 Section 6.2 does not abrogate the rights to terminate this Agreement set out in Section 4.11, nor the right to seek specific performance as set out in Section 6.7.

6.2.2 Where a dispute arises out of or relating to the production of documents to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission by the Church under Section 2.10, the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the Church shall resolve their dispute in accordance with this Part, and for this limited purpose the parties to this Agreement and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission have standing and rights and obligations under this Part.

6.3 If the Government and the Church do not resolve all issues in dispute during the course of, or as a result of the negotiations, their rights with respect to the remaining unresolved issues shall remain unaffected by the negotiations in any subsequent proceeding.

6.4 Within sixty (60) days of the execution date of this Agreement the Government and the Church shall each appoint one person as their Nominee to an Implementation Steering Committee for the purpose of overseeing the administration and interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement and shall provide in writing the name of their Nominee to the other.

6.5 The two Nominees constituting the Implementation Steering Committee shall meet in the Province of Ontario, or otherwise in Canada as agreed, at least once each calendar year during the currency of this Agreement. The purpose of each meeting will be to review performance under this Agreement, and to resolve by consensus all disputes that arise or have arisen in the interpretation and implementation of this Agreement. The minutes of such meetings shall be signed by each Nominee at the conclusion of the meeting and filed with the Government and the Church.

6.6 If the Government and the Church are unable to resolve the dispute through negotiations within 120 days, either may request the commencement of mediation to resolve the dispute. The Mediator would be a third party neutral, who has no authority to resolve the dispute, but would facilitate resolution.

6.6.1 The mediation will be conducted by one Mediator jointly agreed upon by the Government and the Church.

6.6.2 The Government and the Church will make a serious attempt to resolve the dispute through mediation by:

6.6.2.1 identifying underlying interests;

6.6.2.2 isolating points of agreement and disagreement;

6.6.2.3 exploring alternative solutions;

SCHEDULE B

HEALING AND RECONCILIATION AND IN-KIND SERVICES CRITERIA

1. The parties agree that there shall be a Committee known as the United Church Healing and Reconciliation Service Evaluation Committee (“the Committee”) which shall be responsible to approve In-Kind Services to admissible programs in accordance with this Agreement.
2. The Committee shall be composed of five members, one each appointed by the All Native Circle Conference of the Church, the B.C. Native Ministries Council of the Church, the General Council Executive of the Church, the AFN, and the Government.
3. As much as possible, the Committee shall make decisions by consensus. Where a consensus cannot be reached through reasonable discussion and compromise, decisions may be taken by a majority of the Committee’s members.
4. The guiding objective of the Committee shall be to ensure that admissible programs and services are directed to healing and reconciliation for former Indian Residential School students and their families. For greater certainty, the parties recognize that programs and services aimed at the community level may be admissible to the extent that the Committee is satisfied that the programs or service benefits are reasonably connected with healing and reconciliation for IRS students and their families.
5. Where an existing program or service is proposed, the Committee may certify the program or service to the extent that the committee believes that the program or service or some part thereof is new or would not otherwise continue.
6. Programs and services must be open to all Aboriginal people regardless of denomination.
7. In addition, the Committee shall consider the following criteria to applications for grants and for the approval of In-Kind Services.
 - a) Do Aboriginal people have input in developing and delivery of the program?
 - b) Has the program been effective in the past?
 - c) To what extent are aboriginal communities involved in the program?
 - d) Does the program or service deal with former students, or their families and communities and the aftermath of IRS including providing assistance with the recovery of their histories?
 - e) What portion of the overall cost of the program addresses the social, psychological, and health issues without regard to religiosity?

8. Where the Committee approves a service or program as an admissible In-Kind Service, it shall assess the value in dollars of the program having regard to its actual cost and the market value of similar services. The lesser of these two amounts must be used unless there are compelling reasons to chose a higher amount.

9. The Committee shall require applicants to certify that no program proposed for in-kind eligibility has received funds drawn from the Church's contributions to healing and reconciliation under this Agreement. For greater certainty, this condition is only meant to ensure that services funded under the settlement (or portions thereof) are not counted as eligible In-Kind Services.

10. Notwithstanding section 5 of this Schedule, the Committee as an interim measure may credit the value of a program or service offered between March 31, 2005 and the coming into force of this agreement toward the In-Kind Service contribution provided that:

- a) it meets the criteria set out in sections 6 and 7 of this Schedule;
- b) the program or service did not exist before March 31, 2005 unless otherwise agreed to by Canada;
- c) the same program or service cannot be certified for a period following the coming into force of this Agreement unless it can be shown that it would not otherwise continue; and
- d) in no case shall the total amount credited for programs and services provided before the coming into force of this Agreement exceed $130,845.

11. The parties agree that the Committee may meet and make decisions under article 10 of this Schedule before the coming into force of this Agreement, and that following the coming into force of this Agreement the decisions the Committee makes in this period shall be ratified without further review and the costs and reasonable expenses incurred shall be reimbursed by the Church and to the credit of their debt under this Agreement. For greater certainty, should this Agreement not come into force the decisions made under articles 10 and 11 shall have no force or effect and the Church has no obligation to make reimbursement.

Travel Directive

In respect of every day on which an employee is authorized to use a private vehicle on government business travel, the employee shall be reimbursed the actual costs of parking the vehicle for that period of time.

3.3.12 Weekend travel home

The use of the weekend travel home provisions or its alternatives does not constitute a break in continuous travel at the same location.

An employee who is in travel status that extends through or beyond a weekend is eligible for weekend travel home provisions provided that the following conditions are met:

- (a) work schedules permit the employee to be absent; and
- (b) appropriate private or public transportation is available and its use is both practical and reasonable.

Every weekend:

An eligible employee entitled to travel home every weekend shall be reimbursed actual transportation costs up to an amount not exceeding:

- (a) the cost of maintaining the employee in travel status for the week-end period (i.e. accommodation, meals, incidental, and other expense allowances), if the accommodation is cancelled for the week-end; or
- (b) when the accommodation is not cancelled, the weekend travel home transportation allowances stated in Appendix C shall apply.

Every third weekend on average:

There will be occasions when an employee in travel status for a period of more than thirty (30) consecutive calendar days in Canada or the continental USA is so far from home that travel home every weekend would be impractical.

In such situations where travel home every weekend is impractical and provided that the employee is in continuous travel status, the employee may return home on average every third weekend and schedule actual weekend trips home within the maximum number permitted to meet personal needs.

The employee shall be reimbursed the most economical return airfare, the necessary return ground transportation to and from the carrier's terminal and meals en route. The most economical air fare shall be air fare booked more than 14 days in advance with a Saturday night stay over. Meals and incidentals at destination shall not be reimbursed. The accommodation at the duty travel location need not be cancelled.

Travel Directive

3.3.13 Weekend travel - Alternatives

(a) By the employee

Provided that the employee is not required by the employer to remain at the duty travel location, an employee may choose to spend the weekend at an alternative location. To be eligible for reimbursement, the employee shall: cancel charges for accommodation (and meals provided on-site) at the duty travel location; provide a receipt for alternative commercial accommodation when used; and not return home or to the headquarters area during the weekend.

Reimbursement shall be limited to the cost of maintaining the employee at the duty travel location and shall include the cost of accommodation, meals, incidentals and other expenses.

Arrangements are the personal responsibility of the employee without using the government approved services. The employee assumes personal liability as if the employee were not on travel status.

The use of this provision does not preclude the employee's entitlement to week-end travel home.

(b) By the employee's spouse/dependant

As an alternative to weekend travel home by the employee, a spouse/dependant may be authorized to travel to the employee's assigned work location when there is no additional cost to the employer. The airfare and pertinent travel arrangements shall be processed through the government suppliers. Ground transportation to and from the public carrier shall be reimbursed. Insurance coverage for the spouse/dependant is the responsibility of the employee. (revised February 27, 2004)

(c) Vehicles

The standard for rental vehicles is mid size. Rental vehicles beyond the standard shall be authorized based upon factors such as but not limited to safety, the needs of the traveller and the bulk or weight of goods transported.

The kilometric rates payable for the use of privately owned vehicles driven on authorized government business are provided in Appendix B. Travellers shall use the most direct, safe and practical road routes and shall claim only for distances necessarily driven on government business travel.

Travellers who are driven to or picked up from a public carrier terminal, shall be reimbursed the kilometric rate based on the distance to and from the public carrier terminal for each round trip.

Travel Directive

In the interests of safe driving, when employee-driven vehicles are authorized, employees shall not normally be expected to drive more than:

- 250 kilometres after having worked a full day;
- 350 kilometres after having worked one-half day; or
- 500 kilometres on any day when the employee has not worked.

Parking charges shall be reimbursed where it is practical and economical to leave a private vehicle at the public carrier's terminal during the period of absence.

In respect of every day on which an employee is authorized to use a private vehicle on government business travel, the employee shall be reimbursed the actual costs of parking the vehicle for that period of time.

3.4.12 Weekend travel home

The use of the weekend travel home provisions or its alternatives does not constitute a break in continuous travel at the same location.

An employee who is in travel status that extends through or beyond a weekend is eligible for weekend travel home provisions provided that the following conditions are met:

- (a) work schedules permit the employee to be absent; and
- (b) appropriate private or public transportation is available and its use is both practical and reasonable.

Provided the employee is in continuous travel status, the employee is entitled to return home as per the table below:

Minimum of: 7 weeks = 1 trip
12 weeks = 2 trips
17 weeks = 3 trips
22 weeks = 4 trips

The employee shall be reimbursed, based on receipts, a maximum of the most economical return airfare, the necessary return ground transportation to and from the carrier's terminal, and meals en route. Meals and incidentals at destination shall not be reimbursed. The accommodation at the duty travel location need not be cancelled.

The most economical airfare shall be booked more than 14 days in advance with a Saturday night stay over. The employee may schedule actual weekend trips home within the maximum number permitted to meet personal needs.

Travel Directive

3.4.13 Weekend travel - Alternatives

(a) By the employee

Provided that the employee is not required by the employer to remain at the duty travel location, an employee may choose to spend the weekend at an alternative location. Such arrangements shall be made in consideration of security and diplomatic contexts. To be eligible for reimbursement, the employee shall: cancel charges for accommodation (and meals provided on-site) at the duty travel location; provide a receipt for alternative commercial accommodation when used; and not return home or to the headquarters area during the weekend.

Reimbursement shall be limited to the cost of maintaining the employee at the duty travel location and shall include the cost of accommodation, meals, incidentals and other expenses.

Arrangements are the personal responsibility of the employee without using the government approved services. The employee assumes personal liability as if the employee were not on travel status.

The use of this provision does not preclude the employee's entitlement to week-end travel home.

(b) By the employee's spouse or a dependant

As an alternative to weekend travel home by the employee, a spouse or a dependant may be authorized to travel to the employee's assigned work location when there is no additional cost to the employer. The airfare and pertinent travel arrangements shall be processed through the government suppliers. Ground transportation to and from the public carrier shall be reimbursed. Such arrangements shall be made in consideration of security and diplomatic contexts. Insurance coverage for the spouse/dependant is the responsibility of the employee. (revised February 27, 2004)

Part IV Special Travel Circumstances

4.1 Escort Officers

4.1.1 A suitable rest period for employees who are employed as Escort Officers shall be 16 hours for travel time between 8 to 24 hours; for travel time greater than 24 hours, a suitable rest period shall be 24 hours.

Travel Directive

Travel time is the time spent in any mode of transportation en-route to destination and/or awaiting immediate connections. This includes the time spent travelling to and from a carrier/terminal.

4.2 Ships Officers / Ships Crews

4.2.1 The workplace of employees who are employed as Ships' Officers or Ships' Crews shall be deemed to be a suitable structure, as determined by the employer:

- (a) at the location of the home port of their vessels, for employees whose normal duties are performed aboard a vessel; or
- (b) at the location where employees normally perform their duties when they are not employed on a vessel.

4.2.2 For any period during which the employer requires the employee to be aboard a self-contained vessel (e.g., a ship, dredge or barge with sleeping and eating facilities), an employee shall be deemed to be within the headquarters area, whether or not the vessel is actually within the headquarters area. In this context, "period" shall mean the extended period during which the employee is assigned to the vessel, and shall not be limited to the actual physical performance of particular tasks during a watch.

4.2.3 When the self-contained vessel itself is outside the actual headquarters area, the employee shall be in travel status whenever required by the employer to leave the vessel and go ashore (except when billeted ashore), and when, during such absence, the employee remains outside the actual headquarters area.

4.2.4 Travel status applies in the circumstances described above when the employee is on sick leave. It does not apply when the employee is on leave of absence. During a period of leave of absence, however, the employee shall be entitled to any appropriate travel provisions contained in the employee's collective agreement, where such provisions are applicable under the circumstances.

4.2.5 Entitlement to accommodation expenses and meal and incidental expense allowances during each period of required absence from the vessel shall be governed by this directive as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, there shall be no entitlements in respect of meals and accommodation while the employee is ashore if appropriate entitlements in such circumstances are provided for in a collective agreement applicable to the employee.

4.2.6 Except as otherwise provided for in a collective agreement, for purposes of weekend travel home, an employee shall be deemed not to be in travel status for the period during which the normal duties of that employee are performed aboard a self-contained vessel.

4.2.7 The provisions concerning emergency or death while away on government business travel shall apply to employees who are Ships' Officers, Ships' Crews or other occupational groups and who are serving aboard a vessel while absent from its home port, as if the employees were in travel status.

4.2.8 Over each contiguous three-day period away from home port, employees on-board vessels shall be authorized to make up the equivalent of a ten minute phone call home using the equipment available. When satellite communication systems are available and used, the phone calls shall be limited to five minutes.

4.3 Special transportation needs

4.3.1 When a traveller has an aversion -to air travel, the employer shall endeavour to schedule the work so that time will permit the traveller to travel by other means.

Part V

Emergencies, illnesses, injuries and death while on travel status

5.1 Death while on travel status

5.1.1 If an employee dies while in travel status, the employer shall authorize the payment of necessary expenses that are additional to those which might have been incurred had the death occurred in the headquarters area. Reimbursement of costs incurred shall be reduced by any amount payable under some other authority. Expenses payable are:

- (a) at the place where death occurred: ambulance, hearse, embalming/cremation, outside crate/container (but not the cost of a coffin/urn) and any other services or items required by local health laws, and
- (b) transportation of the remains to the headquarters area or, if desired by the survivors, to another location, up to the cost of transportation to the headquarters area. Costs for an escort over and above the costs included in transporting the remains are payable only when an escort is required by law.

5.1.2 Where the remains are not transported, travel for next-of-kin or a representative of the family to the place of burial shall be reimbursed as though that person were an employee.

5.2 Emergencies, illnesses and injuries while on travel status

5.2.1 Payment for the use of a suitable conveyance, such as an ambulance or taxi, shall be authorized where an employee becomes ill or is injured when, in the opinion of the employer, the employee, or the attending medical practitioner, the nature of the illness or injury requires that the employee be transported to a medical treatment facility, the workplace, the travel-related accommodation, or home.

5.2.2 An employee shall be reimbursed the necessary expenses incurred as a result of illness or accident occurring while in travel status, to the extent that the employer is satisfied the expenses were additional to those which might have been incurred had the employee not been absent from home, and which were not otherwise payable to the employee under an insurance policy, the Government Employees Compensation Act, or other authority.

5.2.3 An employee who becomes ill or is injured while outside Canada shall, where practical, be provided with a justifiable, accountable advance when incurring sizeable medical expenses. Such advances would subsequently be repaid to the employer under the employee's private insurance plans, the Government Employees Compensation Act, or other authority.

5.2.4 When, in the opinion of the attending physician, an employee's condition resulting from illness or injury warrants the presence of the next-of-kin or a representative of the family, actual and reasonable travel expenses may be reimbursed, as if that person were an employee.

5.2.5 An employee may be authorized to return earlier than scheduled as a result of personal illness or accident, or in the event of emergency situations at home (e.g. serious illness in the opinion of a physician, fire, flood, ice storm).

5.2.6 A trip home under this section shall not be taken into account when establishing the employee's eligibility for weekend travel home.

5.2.7 When a trip home for reasons specified in this section is not warranted, actual and reasonable expenses incurred for long-distance telephone calls home shall be reimbursed.

To former students of Indian residential schools and their legal counsel:

On May 30, 2005, the Honourable Frank Iacobucci was appointed by the Government of Canada to lead discussions with legal counsel for former students, the Churches, the Assembly of First Nations, and other interested parties toward a fair and lasting resolution of the legacy of Indian residential schools. The purpose of this letter is to assure former students that participation in either the current Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) or litigation processes will not prejudice their ability to take advantage of benefits which may arise from the discussions led by Mr. Iacobucci.

In addition to exploring ways to recognize the residential school experience of former students, the discussions led by Mr. Iacobucci will also focus on ensuring that former students have options for pursuing their claims of sexual and serious physical abuse, and on finding ways to support the healing that needs to continue. Also on May 30, 2005, the Government of Canada and the Assembly of First Nations signed a Political Agreement outlining the basis on which they intend to work together on issues related to the resolution of the Indian residential schools legacy.

Please find attached copies of the News Release, Backgrounder and Questions & Answers.

The Government of Canada is committed to the fair and timely resolution of Indian residential school claims and to implementing the necessary changes to its approach to engender broader reconciliation with Aboriginal people.

We hope that this clarifies the matter for former students and legal counsel for former students who are currently in the litigation or ADR processes.

CONSOLIDATED IAP FOR CONTINUING IRS ABUSE CLAIMS

I: COMPENSABLE ABUSE

The following categories of claims are compensable within this IAP.

1. Sexual and physical assaults, as particularized in the Compensation Rules and Instructions below, arising from or connected to the operation of an IRS, whether or not occurring on the premises or during the school year, committed by adult employees of the government or a church entity which operated the IRS in question, or other adults lawfully on the premises, where the Claimant was a student or resident, or where the Claimant was under the age of 21 and was permitted by an adult employee to be on the premises to take part in authorized school activities.
2. Sexual or physical assaults, as particularized in the Compensation Rules and Instructions below, committed by one student against another at an IRS where:
 - a) the Claimant proves that an adult employee of the government or church entity which operated the IRS in question had or should reasonably have had knowledge that abuse of the kind alleged was occurring at the IRS in question during the time period of the alleged abuse, and did not take reasonable steps to prevent such abuse; or,
 - b) in a case in which the proven assault is a predatory or exploitative sexual assault at the SL4 or SL5 level, the defendants do not establish on a balance of probabilities that reasonable supervision was in place at the time.
3. Any other wrongful act or acts committed by adult employees of the government or a church entity which operated the IRS in question, or other adults lawfully on the premises, which are proven to have caused serious psychological consequences for the Claimant, as particularized in and causing the harms set out in the Compensation Rules and Instructions below. Proven Actual Income Loss

Where actual income losses are proven pursuant to the standards set within the complex issues track of this IAP, an adjudicator may make an award for the amount of such proven loss up to a maximum of $250,000 in addition to the amount determined pursuant to the above grid, provided that compensation within the grid is established without the allocation of points for consequential loss of opportunity. The amount awarded for actual income loss shall be determined using the legal analyses and amounts awarded in court decisions for like matters.

III. ASSESSMENT PROCESS OUTLINE

a. Core Assumptions as to Legal and Compensation Standards

- i. All Eligible CEP Recipients will, by the terms of the Approval Orders, be deemed to have released the defendants for all claims arising from their IRS attendance or experience, subject to retaining the right to resolve within this IAP their continuing claims for IRS abuse.
- ii. This outline assumes that the parties have legal representation. See below for procedural modifications where Claimants represent themselves. The defendants may be represented by their employees on the same basis as by counsel.
- iii. Standards for compensable wrongs and for the assessment of compensation have been defined for this IAP. The adjudicator is bound by those standards.
- iv. The compensation rules set the ranges of compensation to be paid having regard to the objective seriousness of the proven act(s) and the subjective impact of proven aggravating factors and harms, as defined. An award can also be made to assist with future care.
- v. Adjudicators are, subject to rights of review, empowered to make binding findings on credibility, liability and compensation within the standards set for the IAP.
- vi. Where compensation is awarded to a Claimant who has been represented by counsel, a further 15% of the amount paid will be added as a contribution towards legal fees. Reasonable and necessary disbursements will also be paid. Adjudicators may resolve disputes about the disbursements to be paid.
- vii. Where a review is sought by counsel for a Claimant who was unrepresented at the initial hearing, and the review is successful, an amount equal to 15% of the compensation obtained on the review beyond the initial award will be paid as a contribution towards the Claimant's legal fees for the review. Reasonable and necessary disbursements for the review will also be paid, with the review adjudicator having jurisdiction to resolve any dispute as to disbursements.

b. Resolution Processes within this IAP

- i. This IAP consists of a standard track, a complex issues track, and a provision for access to the courts for the resolution of certain of the continuing claims as set out below.
- ii. The complex issues track is for those continuing claims where the Claimant seeks an assessment of compensation for proven actual income losses resulting from continuing claims, and for other wrongful act claims (category OWA on page 3).
- iii. At the request of a Claimant, access to the courts to resolve a continuing claim may be granted by the Chief Adjudicator where he or she is satisfied that:
 - there is sufficient evidence that the claim is one where the actual income loss or consequential loss of opportunity may exceed the maximum permitted by this IAP;
 - there is sufficient evidence that the Claimant suffered catastrophic physical harms such that compensation available through the courts may exceed the maximum permitted by this IAP; or,
 - in an other wrongful act claim, the evidence required to address the alleged harms is so complex and extensive that recourse to the courts is the more appropriate procedural approach.

In such cases, the Approval Orders will exempt the continuing claims from the deemed release, and thereafter the matter shall be addressed by the courts according to their own standards, rules and processes.

- iv. Both tracks within the IAP utilize the inquisitorial model, as defined below.
- v. In the standard track, consequential harms and consequential loss of opportunity must be proven on a balance of probabilities and then proven to be plausibly linked to one or more acts proven. A finding of a plausible link does not require the negation of other potential causes of harms, but it must be based on or reasonably inferred from the evidence led in the case rather than assumptions or speculation as to possible links. Adjudicators shall have regard to their powers under Appendix X, below
- vi. In the complex issues track, consequential harms, consequential opportunity losses and actual income losses must be proven to have been caused by one or more continuing claims, and compensation must be assessed within the Compensation Rules, in both matters according to the same standards a court would apply in like matters.
- vii. In the standard track, when a case is ready to proceed to a hearing, the government and the Claimant may attempt to resolve the claim without a hearing, using a procedure acceptable to them for the case in question. At the request of the parties, the IAP Secretariat may assign an adjudicator to assist with efforts to resolve the claim.
- viii. In the complex issues track:
 - After the IAP Secretariat has determined that a case is ready to proceed to a hearing, the Claimant shall attend a preliminary case assessment hearing and answer an adjudicator's questions. The purpose of such a hearing is to provide for a preliminary assessment of credibility, and to ensure that there is a prima facie basis to support a claim of the nature for which the complex track is designed. Any answers given in these proceedings are on a without prejudice basis, shall not be recorded or transcribed, and are not admissible in other phases of the hearing.

- Provided the prima facie basis has been made out, the adjudicator shall arrange for expert assessments as required by the standards set in this IAP.
- On the receipt of the expert and/or medical evidence or at any point if such have been waived, the government and the Claimant may attempt to settle the claim having regard to the available evidence, the preliminary assessment of credibility, and all other evidence, or the claim may proceed to a hearing.

c. Safety and Support

- i. Reasonable costs for support persons for Claimants to travel to hearings will be paid.
- ii. Counsellors, or at least ready access to counselling services, will be available for the hearing process.
- iii. Cultural ceremonies such as an opening prayer or smudge will be incorporated at the request of the Claimant to the extent possible.

d. Materials for Adjudicator for Individual Cases

- i. The IAP Secretariat will provide the adjudicator with relevant documents and witness statements (as submitted by the parties), two weeks before hearings to facilitate structured questioning.
- ii. Before a hearing counsel may identify particular areas of concern or issues that they believe require extra scrutiny and may provide suggested questions. The adjudicator retains discretion on the wording of the questions put to a witness, but must explore the area proposed by counsel unless the adjudicator rules it to be irrelevant to credibility, liability or compensation in the IAP.

e. Procedure---General

- i. This IAP uses a uniform inquisitorial process for all claims to assess credibility, to determine which allegations are proven and result in compensation, to set compensation according to the Compensation Rules, and to determine actual income loss claims.
- ii. In this inquisitorial model, the adjudicator is responsible for managing the hearing, questioning all witnesses (other than experts retained by the adjudicator) and preparing a decision with his or her conclusions and reasons.
- iii. The adjudicator's questioning must both draw out the full story from witnesses (leading questions are permitted where required to do this), and test the evidence that is given (questioning in the form of cross examination is permitted where required to do this).

- iv. The role is inquisitorial, not investigative. This means that while the adjudicator must bring out and test the evidence of witnesses, only the parties may call witnesses or produce evidence, other than expert evidence.
- v. The Claimant and the alleged perpetrator may give their evidence in their own words in narrative form and are subject to questioning by the adjudicator. Refusal to answer questions may result in finding that answers would have been detrimental to the witness's position.
- vi. The Claimant may read a prepared statement, but this may impact credibility.
- vii. The Claimant may refer to their own notes as long as the notes are produced to counsel for the defendants two weeks in advance. Notes are not evidence.
- viii. The Claimant may refer to documents that are before the adjudicator.
- ix. Where counsel attend hearings, they may meet with the adjudicator at intervals to suggest questions or lines of inquiry. The adjudicator must explore the proposed lines of inquiry unless he or she rules them to be irrelevant to credibility, liability or compensation in the IAP, but the adjudicator retains discretion on the wording of the questions put to a witness.
- x. The parties may require the adjudicator to hear any witness who is willing to appear and who has evidence relevant to credibility, liability or compensation within the IAP, other than a medical professional or an expert witness on the issue of consequential harms, consequential loss of opportunity, or actual income loss, provided notice and a witness statement are given two weeks before the hearing. Criteria for the use of expert witnesses are set out in section (f) and Appendix VI, below.
- xi. Since witnesses cannot be compelled to appear, no adverse inference is to be drawn from the failure to produce a witness who may have relevant evidence, but the report of a treatment professional may be given less weight if they are available but refuse to testify.
- xii. Alleged perpetrators may be heard as of right, provided the parties are advised in advance of what their evidence will be.
- xiii. Except as required to obtain medical or expert evidence, or otherwise as provided for in this IAP, hearings should be adjourned only in very exceptional circumstances, for example where the evidence of the Claimant differs so substantially from the application that it amounts to a new application.
- xiv. At the conclusion of the evidence, counsel for the parties, if participating, may make brief oral submissions.
- xv. Where compensable abuse is proven, compensation is awarded for acts and, if the applicable evidentiary threshold is crossed, compensation is also awarded for impacts as set out in the Compensation Rules. Unless the parties consent, expert evidence is required to establish consequential harms or consequential loss of opportunity at levels 4 or 5, or actual income loss. Such evidence may only be obtained where the adjudicator is satisfied that it is justified and necessary, or where the parties have made a joint recommendation that it be obtained.

f. Procedure---Treatment Reports and Expert Evidence (see consolidation in Appendix VI)

- i. Treatment notes and clinical records are admissible to prove that the treatment was given and observations were made, but not as proof of diagnoses of psychological conditions or the opinion leading to them. Such notes and records may also be used to provide evidence of the fact of a physical injury. They may also be used by the adjudicator as the basis for lines of questions, the answers to which could provide the basis for findings of consequential harms or consequential loss of opportunity at levels 1-3. They may also support a finding of consequential harms or consequential loss of opportunity at levels 4 or 5 where the parties consent to proceeding without expert reports.
- ii. If treatment notes and clinical records from treating doctors or counsellors are not available, Claimants may submit reports from treating doctors or counsellors for the same purposes, without the requirement of defence medicals, but the defendants may require the treatment professional to testify. If the treatment professional is not available, or is available but will not testify, a report remains admissible, but the adjudicator may give it less weight.
- iii. Unless the parties consent, an adjudicator shall not make a finding of a physical injury for the purposes of this IAP without obtaining and considering medical evidence as to the timing, causation, and continuing impact of such injury. Where such evidence is not contained in treatment notes or clinical records, or treatment reports admitted into evidence, the adjudicator shall ask the Claimant to submit to an examination by an appropriate medical professional. Provided the Claimant has submitted to the medical assessment, as required, the adjudicator shall decide the issue having regard to the available evidence and the standard of proof, including where the results of the medical assessment are inconclusive.
- iv. Except on consent, points within the compensation rules for consequential harms or consequential loss of opportunity above level 3, or compensation for actual income loss, may only be awarded where the adjudicator has obtained and considered expert assessments of the extent and causation of the harms or losses, or medical evidence as to the timing, causation and continuing effect of the alleged physical harms.
- v. Where the Claimant is seeking compensation based on psychological harms at level 4 or 5 of the consequential harms or consequential loss of opportunity at levels 4 or 5 or actual income loss caused by psychological harms:
 - The Claimant so indicates in the application
 - The adjudicator has discretion to order an assessment by an expert. Only the adjudicator may order such assessments, and unless the parties have made a joint recommendation for such an assessment before the hearing, only after hearing the claim and making findings as to credibility, and determining that the assessment is justified by the evidence accepted and is necessary to assess compensation fairly.
 - Where an assessment is ordered, the adjudicator retains and instructs an expert from a roster approved by the IAP Oversight Committee. The expert prepares a report which is tabled before the adjudicator.

- Counsel for the parties may require that the expert give oral evidence and that they be allowed to question the expert at the hearing and make submissions.
 - When the parties consent to the adjudicator considering the assignment of points within those ranges, or actual income loss, without the benefit of an expert assessment, such consent does not eliminate the need for the adjudicator to be satisfied, on the civil standard of proof, that the Claimant suffers from those harms, and that they are linked to proven abuses at the IRS according to the standards in this IAP.
- vi. In the complex issues track where a claim for actual income loss is being advanced, the adjudicator shall order psychiatric and medical reports as outlined above or any other expert reports required to assess and evaluate the claim.

g. Procedure--Involvement of Alleged Perpetrator At Hearing

- i. An alleged perpetrator is to be heard as of right, provided the parties are advised in advance of what their evidence will be. The alleged perpetrator must submit a statement of their proposed evidence two weeks before the hearing; if they do not, counsel must share their notes, again two weeks before the hearing, of what the alleged perpetrator said when interviewed.
- ii. Normally the alleged perpetrator will be heard after the Claimant. Either can be recalled to resolve a credibility issue, but this should happen rarely.
- iii. The alleged perpetrator does not have a role as a party.
- iv. There is no right of confrontation.
- v. See Appendix III for additional provisions concerning alleged perpetrators.

h. Burden of Proof and Evidentiary Standards

- i. Except as otherwise provided in this IAP, the standard of proof is the standard used by the civil courts for matters of like seriousness. Although this means that as the alleged acts become more serious, adjudicators may require more cogent evidence before being satisfied that the Claimant has met their burden of proof, the standard of proof remains the balance of probabilities in all matters.
- ii. The adjudicator may receive, and base a decision on, evidence adduced in the proceedings and considered credible or trustworthy in the circumstances.
- iii. The application and witness statements may be used as a basis for questioning at the hearing, and material variations from them may be used in deciding the claim, unless those variations are explained to the adjudicator's satisfaction by progressive disclosure or otherwise.
- iv. At a hearing, the application form may also be used by the Claimant to assist their own recall. While the Claimant may refer to their application at the hearing, it is not evidence (other than of a prior inconsistent statement). This reflects the rules of evidence used by the courts which provide that in general, prior statements of a party can be used as admissions against interest, but not otherwise as evidence of their truth. They can also be used to demonstrate a prior inconsistent statement,

- although in this IAP it is specifically recognized that progressive disclosure is a possible explanation for inconsistencies.
- v. Counsel may agree on foundation and other facts and so advise the adjudicator. Such agreement binds the adjudicator. This is not to prevent the whole narrative being told if the Claimant so wishes.
 - vi. Relevant findings in previous criminal or civil trials, where not subject to appeal, may be accepted without further proof.
 - vii. An adjudicator may permit a witness to give their evidence by video-conference where such facilities are available to them, and may also permit a Claimant to do so where a medical professional provides advice that the Claimant's health prohibits them from travelling to a hearing.
 - viii. A Claimant may adopt their prior recorded statements, provided they remain subject to questioning by adjudicator, and provided that, without the consent of the defendants, a recorded statement is not admissible if it was made for the purpose of seeking redress for the Claimant's IRS experience.
 - ix. Where an alleged perpetrator has given an interview or submitted a witness statement, but thereafter does not appear at a hearing to give evidence, neither the interview notes nor the statement (including any documents submitted with it which are not otherwise admitted in evidence, and whether or not it is in the form of an affidavit) is admissible in evidence at the hearing except to the extent it contains an admission.

i. Solemnity

- i. Participants and other witnesses shall give evidence under oath, by affirmation or another way that binds their conscience.

j. Setting

- i. Hearings will take place in a relaxed and comfortable setting. Claimant will have a choice of location, subject to hearings being scheduled to promote economy.

k. Decision

- i. The adjudicator will produce a decision in a standard format outlining key factual findings and providing a rationale for finding or not finding compensability within the IAP and for the compensation assessed, if any.
- ii. At the conclusion of the hearing, the adjudicator will advise the Claimant that the decision will be provided in writing within 30 days for standard track hearings and within 45 days for complex track hearings.
- iii. The decision will normally be delivered to the Claimant via their counsel, who will be able to access health supports for the Claimant at the time the decision is shared with them.
- iv. Where the Claimant is not represented by counsel, the adjudicator will also inquire at the end of the hearing into how the Claimant would like to receive the decision, having regard to the desirability of health or family support being available at the time of receipt.

I. Review

- i. For cases within the standard or complex track, any party may ask the Chief Adjudicator or designate to determine whether an adjudicator's, or reviewing adjudicator's, decision properly applied the IAP Model to the facts as found by the adjudicator, and if not, to correct the decision, and the Chief Adjudicator or designate may do so.
- ii. In both the standard and the complex issues tracks, Claimants may require that a second adjudicator review a decision to determine whether it contains a palpable and overriding error.
- iii. In the complex issues track, the defendants may require that a second adjudicator review a decision to determine whether it contains a palpable and overriding error.
- iv. If a palpable and overriding error is found, the reviewing adjudicator may substitute their own decision or order a new hearing.
- v. All reviews are on the record (no new evidence permitted) and without oral submissions.
- vi. The party seeking the review may provide a short written statement of their objections to the decision (not to exceed 1500 words) and the other parties may provide a brief reply (not to exceed 1000 words). In exceptional circumstances the Chief Adjudicator may permit the parties to exceed these limits.
- vii. The reply shall be provided to the party seeking the review, who may seek leave from the Chief Adjudicator to make further submissions, not to exceed 500 words. The application shall be accompanied by the proposed submissions. Leave may be granted only in exceptional cases where the Chief Adjudicator determines that the submissions respond to a significant issue raised for the first time in the reply, or seek to correct a fundamental error of fact or interpretation in the reply.

m. Consistency

- i. Adjudicators may consult each other about the hearing and decision-making processes. They will attempt to conduct consistent sessions and produce decisions in a consistent fashion, and may discuss issues arising in individual cases provided they remain solely responsible for deciding the claims they have heard.
- ii. The Chief Adjudicator shall implement training programs and administrative measures designed to ensure consistency among the decisions of adjudicators in the interpretation and application of the IAP.

n. Specialization of Adjudicators

- i. The Chief Adjudicator shall endeavour to assign adjudicators to cases in a way which facilitates their specialization in one or more schools.

- ii. In assigning adjudicators to cases within the complex issues track, the Chief Adjudicator shall have regard to their experience and/or expertise in like matters. For greater certainty, where an other wrongful act claim involves allegations of physical abuse which was grossly excessive in duration and frequency, the Chief Adjudicator shall have regard to expertise in the assessment of child abuse in the assignment of an adjudicator.

o. Privacy

- i. Hearings are closed to the public. Parties, an alleged perpetrator and other witnesses are required to sign agreements to keep information disclosed at a hearing confidential, except their own evidence, or as required within this process or otherwise by law. Claimants will receive a copy of the decision, redacted to remove identifying information about any alleged perpetrators, and are free to discuss the outcome of their hearing, including the amount of any compensation they are awarded.
- ii. Adjudicators may require a transcript to facilitate report writing, especially since they are conducting questioning. A transcript will also be needed for a review, if requested. Proceedings will be recorded and will be transcribed for these purposes, as well as if a Claimant requests a copy of their own evidence for memorialization. Claimants will also be given the option of having the transcript deposited in an archive developed for the purpose.

p. Self-represented Claimants

- i. Self-represented Claimants (SRCs) will receive document production and witness statements on the same basis as if represented.
- ii. SRCs will receive notes of what was said at any interview provided by an alleged perpetrator, and a witness statement, if provided.
- iii. SRCs may submit proposed areas for scrutiny and proposed lines of questioning to the adjudicator in advance of a hearing (this will particularly apply where the alleged perpetrator or a defence witness is to give evidence).
- iv. SRCs will receive the defendants' advance submissions to the adjudicator on areas/lines of questioning to be explored.
- v. During a hearing, both SRCs and the defendants may suggest lines of questioning, but this will be done in the hearing room, on the record and in the presence of each other, and SRCs will be allowed to make brief closing submissions.

q. Representation of Claimants by Agents

- i. Agents, whether paid by the Claimant or not, may not discharge the roles specifically established for counsel in this IAP.

r. IAP Oversight Committee

- i. The Chief Adjudicator Reference Group shall be reconstituted as the IAP Oversight Committee, which shall be composed of an independent chair and 8 other members, two reflecting the interests of each of the following constituencies: former students; plaintiffs' counsel; church entities; government.
- ii. The Committee shall operate by consensus to the greatest extent possible. In the event a vote is required, the Chair may vote, and a majority of seven shall be required to decide an issue, provided that if the issue would increase the cost of the IAP, whether for compensation or procedural matters, one government representative must be among the seven.
- iii. The duties of the Oversight Committee are to:
 - Recruit and appoint, and if necessary terminate the appointment of, the Chief Adjudicator.
 - Provide advice to the Chief Adjudicator on any issues he or she brings to it.
 - Recruit and appoint adjudicators, and approve training programs for them.
 - Approve designates to exercise the Chief Adjudicator's review authority as set out in item l(i) above.
 - On the advice of the Chief Adjudicator, renew or terminate the contract of an adjudicator.
 - Recruit and appoint experts for psychological assessments.
 - Consider any proposed instructions from the Chief Adjudicator on the interpretation and application of the IAP Model, and as appropriate prepare its own instructions or forward proposed instructions from the Chief Adjudicator for approval by the National Administration Committee, provided that:
 - no instruction may alter pages 2-6 of this IAP, nor the interpretation of those pages set out elsewhere in this IAP, nor the provisions of the IAP allocating claims to the standard or complex issues tracks or requiring expert evidence or medical assessments; and,
 - instructions only come into force when approved by the National Administration Committee and published by the Oversight Committee, and only bind participants who have had at least two weeks notice of the instructions before their hearing.
 - Monitor the implementation of the IAP and make recommendations to the National Administration Committee on changes to the IAP as are necessary to ensure its effectiveness over time.

s. The Chief Adjudicator

i) The duties of the Chief Adjudicator are to:

- Assist in the selection of adjudicators.
- Implement training programs and administrative measures designed to ensure consistency among the decisions of adjudicators in the interpretation and application of the IAP.
- Assess on an ongoing basis the other training and mentoring needs of adjudicators and develop appropriate programs.
- Assign adjudicators to hearings and reviews or to assist with settlement discussions.
- Provide advice to adjudicators on compliance with this IAP.
- Prepare for consideration by the Oversight Committee any proposed instructions to better give effect to the provisions of the IAP.
- Receive complaints about the performance of adjudicators and as appropriate meet with adjudicators to discuss concerns and develop remedial actions to resolve same.
- Determine, in his or her exclusive authority, whether to terminate or renew the contract of an adjudicator.
- Conduct reviews as provided for in item l(i) above, or assign such to designates approved by the Oversight Committee.
- Set the policies and standards for the Secretariat and direct its operations.
- Make the final decision on a request by a Claimant for a reconsideration of a decision by the Secretariat that their application to this IAP process fails to allege matters which can be resolved within it.
- Conduct hearings as he or she determines appropriate, provided that designates have been approved for the purpose of item l(i) above.
- Carry out all other functions assigned by this IAP.
- Prepare annual reports to the Oversight Committee on the functioning of the adjudicative process under this IAP.

t. Secretariat

- i. A Secretariat shall be established to support the Chief Adjudicator and to be responsible for determining whether applications fall within the terms of the IAP.
- ii. Where an application fails to raise a claim which falls within the IAP, the Secretariat shall so advise the Claimant, with reasons, and provide them with the opportunity to make a further application. On the request of the Claimant, a decision to refuse to admit a claim into the IAP will be reviewed by the Chief Adjudicator, whose decision will be final.
- iii. The Secretariat shall also recruit and approve a panel of interpreters.
- iv. The Secretariat reports to the Chief Adjudicator.

APPENDIX I: THE APPLICATION

- a) In applying to the IAP, the Claimant is asked to:
- i. List points of claim: indicate by reference to the standards for this IAP each alleged wrong with dates, places, times and information about the alleged perpetrator for each incident sufficient to identify the alleged perpetrator or in the case of adult employees permit the identification of the individual or their role at the school.
 - ii. Provide a narrative as part of the application. The narrative must be in the first person and be signed by the Claimant and can be both a basis for and a subject of questioning at a hearing.
 - iii. Indicate by reference to the Compensation Rules established for this IAP the categories under which compensation will be sought and, where appropriate, indicate that compensation will be sought for consequential harm and/or opportunity loss above level 3, or for actual income loss.
 - iv. Include authorizations so that the defendants may produce their records as set out in Appendix VIII.
 - v. Safety mechanisms will be provided in consultation with Health Canada. Where Claimants are proceeding as a group, they may negotiate to have the group administer the available safety resources.

APPENDIX II: ACCEPTANCE OF APPLICATION

- i. The Secretariat will admit claims to the IAP as of right where the application is complete and sets out allegations which if proven would constitute one or more continuing claims, and where the Claimant has signed the Declaration set out in the application form, including the confidentiality provisions in the Declaration.
- ii. If the case is not admitted into the IAP the Claimant will be advised why and given a chance to provide additional information. At the request of the Claimant, the Chief Adjudicator may review any final decision to refuse to admit an application into the IAP, and may confirm or reverse that decision. If the decision is reversed, the initial and any subsequent applications, or supplementary information, will be given to the adjudicator.
- iii. On admitting the claim to the IAP, the Secretariat shall forward a copy of the application to the Government and to a church entity which is a party to the Class Action Judgments and was involved in the IRS from which the claim arises.
 - A church entity may waive its right to receive applications for all claims, or for defined classes of claims, by notice in writing to the Secretariat, and may amend or withdraw such waiver at any time by notice in writing.
- iv. The following conditions apply to the provision of the application to the Government or a church entity:
 - The application will only be shared with those who need to see it to assist the Government with its defence, or to assist the church entities with their ability to defend the claim or in connection with their insurance coverage;
 - If information from the application is to be shared with an alleged perpetrator, only relevant information about allegations of abuse by that person will be shared, and the individual will not be provided with the Claimant's address or the address of any witness named in the application form, nor with any information from the form concerning the effects of the alleged abuse on the Claimant, unless the Claimant asks that this be provided to the alleged perpetrator;
 - Each person with whom the application is shared, including counsel for any party, must agree to respect its confidentiality. Church entities will use their best efforts to secure the same commitment from any insurer with whom it is obliged to share the application;
 - Copies will be made only where absolutely necessary, and all copies other than those held by the Government will be destroyed on the conclusion of the matter, unless the Claimant asks that others retain a copy, or unless counsel for a party is required to retain such copy to comply with his or her professional obligations.
- v. Once the claim is admitted, counsel may attempt to agree on certain facts to reduce research needs.
- vi. Group claims will be accepted where the individual applications of the group members have been submitted together or within a short interval; each of the Claimants has indicated their desire to proceed as a group member; the applications show commonality among group members (school, community, issues); and a representative of the group has submitted an application to proceed as a group, demonstrating that:

- the group is an established one with evident viability and decision-making capacity;
 - its members are already providing each other with support in connection with their IRS experiences or have a clear plan and realistic capacity to do so;
 - the issues raised by the individuals within the group are broadly similar; and
 - the group has a clear plan and intention to manage safety resources, where they desire to do so, and to achieve healthy and lasting resolution of their claims.
- vii. Where a proposal to proceed as a group is not accepted, the individuals will be advised of their right to continue as individuals if their applications otherwise meet the criteria for this IAP.

APPENDIX III: INVOLVEMENT OF ALLEGED PERPETRATORS

- i. The defendants will attempt to locate the alleged perpetrator to invite them to the hearing. If the alleged perpetrator is dead, cannot be located, or declines to attend, the hearing may still occur.
- ii. Subject to items (iii) and (iv) below, no hearing may be set to commence until:
 - the Government has had 60 days from its receipt of the screened-in application to attempt to locate the alleged perpetrator, or in the event that contact is first attempted by a church entity with an agreement with the Government providing for a right of first contact, an additional 30 days; and
 - thereafter the alleged perpetrator has had a total of 75 additional days to seek advice on whether to participate, and if so, to provide a witness statement or be interviewed as set out below.
- iii. Where the above-noted events occur prior to the expiry of the time allotted, the Government may so notify the Secretariat, and the Secretariat may schedule a hearing when the matter is otherwise ready to proceed.
- iv. If a Claimant provides medical evidence that any delay in hearing their testimony involves a significant risk that they may die or lose the capacity to provide testimony, the Secretariat may schedule a hearing for the limited purpose of taking such testimony, after which the hearing shall be adjourned to allow for the location of the alleged perpetrator and the obtaining of their testimony if they decide to participate.
- v. The alleged perpetrator will be provided with extracts from the application outlining the allegations made against them, to be returned at the conclusion of the process, in order to help them recall the student/incident and to determine their response. Information on the Claimant's current address or the addresses of other potential witnesses will be deleted from this material, as will information on the impacts of the alleged abuse, unless the Claimant asks that it be provided to the alleged perpetrator.
- vi. Notice of the alleged perpetrator's desire to respond to allegations will be given to counsel for the Claimant at the earliest opportunity.
- vii. A witness statement will be requested from the alleged perpetrator. If he or she declines to provide one, counsel for any party may request an interview with the alleged perpetrator. This would not be the equivalent of an examination for discovery, and the interview notes of what he or she said must be shared among the parties two weeks before the hearing, as must a witness statement, if provided.
- viii. The witness statement, or failing that the interview notes, are a condition of the alleged perpetrator being heard by the adjudicator.
- ix. Counsel and a support person for the alleged perpetrator are permitted at a hearing while the alleged perpetrator gives evidence, but the alleged perpetrator or their counsel may not attend at same time and place as the Claimant without the advance consent of the parties. Canada will pay up to $2500 for the alleged perpetrator to receive legal advice about the implications of giving evidence, plus the reasonable costs of the alleged perpetrator's attendance, and of the attendance of a support person. For greater certainty, support person in this context does not include counsel for an alleged perpetrator.
- x. Where the testimony of the Claimant at a hearing differs materially from the account provided in the application which was shared with the alleged perpetrator, the adjudicator shall prepare a summary of the new allegations and provide it to the alleged perpetrator and the parties before the alleged perpetrator gives evidence.

- xi. The alleged perpetrator is a witness, not a party.
- xii. The alleged perpetrator is entitled to know the results of the hearing with respect to the allegations against them, but not the amount of any compensation awarded.

APPENDIX IV: INFORMATION COLLECTION; SETTING HEARING DATE;
ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION AT HEARINGS

- i. The defendants will collect and submit their documents to the Secretariat.
- ii. Claimants will collect and submit their documents and the treatment notes and clinical records they want to rely on, or, where they cannot obtain such notes or records, will indicate the steps taken to attempt to do so.
- iii. Witness statements shall be prepared and submitted by the party calling the witness.
- iv. No date shall be set until the IAP Secretariat is satisfied that exchange of documents, including treatment notes and clinical records is as complete as reasonably necessary, unless a Claimant provides medical evidence that any delay in hearing their testimony involves a significant risk that they may die or lose the capacity to provide testimony. In such circumstances, the Secretariat may schedule a hearing for the limited purpose of taking such testimony, after which the hearing shall be adjourned to allow for the preparation of the case as otherwise provided for in this IAP.
- v. The hearing date will be set based on the availability of the parties, counsel and the adjudicator, and on cost effectiveness having regard to the location and the number of hearings to be held in any one place in a given time frame.
- vi. The Claimant may attend a hearing where the alleged perpetrator gives evidence without that individual's consent. This is based on the Claimant being a party, and needing to be aware of all evidence to raise possible lines of questioning and make submissions if unrepresented, or to instruct counsel if represented.
- vii. Given the non-adversarial nature of this IAP and the neutral, inquisitorial role played by the adjudicators under it, as well as the need to respect the safety of the Claimant, neither an alleged perpetrator nor counsel for an alleged perpetrator may attend while the Claimant gives evidence, without the Claimant's advance consent. Where counsel for a church entity also acts for an alleged perpetrator, this means that they may not attend the hearing while the Claimant gives evidence without the Claimant's advance consent. Government representatives may always attend this part of the hearing, as may representatives of church entities who are parties to the Class Action Judgments except their counsel if he or she is also acting for an alleged perpetrator in the case.
- viii. Support persons attend hearings to help ensure the health and safety of the Claimant during a stressful event. Their focus needs to be on how the Claimant is handling the stress they face. Accordingly support persons should not become distracted from that goal by seeking to become a participant in the proceedings, for example, by attempting to give evidence. If it becomes necessary for a support person to give evidence, they should be sworn (or affirmed) as a witness, but only after the adjudicator is satisfied that appropriate arrangements for the safety of the Claimant are in place.
- ix. Finally, since the central purpose of the hearing is an assessment of credibility, counsel or representatives of any party must refrain from speaking to a witness about the evidence in the case once that witness begins giving evidence and until their evidence is complete. An adjudicator may authorize an exception to this where he or she is of the view that the discussion is necessary to elicit evidence from the witness in a timely manner.

APPENDIX V: CRITERIA FOR THE SELECTION OF ADJUDICATORS

- i. Law degree from a recognized university. Consideration will also be given to candidates with a combination of related training and/or significant experience
- ii. Knowledge of and sensitivity to Aboriginal culture and history
- iii. Knowledge of and sensitivity to sexual and physical abuse issues
- iv. Knowledge of personal injury law
- v. Knowledge of damages assessment
- vi. Ability to interview or examine witnesses
- vii. Ability to elicit useful evidence in a concise manner
- viii. Ability to act in an impartial manner
- ix. Respect for all parties involved
- x. Demonstrated ability to assess credibility and reliability
- xi. The ability to work under pressure and to write clear, concise and well-reasoned decisions that take into account evidence, submissions, the rules and policies of this IAP, within required deadlines
- xii. The ability to work effectively with staff and participants from diverse backgrounds
- xiii. Computer literacy and superior communication and writing skills
- xiv. Personal suitability including an aptitude for adjudication, fairness, good listening skills, open-mindedness, sound judgment, tact, and comfort with complex and/or sensitive issues
- xv. Willingness and ability to travel across Canada or within a designated region, including to First Nations communities, using various modes of transportation
- xvi. Flexibility and availability to be called for hearings on an as required basis

APPENDIX VI: CONSOLIDATION OF PROVISIONS CONCERNING EXPERT AND MEDICAL EVIDENCE

This IAP seeks to confine the use of expert witnesses to matters where their evidence is essential, and to eliminate the prospect of competing reports from experts on the same issue. This will produce significant savings in cost and time.

This Appendix consolidates and provides additional instructions on the IAP's provisions concerning medical and expert evidence in four categories:

1. Treatment reports
2. Psychiatric assessments
3. Medical assessments
4. Vocational and actuarial assessments.

1. Treatment Records

Treatment notes and clinical records prepared in the normal course of the Claimant dealing with their injuries, whether physical or psychological, are admissible as of right to help the adjudicator decide the particular case. In this connection, this IAP provides as follows:

- The Claimant may submit treatment notes and clinical records from treating doctors or counsellors, or if such are not available, a report from treating doctors or counsellors, as of right, subject to notice and disclosure as provided for in this IAP.
- This includes records of and reports from customary or traditional counsellors or healers.
- The defence may not require a defence medical, but may ask that the person who provided the treatment give evidence at the hearing.
- If the person who prepared a treatment report is dead or not available, then the report may be admitted subject to the adjudicator being able to give it less weight
- Where the person who provided the treatment gives evidence, only the adjudicator may question them, and the questioning may explore the treatment professional's qualifications as well as the records and report.
- Treatment notes and clinical records are admissible to prove that the treatment was given and observations were made, but not as proof of diagnoses of psychological conditions or the opinion leading to them. Such notes and records may be used to provide evidence of the fact of a physical injury. They may also be used by the adjudicator as the basis for lines of questions, the answers to which could provide the basis for findings of consequential harms or consequential loss of opportunity at levels 1-3. They may also support a finding of consequential harms or consequential loss of opportunity at levels 4 or 5 where the parties consent to proceeding without expert reports.

2. Psychiatric and Psychological Assessments

Assessments prepared for litigation purposes raise different issues. They are very dependent on the information given to the expert as the basis for the report. That information is generally limited to the Claimant's version of events, and can differ from the evidence presented at a hearing, or found credible by the adjudicator. Where the Claimant obtains such an assessment, normally the defendants would as well, quite often leading to a series of complex contradictions between the assessments.

As a result, this IAP adopts a more restrictive approach to assessments. Only the adjudicator may order such assessments, and, unless the parties have made a joint recommendation to the contrary, only after hearing the claim and making preliminary findings as to credibility, and determining that ordering an assessment is justified by the evidence accepted and is necessary to assess compensation fairly. In such circumstances the adjudicator will retain an expert from a roster agreed to by the IAP Oversight Committee, and that expert's assessment will be considered as set out below in assessing compensation. This can only be done where consequential harms or opportunity losses at levels 4 or 5, or actual income losses are in issue.

Except on consent, points within the compensation rules for consequential harms or consequential loss of opportunity above level 3, or compensation for actual income loss, may only be awarded where the adjudicator has obtained and considered an expert's assessment of the extent and causation of the alleged psychological harms (or medical evidence as to the timing, causation and continuing effect of the alleged physical harms: see below).

The following summarizes the approach to psychiatric and psychological evidence:

- An adjudicator has the discretion to order an assessment by an expert. Only the adjudicator may order such assessments, and unless the parties have made a joint recommendation for such an assessment before the hearing, only after hearing the claim and making findings as to credibility, and determining that the assessment is justified by the evidence accepted and is necessary to assess compensation fairly.
- Where an assessment is ordered, the adjudicator retains an expert from a roster approved by the IAP Oversight Committee, and thereafter, the following principles apply:
 - The expert is to be provided with the transcript of the hearing, and any records filed at the hearing that are relevant to the proposed assessment, all on a confidential basis. The parties shall be advised of which records are provided to the expert.
 - The adjudicator is to brief the expert on his or her preliminary findings, so that the assessment may be conducted on the basis of the facts likely to be found, and shall instruct the expert to refrain from making any findings as to credibility.

- The adjudicator shall give significant regard to the expert's opinion on the level of harm and on its causation pursuant to the standards in this IAP.
- After reviewing the expert's report, any party may require that the expert give evidence, and any party may question them.
- When the parties consent to the adjudicator considering the assignment of points within those ranges without the benefit of an expert assessment, such consent does not eliminate the need for the adjudicator to be satisfied, on the civil standard of proof, that the Claimant suffers from those harms, and that they are linked to proven continuing claims according to the standard provided for in this IAP.

3. Adjudicator-ordered Medicals to Assess Physical Injuries

- Unless the parties consent, an adjudicator shall not make a finding of a physical injury for the purposes of this IAP without obtaining and considering medical evidence as to the timing, causation, and continuing impact of such injury. Where such evidence is not contained in treatment notes or clinical records admitted into evidence, the adjudicator shall ask the Claimant to submit to an examination by an appropriate medical professional. Provided the Claimant has submitted to the medical assessment, as required, the adjudicator shall decide the issue having regard to the available evidence and the standard of proof, including where the results of the medical assessment are inconclusive.
- The parties shall endeavour to agree on the medical professional who will conduct the assessment. If they cannot, the adjudicator, with the assistance of the Secretariat, shall select an appropriate individual.
- In both circumstances, the professional is to be retained by the Secretariat and shall take instructions from and report to the adjudicator. The retainer shall be conditional on the professional being willing to testify if required.
- Where a report has been obtained, the parties may require that the professional attend the hearing (or its resumption) and give evidence.
- The same standard for questioning will apply here as for treatment reports: the adjudicator does the questioning, and the questioning can explore the examiner's qualifications as well as the records and report.

4. Actual Income Loss Assessments

- ◆ In the complex issues track where a claim for actual income loss is being advanced, the adjudicator shall order expert reports or medical assessments as set out above.
- ◆ At the request of a party, the adjudicator shall also order any other expert reports required to assess and evaluate the claim in accordance with the above procedure for obtaining medical assessments.

APPENDIX VII: MANDATORY DOCUMENT PRODUCTION BY CLAIMANTS

Following the receipt of a completed application form, and the acceptance of an individual into the IAP, relevant documents must be exchanged. This appendix outlines the documents a Claimant must produce, or explain the absence of, as a condition of proceeding to a hearing with a claim seeking particular kinds of compensation within the Compensation Rules.

This appendix does not outline other kinds of documents which could assist a Claimant in proving their claim. These will be admissible as provided for in this IAP. The kinds of documents the defendants will produce are outlined in a separate appendix.

In terms of proving the abuse itself, no documents are required from Claimants, although Claimants are free to produce documents to support their claim.

1. TO PROVE CONSEQUENTIAL HARMS

LEVELS 3, 4 AND 5

- Treatment records which are relevant to the harms claimed (including clinical, hospital, medical or other treatment records, but excluding records of counselling obtained to help ensure safety while pursuing an IRS claim). In the complex issues track, records from general practitioners, clinics or community health centres are deemed to be relevant unless the defendants consent to the contrary.
- Workers' Compensation records, if the claim is based in whole or in part on a physical injury.
- Corrections records (insofar as they relate to injuries or harms).

LEVELS 1 AND 2

None required

2. TO PROVE CONSEQUENTIAL LOSS OF OPPORTUNITY

LEVELS 3, 4 AND 5

- Workers' Compensation records, if the claim is based in whole or in part on a physical injury.
- Income Tax records (if not available, then EI and CPP records)
- Treatment records which are relevant to the asserted basis for the opportunity loss (including clinical, hospital, medical or other treatment records, but excluding records of counselling obtained to help ensure safety while pursuing an IRS claim). In the complex issues track, records from general practitioners, clinics or community health centres are deemed to be relevant unless the defendants consent to the contrary.

- Secondary (non-residential) school and post-secondary school records.

LEVEL 2

- Workers' Compensation records, if the claim is based in whole or in part on a physical injury.
- Income Tax records, or at the Claimant's choice, EI and CPP records
- Secondary (non-residential) school and post-secondary school records.

LEVEL 1

None required.

3. TO ESTABLISH A NEED FOR FUTURE CARE

None required, but a treatment plan should be submitted to support any claim for future care in any case where the Claimant is represented by counsel or is otherwise in a position to prepare one.

APPENDIX VIII: GOVERNMENT DOCUMENT DISCLOSURE

The government will search for, collect and provide a report setting out the dates a Claimant attended a residential school. There are several kinds of documents that can confirm attendance at a residential school, and as soon as one or more are found which deal with the entire relevant period, further searches will not be undertaken.

The government will also search for, collect and provide a report about the persons named in the Application Form as having abused the Claimant, including information about those persons' jobs at the residential school and the dates they worked or were there, as well as any allegations of physical or sexual abuse committed by such persons, where such allegations were made while the person was an employee or student.

Upon request, the Claimant or their lawyer will receive copies of the documents located by the government, but information about other students or other persons named in the documents (other than alleged perpetrators of abuse) will be blacked out to protect each person's personal information, as required by the Privacy Act.

The government will also gather documents about the residential school the Claimant attended, and will write a report summarizing those documents. The report and, upon request, the documents will be available for the Claimant or their lawyer to review.

In researching various residential schools to date, some documents have been, and may continue to be, found that mention sexual abuse by individuals other than those named in an application as having abused the Claimant. The information from these documents will be added to the residential school report. Again, the names of other students or persons at the school (other than alleged perpetrators of abuse) will be blacked out to protect their personal information.

The following documents will be given to the adjudicator who will assess a claim:

- documents confirming the Claimant's attendance at the school(s);
- documents about the person(s) named as abusers, including those persons' jobs at the residential school, the dates they worked or were there, and any sexual or physical abuse allegations concerning them;
- the report about the residential school(s) in question and the background documents; and,
- any documents mentioning sexual abuse at the residential school(s) in question.

With respect to student-on-student abuse allegations, the government will work with the parties to develop admissions from completed examinations for discovery, witness or alleged perpetrator interviews, or previous DR or IAP decisions relevant to the Claimant's allegations.

APPENDIX IX: INSTRUCTIONS FOR ADJUDICATORS

I. APPLICATION OF THE COMPENSABLE CLAIMS CRITERIA

In this IAP, compensation will be paid for all proven continuing claims, but not otherwise.

It is the adjudicator's responsibility to assess the credibility of each allegation, and, for those allegations which are proven on the civil standard, to determine whether what has been proven constitutes a continuing claim under this IAP.

The criteria for a continuing claim flow from, but may differ from, established case law on vicarious liability and negligence. Adjudicators are not to have reference to case law on vicarious liability or negligence. The compensability of proven continuing claims must be determined only by reference to the terms of this IAP, including instructions issued pursuant to it.

A. Physical or Sexual Abuse Committed by an Adult

1. Where the victim was a student or resident

Where a sexual or physical assault was committed on a resident or student of an IRS by an adult, the following tests must be met:

- a) Was the alleged perpetrator an adult employee of the government or a church entity which operated the IRS in question? If so, it does not matter whether their contract of employment was at that IRS.
- b) If the alleged perpetrator was not an adult employee, were they an adult lawfully on the premises?
- c) Did the assault arise from, or was its commission connected to, the operation of an IRS? This test will be met where it is shown that a relationship was created at the school which led to or facilitated the abuse. If the test is met, the assault need not have been committed on the premises.

2. Where the victim was not a student or resident

Where a sexual or physical assault was committed by an adult on a non-student, the following tests must be met:

- a) Was the alleged perpetrator an adult employee of the government or a church entity which operated the IRS in question? If so, it does not matter whether their contract of employment was at that IRS.

- b) If the alleged perpetrator was not an adult employee, were they an adult lawfully on the premises?
- c) Was the Claimant under the age of 21 at the time of the assault?
- d) Did an adult employee give the Claimant permission i) to be on the premises ii) for the purpose of taking part in school activities?
- e) Did the assault arise from, or was it connected to, the operation of the school? This test will be met where it is shown that a relationship was created at the school which led to or facilitated the abuse. If the test is met, the assault need not have been committed on the premises. The permission to be on the premises for an organized activity creates the circumstances in which an assault may be compensable if the other tests are met, but it does not also circumscribe the location in which an assault must have been committed to qualify as one which arose from or was connected to an IRS.

B. Sexual or Physical Assaults Committed by a Student

Where a proven incident of predatory or exploitative sexual abuse at levels SL4 or SL5 was committed by another student, the following tests must be met:

- a) Did the assault take place on IRS premises?
- b) Was the sexual assault of an exploitative or predatory nature?
- c) Has the government failed to prove that reasonable supervision was in place at the school?

In this connection:

A sexual assault is deemed to have been predatory or exploitative where the perpetrator was significantly older than the victim, or where the assault was occasioned by threats, coercion or violence.

For greater certainty, the fact of a sexual assault having taken place at an IRS does not itself prove that reasonable supervision was not in place.

In all other instances where a defined sexual assault (including those at the SL4 or SL5 level which are not predatory or exploitative) or a defined physical assault was proven to have been committed by another student, the following tests must be met:

- a) Did the assault take place on school premises?

- b) Did an adult employee of the IRS have, or should they reasonably have had, knowledge that abuse (i) of the kind proven was occurring at the IRS (ii) at the relevant time period?
- c) Did an adult employee at the IRS fail to take reasonable steps to prevent the assault?

C. Additional Instructions re Physical Assaults

1. Since a physical injury is required to establish a compensable physical assault in this IAP, a need for medical attention or hospitalization to determine whether there was an injury does not establish that the threshold had been met.
2. 'Serious medical treatment by a physician' does not include the application of salves or ointment or bandages or other similar non-invasive interventions.
3. Loss of consciousness must have been directly caused by a blow or blows and does not include momentary blackouts or fainting.
4. Compensation for physical abuse may be awarded in this IAP only where physical force is applied to the person of the Claimant. This test may be deemed to have been met where:

-the Claimant is required by an employee to strike a hard object such as a wall or post, such that the effect of the force to the Claimant's person is the same as if they had been struck by a staff member;

provided that the remaining standards for compensation within this IAP have been met.

D. Other Wrongful Acts

This category is intended to provide compensation for wrongful acts not listed within the Compensation Rules which have caused the defined level of psychological consequential harms. If the basis for a claim being asserted in this category is described in another category, the latter must be applied to the claim.

Because of the novel nature of these claims, and the importance of establishing a clear causal connection between such acts and the defined level of psychological consequential harms, these claims are handled only in the complex issues track.

For the purpose of this category, a wrongful act, other than the specified act of physical abuse of grossly excessive duration and frequency, is one which

- a) was committed by an adult employee or another adult lawfully on the premises,

- b) is outside the usual operational practices of the IRS at the time in question, and,
- c) exceeds recognized parenting or caregiving standards at the time.

Once an act or series of acts have been found to be wrongful, and not to be captured in another part of the Compensation Rules, then unless the parties consent to the contrary, the adjudicator must order the psychiatric or medical reports necessary to determine whether harms at the H4 or H5 level were caused by the act or acts.

In all OWA claims, the standard for proof of causation and the assessment of compensation within the Compensation Rules is the standard applied by the courts in like matters.

II. APPLICATION OF THE COMPENSATION RULES

Compensation for proven continuing claims is to be determined exclusively pursuant to the Compensation Rules. The Rules are designed to ensure that compensation is assessed on an individualized basis. While the abuse suffered is an important indicator of the appropriate level of compensation, so too are the circumstances in which the abuse was suffered by the individual, and the particular impacts it had on him or her.

The Compensation Rules were expressly designed to avoid a mechanistic approach to compensation by recognizing that a relatively less serious act can have severe consequences, and vice versa. They accomplish this goal by requiring both an objective assessment of the severity of the abusive act, and then a distinct and highly subjective assessment of how that act affected the individual Claimant. Accordingly, the categories defining acts and harms must be assessed separately, and the words in each category must be read purposively within their respective contexts.

In particular, in determining the level of harm suffered by a Claimant, adjudicators are to consider each of the five categories as a whole, and in relation to the other categories, rather than focussing on isolated words within a given category. This IAP calls for a contextual consideration, having particular regard to the headings for each category, in order to determine which of the categories best reflects the Claimant's proven level of harms resulting from compensable abuse.

1. The Proven Acts

The first step in applying the framework is to determine which acts of abuse have been proven on the civil standard of proof. The most serious act or acts of proven abuse, whether physical or sexual, determines the single range within which points for all abusive acts suffered over the course of attendance at one or more residential schools are to be assigned. Multiple acts of either physical or sexual abuse are recognized in the definitions of the categories of abuse; the impact of sexual abuse being accompanied by physical abuse is dealt with later as an aggravating circumstance.

Once the most serious category among the proven act categorizations has been determined, a point total will be assigned within that category's range. The adjudicator has the discretion to choose the point level within that range, having regard to the relative seriousness of the proven acts compared to the acts listed within that category. For example, in the category of nude photographs it is expected that a single photo of nude buttocks retained by the photographer would be assigned fewer points for the act itself than a series of highly sexualized photos which had been put into wide distribution. The potential for an individual to suffer a high degree of trauma from an objectively less serious act is recognized, but is to be addressed in the harms categories within the framework, rather than by increasing the points otherwise appropriate for the act itself.

2. Consequential Harms

After the assignment of points for the proven acts has been determined, the next step is to assess any proven consequential harms which flowed from the proven acts, including those which were subsumed for the purpose of assigning points to the acts. This is done by reference to the consequential harms categories.

A Claimant must provide evidence or there must be expert evidence to prove each asserted harm on the balance of probabilities. In the standard track, once a compensable act and a compensable harm have each been established on the evidence according to a balance of probabilities, only a plausible link between them need be established in order for compensation to be awarded for them. A finding of a plausible link does not require the negation of other potential causes of harms, but it must be based on or reasonably inferred from the evidence led in the case rather than assumptions or speculation as to possible links. Adjudicators shall have regard to their powers under Appendix X, below.

In the complex issues track, harms must be proven to have been caused by one or more continuing claims, and compensation must be assessed within the Compensation Rules, using the same standards a court would apply in like matters.

Harms not proven to be linked to or caused by acts constituting compensable abuse may not be taken into account in assessing points in the harms categories.

Harms up to and including H3 are not to be the subject of expert assessments, although treatment notes and clinical records from treating doctors or counsellors, or if such are not available, a report from treating doctors or counsellors may be relied upon to supplement or contradict the Claimant's evidence of harms suffered. Where a Claimant's evidence credibly establishes the abuse plus apparent harms at levels 4 or 5, or on the joint recommendation of the parties before the hearing, the adjudicator may order an expert assessment. Only where such an assessment has been obtained and considered, or where the parties consent to points at these levels being considered without such an assessment, may the adjudicator find that harms at the two highest levels have been proven and were caused by the proven abuse.

Points for consequential harm are assessed only once, at the level of harm which best reflects the evidence in the case and the causation standards of this IAP. Within the range for that level, the adjudicator has the discretion to determine the points to be assigned. Again, the relative gravity of the harm within the appropriate category will determine where within the applicable range the points should be assigned.

3, Aggravating Circumstances

The adjudicator must then determine whether any of the listed aggravating factors have been proven on the civil standard of proof. Only the specific aggravating factors listed in this IAP may be taken into account in assessing this category. Provided such factors are specifically proven, and are proven to have made the compensable abuse worse, they may be taken into account whether or not they were coincident in time and place with such abuse.

Once these tests have been met, the adjudicator has the discretion to determine a percentage to be added for one or more proven aggravating factors collectively. This discretion is to be exercised having regard to the seriousness of the aggravating factor in the specific context in which it occurred, including the impact the factor actually had on the Claimant. No other aggravating factors may be considered.

The percentage for aggravating factors is then applied to the total of the points assigned for the acts and the harms. The resulting number of points for aggravating factors is then rounded up to the nearest whole number.

4. Consequential Loss of Opportunity

Where the Claimant has asserted that the abuse caused them to suffer a consequential loss of opportunity, the adjudicator will then consider that part of the claim. Two aspects must be taken into account. First, the Claimant must prove, on the civil standard of proof, one or more of the circumstances or experiences listed in this part of the Rules, with expert evidence being required to establish the harms leading to the losses at levels 4 or 5 unless the parties have agreed to dispense with it. Second, in the standard track he or she must convince the adjudicator that there is a plausible link between the abuse proven to have occurred at the IRS, and the proven subsequent experience. In the complex track, consequential loss of opportunity must be proven to have been caused by one or more continuing claims, and compensation must be assessed within the Compensation Rules, using the standards a court would apply in like matters.

Where this proof is established, the adjudicator will then select the range of points reflecting the most serious proven loss linked to the abuse according to the standards for the track in question, and assign a point total within that range. Within the appropriate range the adjudicator will assign points based on the relative seriousness within the category of the proven experiences.

It is important to note that consequential loss of opportunity within the compensation framework is not intended as a surrogate for a loss of income claim. Actual income loss claims constitute a distinct basis for compensation within this IAP, and the standards for their assessment do not apply to consequential loss of opportunity claims.

5. Actual Income Loss

Except on consent, actual income loss claims must be determined on the basis of expert evidence. The link between any proven actual income losses and the proven continuing claim must be established, and compensation must be assessed, using the same standards a court would apply in like matters.

Actual income loss claims are an alternative to a claim for consequential loss of opportunity, and both cannot be awarded.

6. Assessment of Compensation

All points assigned will now be totalled. This total determines the dollar range within which compensation can be awarded (except for the actual income loss element of an award), but it does not determine where within that range the adjudicator will award compensation. While a higher number of points within a range will normally lead to a higher level of compensation, the adjudicator has the discretion to determine compensation within the applicable dollar range having regard to the totality of the proven facts and impacts.

7. Future Care

Finally, where a claim has been made for future care, the adjudicator will consider whether to award additional compensation within and according to the criteria in the Compensation Rules. Relevant factors here will include the impacts of the proven abuse on the individual; any treatment already received for those impacts; the availability of treatment in the Claimant's home community and the need for assistance with travel costs; and the availability of alternative sources of funding for parts of the plan.

No award for future care shall be made unless the adjudicator is satisfied that the Claimant has a need for treatment of the kind proposed, and a genuine desire to use the funding for that purpose. In most cases, this will be evidenced by a treatment plan and an articulated and credible determination to follow that plan.

8. Conclusion

The compensation framework is designed to provide an individual assessment of abuse suffered and its impact to generate compensation levels consistent with or more generous than court awards in each jurisdiction, using in a systematic and transparent way the factors applied by the courts. In the interests of fairness and consistency, all adjudicators must follow these instructions in applying the framework to the cases before them.

APPENDIX X: THE USE OF EXTRA-CURIAL KNOWLEDGE BY ADJUDICATORS

INTRODUCTION

A number of issues will arise concerning the ability of adjudicators to make use of information obtained or known beyond that provided by the parties in each individual case. There are several aspects to this matter:

- use of background information and/or personal knowledge, for example on
 - schools
 - child abuse and its impacts
 - the residential school system
- carry-forward of information from hearing to hearing, for example on
 - alleged perpetrators and the modus operandi of proven perpetrators
 - conditions at a school
 - credibility findings
- use of precedents from other adjudicators
- ability of adjudicators to confer

The approach to be taken to these issues is set out below, by reference to the source of the information in question.

1. Orientation Materials Provided to Adjudicators

Adjudicators will be supplied with orientation materials on the residential school system and its operations, as well as on child abuse and its impacts.

If any of the orientation materials are specifically identified as containing uncontested facts or opinions, they may be used as follows:

Adjudicators are expected to inform themselves from this material. They may use it to question witnesses, but also to make findings of fact and to support inferences from evidence they find credible, for example to conclude that trauma of a certain kind can be expected to flow from a sexual assault on a child. These latter uses of this information are justified by the fact that representatives of all interests have agreed to its inclusion in the orientation materials for this use, and all participants in a hearing will have access to the orientation materials.

Wherever possible the adjudicator should use the information at the hearing to formulate questions to any witnesses who may be able to comment on it, or whose testimony it may contradict, support, or help explain. Where this is not possible, the proposed use in reaching a decision should be identified to the parties at the hearing to give them a chance to comment on it in their submissions, but so doing is not a condition precedent to the proposed use.

Where the material is used in coming to a finding of fact, or drawing an inference, it should be cited and its relevance and the rationale for its use set out in the decision.

Where orientation information provided to adjudicators does not represent uncontested facts or opinions, it may be used by adjudicators as follows:

Adjudicators may use this category of orientation materials as a basis for questioning witnesses, or testing the evidence, but may not rely on it as an independent basis for their conclusions of fact or their assessment of the actual impact of abuse on an individual.

2. Personal Knowledge of Abuse and its Impacts

Some adjudicators may bring to the job an extensive background in dealing with child abuse, or may receive information on child abuse and its impacts at training sessions or continuing education programs, or through their own reading or research.

The approach to the use of this kind of information is as follows:

Adjudicators may use their personal knowledge, training they have received, or general educational materials, as a basis for questioning witnesses, or testing the evidence, but may not rely on them as an independent basis for their conclusions of fact or their assessment of the actual impact of abuse on an individual.

3. Document Collections

Adjudicators will be provided with Canada's, and potentially a church's, document collection on each school for which they are holding hearings. This material will also be available to Claimants and their counsel.

The approach to the use of this kind of information is as follows:

Adjudicators are expected to inform themselves from this material, which may be used as a basis for findings of fact or credibility. Where any of it is so used by adjudicators, it must be cited and its relevance and the rationale for use set out in the report.

Because this information is specific to the school in question and is provided in advance, it is expected that adjudicators will be familiar with it before starting a hearing to which it is relevant. Given this, before relying on specific documents to help decide a given case, the adjudicator should seek the consent of the parties, or put the relevant extracts to any witnesses who may be able to comment on them, or whose testimony they may contradict or support. Where there are no such witnesses, or where one or more parties contest the use of the documents, the adjudicator may still use them in his or her decision, but wherever possible should advise the parties of the proposed use of the document so that they may address it in their submissions.

4. Previous findings

Adjudicators will hear evidence about, and make findings of fact about, the operations of various schools, their layouts, the conditions that pertained in them, the acts and knowledge of adult employees, and where an individual is found to have committed a number of assaults in a particular way, their modus operandi.

The approach to the use of this kind of information is as follows:

Adjudicators must treat each individual's claim as a unique claim to be determined on the evidence presented, plus information expressly permitted to be used according to the guidelines agreed to for this process. They may not carry forward, much less be bound by, previous findings they have made, including findings of credibility.

They may, though, use information from previous hearings to inquire about possible admissions, or failing that, to question witnesses. This ability to bring forward information from previous hearings for these specific purposes flows from the fact that this IAP is not a party-controlled adversarial process. Instead, the inquisitorial model is being used to have adjudicators inquire into what happened, using their skills and judgment to question witnesses to determine the facts.

While it would not be fair to base a decision on evidence from a previous hearing, since some or all of the parties would not know its context, and would be unable to challenge its reliability, it is also not appropriate to insist that adjudicators act as if each case were their first one. Their job requires them to test evidence and determine what happened. While they cannot call witnesses, it is their duty to question them, and they must be free to pose questions and follow lines of inquiry they believe to be relevant. Whether that belief flows from common sense, instinct, or something heard at another hearing, it is appropriate as a basis of inquiry, although, in the absence of an admission, not as evidence.

5. Stare decisis

Although reasons will be issued in each case, the IAP will not operate on the basis of binding precedent. All adjudicators are of equal authority, and should not consider themselves bound by each other's previous decisions. Through conferencing, adjudicators may come to a common interpretation of certain procedural issues, but each case must be determined on its own merits.

APPENDIX XI: TRANSITION FROM LITIGATION OR ADR PROJECTS, AND PRIORITIES FOR ACCESS TO THE IAP.

All IRS Claimants who meet the criteria for this IAP may apply to it for the validation of their claim except:

1. Claimants who have settled their IRS claim, whether in the litigation stream or the existing DR, except as provided for in the transition rules established by the Class Action Judgments.
2. Claimants whose claims have been dealt with at trial.

For greater certainty, participation in unsuccessful resolution discussions with the Government or a church in an attempt to settle claims does not preclude access to the IAP. Only where one of the above conditions applies will an application to enter the new process be rejected.

Rules for Pre-existing Evidence

Where a Claimant who has given evidence in a previous IRS proceeding in a pilot project, or in a hearing under the DR Model or this IAP (where a new hearing has been ordered following a review), or in litigation proceedings (including answers to interrogatories or participation in an examination for discovery), wants to and is eligible to enter the IAP:

- (i) the record of the previous evidence must be provided to the adjudicator in the IAP, who may use it as a basis to question the Claimant;
- (ii) the Claimant must appear before the adjudicator to give evidence, if a hearing is held;
- (iii) the Claimant may adopt their previous evidence rather than provide a narrative account at the hearing;
- (iv) the Claimant is subject to questioning by the adjudicator on the same basis as other Claimants.

The fact that a case is transferred from litigation where documentary rules are different does not change the kinds of documents permitted in proceedings under the IAP. For greater certainty, the only expert assessments permitted in this IAP are those conducted by an agreed-upon expert on the order of, and under the direction of, an adjudicator.

Potential for Expediting the Transfer

To expedite transition to the new system, and reduce the burden of completing an application in circumstances where the Claimant has already given evidence, counsel for the Government and the claimant should endeavour to develop an agreed statement of fact on some or all of the issues based on the evidence given.

Phasing of Acceptance into the IAP

In considering applications to the IAP, including applications to the DR Model which are transferred to the IAP, priority will be given, in order, to:

- a) Applications from persons who submit a doctor's certificate indicating that they are in failing health such that further delay would impair their ability to participate in a hearing;
- b) Applications from persons 70 years of age and over;
- c) Applications from persons 60 years of age and over;
- d) Persons who have completed examinations for discovery;
- e) Persons who are applying as members of groups.

Among persons in categories d or e, above, the health of any alleged perpetrator who has indicated they will give evidence at a hearing may be used to establish priority.

APPENDIX XII: FORMAT FOR DECISIONS

Adjudicators must produce a decision outlining and supporting their findings in each case. To help ensure consistency, fairness and efficiency, these decisions must be prepared in a standard format.

The decisions are primarily to explain to the parties how the adjudicator's decision was reached, but they must also support and facilitate consultation among adjudicators, and review for error.

The format does not contemplate a narrative exposition of the evidence heard. Instead, it requires a focus on findings, and the rationale for those findings. A transcript of the evidence will be available for Claimants who wish a record of their testimony; it is not the purpose of the report to provide such a record. Similarly, the transcript will be available for a review; the evidence need not be summarized in the decision for those purposes.

While an arbitrary page limit will not be set, it is expected that most decisions will be in the range of 6-10 pages. The approved format is as follows:

A. Summary

1. Summary of allegations
2. Summary of conclusions

B. Decision

Where the claim was proven in whole or in part state the compensation awarded. Where the claim is not established, state that it is dismissed.

C. Analysis

1. Outline each specific allegation or linked series of allegations, and set out the findings of fact pertinent to it. Do not outline the evidence as a whole.
2. In making findings for each abuse allegation or series of linked abuse allegations:
 - a. if the evidence was uncontradicted, indicate whether, and the basis on which, it was found credible or not credible, or
 - b. if there was conflicting evidence, indicate which evidence was found credible and why, and
 - c. having regard to the evidence found credible, outline whether, and the basis on which, the civil standard of proof was found to have been met, or not met.

3. Having regard to the proven allegations as a whole, outline the harms, impacts and aggravating factors found, or not found, to have been established on the civil standard of proof, along with the basis for those findings. For the proven harms and impacts, indicate whether, and on what evidence, the Claimant has established causation of the proven harms as required under this IAP.
4. In relation to the proven acts, and the proven and plausibly-linked harms and impacts, outline the calculation of compensation by indicating:
 - a. The most serious proven acts, the applicable range, and the rationale for the points assessed within the applicable range
 - b. The most serious proven harms for which causation pursuant to this IAP has been proven, the applicable range, and the rationale for the points assessed within the applicable range.
 - c. The proven aggravating factors, and the rationale for the percentage found appropriate.
 - d. The most serious proven opportunity loss for which causation pursuant to this IAP has been proven and the rationale for the points assessed within the relevant category.
 - e. In the case of an actual income loss assessment, the evidence and caselaw relied upon for the assessment.
 - f. Findings and rationale for any future care compensation assessed.

More than one selection board may be appointed to operate concurrently.

COMMEMORATION POLICY DIRECTIVE

COMMEMORATION

Commemoration is honouring, educating, remembering, memorializing and/or paying tribute to residential school former students, their families and their communities, and acknowledging their experiences and the broad and systemic impacts of the residential school system. Commemoration may involve the creation of, or improvements to existing, permanent memorials and commemorative structures, or ceremonies or other projects.

The government will provide funding to facilitate regional and national Commemoration initiatives that address the residential school experience and provide the opportunity to share the initiative with family and community.

Commemoration funding will be divided into annual funding levels. Proposals that are not approved in any given year may be re-submitted in subsequent years.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVE

The objective of the Commemoration Policy Directive is to:

- assist in honouring and validating the healing and reconciliation of former students and their families through Commemoration initiatives that address their residential school experience;
- provide support towards efforts to improve and enhance Aboriginal relationships and between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people;
- provide an opportunity for former students and their families to support one another and to recognize and take pride in their strengths, courage, resiliency, and achievements.
- contribute to a sense of identity, unity and belonging;
- promote Aboriginal languages, cultures, and traditional and spiritual values;
- ensure that the legacy of residential schools and former students and their families' experiences and needs are affirmed; and
- memorialize in a tangible and permanent way the Residential school experience.

COMMEMORATION INITIATIVE PROPOSALS

All former students, their families, communities and groups, are eligible to submit a proposal for a regional or national Commemoration project. Proposals should be submitted by communities, but proposals by other interested groups (for example former students of a particular school) may also be considered. Proposals will be submitted to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission for evaluation, and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission will make recommendations to IRSRC.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

The following criteria shall guide approval on all proposals:

- at least one member of the group (or where applicable the governing body of the group) is a former IRS student or an immediate family member of an IRS student;
- disclosure of all sources and amounts of funding sought and obtained for the initiative;
- declaration that the group has not previously received any commemoration funding from IRSRC;
- demonstration that the recipient has the necessary capacity to manage and administer commemoration funding; and
- funding for all projects and events must respect Treasury Board policies and guidelines.

All decisions with respect to proposals will be made within the limits of the annual funding.

ELIGIBLE EXPENDITURES

Eligible expenditures for commemorative projects may include rental of a suitable hall or public venue, publishing, printing, accounting and legal costs. Expenditures may also include professional fees and material costs related to the design, management and construction of plaques, monuments or other memorials.

Proposals should identify upkeep costs, if any

POTENTIAL COMMEMORATION PROJECTS

National Commemoration projects will be based on proposals for the creation of permanent memorials, commemorative structures or improvements. Other projects may focus on a particular school, or may take place within a particular community. It is contemplated that most commemoration events will have a lasting or permanent component such as a “National Day of Healing and Reconciliation”.

ACCOUNTABILITY FRAMEWORK

The Government of Canada requires accountability for specific results against stated objectives, in accordance with Treasury Board policies and directives.

LINKS WITH OTHER ASPECTS OF THE AGREEMENT

As part of the overall holistic approach to resolving the legacy of Indian residential schools, the activities stemming from the Commemoration Policy Directive should be coordinated with other initiatives under the Agreement and should link with other aspects of the Agreement, where possible, to ensure the overall goals of reconciliation will be promoted.

SCHEDULE "N"

MANDATE FOR THE TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION COMMISSION

There is an emerging and compelling desire to put the events of the past behind us so that we can work towards a stronger and healthier future. The truth telling and reconciliation process as part of an overall holistic and comprehensive response to the Indian Residential School legacy is a sincere indication and acknowledgement of the injustices and harms experienced by Aboriginal people and the need for continued healing. This is a profound commitment to establishing new relationships embedded in mutual recognition and respect that will forge a brighter future. The truth of our common experiences will help set our spirits free and pave the way to reconciliation.

Principles

Through the Agreement, the Parties have agreed that an historic Truth and Reconciliation Commission will be established to contribute to truth, healing and reconciliation.

The Truth and Reconciliation Commission will build upon the "Statement of Reconciliation" dated January 7, 1998 and the principles developed by the Working Group on Truth and Reconciliation and of the Exploratory Dialogues (1998-1999). These principles are as follows: accessible; victim-centered; confidentiality (if required by the former student); do no harm; health and safety of participants; representative; public/transparent; accountable; open and honourable process; comprehensive; inclusive, educational, holistic, just and fair; respectful; voluntary; flexible; and forward looking in terms of rebuilding and renewing Aboriginal relationships and the relationship between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal Canadians.

Reconciliation is an ongoing individual and collective process, and will require commitment from all those affected including First Nations, Inuit and Métis former Indian Residential School (IRS) students, their families, communities, religious entities, former school employees, government and the people of Canada. Reconciliation may occur between any of the above groups.

National events should include the following common components:

- (f) an opportunity for a sample number of former students and families to share their experiences;
- (g) an opportunity for some communities in the regions to share their experiences as they relate to the impacts on communities and to share insights from their community reconciliation processes;
- (h) an opportunity for participation and sharing of information and knowledge among former students, their families, communities, experts, church and government officials, institutions and the Canadian public;

- (i) ceremonial transfer of knowledge through the passing of individual-statement transcripts or community reports/statements. The Commission shall recognize that ownership over IRS experiences rests with those affected by the Indian Residential School legacy;
- (j) analysis of the short and long term legacy of the IRS system on individuals, communities, groups, institutions and Canadian society including the intergenerational impacts of the IRS system;
- (k) participation of high level government and church officials;
- (l) health supports and trauma experts during and after the ceremony for all participants.

(B) Community Events

It is intended that the community events will be designed by communities and respond to the needs of the former students, their families and those affected by the IRS legacy including the special needs of those communities where Indian Residential Schools were located.

The community events are for the purpose of:

- (a) acknowledging the capacity of communities to develop reconciliation practices;
- (b) developing collective community narratives about the impact of the IRS system on former students, families and communities;
- (c) involving church, former school employees and government officials in the reconciliation process, if requested by communities;
- (d) creating a record or statement of community narratives - including truths, insights and recommendations - for use in the historical research and report, national events, and for inclusion in the research centre;
- (e) educating the public and fostering better relationships with local communities;
- (f) allowing for the participation from high level government and church officials, if requested by communities;
- (g) respecting the goal of witnessing in accordance with Aboriginal principles.

The Commission, during the first stages of the process in consultation with the IRSSC, shall develop the core criteria and values consistent with the Commission's mandate that will guide the community processes.

Within these parameters communities may submit plans for reconciliation processes to the Commission and receive funding for the processes within the limits of the Commission's budgetary capacity.

(C) Individual Statement-Taking/Truth Sharing

The Commission shall coordinate the collection of individual statements by written, electronic or other appropriate means. Notwithstanding the five year mandate, anyone affected by the IRS legacy will be permitted to file a personal statement in the research centre with no time limitation.

The Commission shall provide a safe, supportive and sensitive environment for individual statement-taking/truth sharing.

The Commission shall not use or permit access to an individual's statement made in any Commission processes, except with the express consent of the individual.

(D) Closing Ceremony

The Commission shall hold a closing ceremony at the end of its mandate to recognize the significance of all events over the life of the Commission. The closing ceremony shall have the participation of high level church and government officials.

11. Access to Relevant Information

In order to ensure the efficacy of the truth and reconciliation process, Canada and the churches will provide all relevant documents in their possession or control to and for the use of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, subject to the privacy interests of an individual as provided by applicable privacy legislation, and subject to and in compliance with applicable privacy and access to information legislation, and except for those documents for which solicitor-client privilege applies and is asserted.

In cases where privacy interests of an individual exist, and subject to and in compliance with applicable privacy legislation and access to information legislation, researchers for the Commission shall have access to the documents, provided privacy is protected. In cases where solicitor-client privilege is asserted, the asserting party will provide a list of all documents for which the privilege is claimed.

Canada and the churches are not required to give up possession of their original documents to the Commission. They are required to compile all relevant documents in an organized manner for review by the Commission and to provide access to their archives for the Commission to carry out its mandate. Provision of documents does not require provision of original documents. Originals or true copies may be provided or originals may be provided temporarily for copying purposes if the original documents are not to be housed with the Commission.

Insofar as agreed to by the individuals affected and as permitted by process requirements, information from the Independent Assessment Process (IAP), existing litigation and Dispute Resolution processes may be transferred to the Commission for research and archiving purposes.

12. National Research Centre

A research centre shall be established, in a manner and to the extent that the Commission's budget makes possible. It shall be accessible to former students, their families and communities, the general public, researchers and educators who wish to include this historic material in curricula.

For the duration of the term of its mandate, the Commission shall ensure that all materials created or received pursuant to this mandate shall be preserved and archived with a purpose and tradition in keeping with the objectives and spirit of the Commission's work.

The Commission shall use such methods and engage in such partnerships with experts, such as Library and Archives Canada, as are necessary to preserve and maintain the materials and documents. To the extent feasible and taking into account the relevant law and any recommendations by the Commission concerning the continued confidentiality of records, all materials collected through this process should be accessible to the public.

13. Privacy

The Commission shall respect privacy laws, and the confidentiality concerns of participants. For greater certainty:

- (a) any involvement in public events shall be voluntary;
- (b) notwithstanding 2(i), the national events shall be public or in special circumstances, at the discretion of the Commissioners, information may be taken in camera;
- (c) the community events shall be private or public, depending upon the design provided by the community;
- (d) if an individual requests that a statement be taken privately, the Commission shall accommodate;
- (e) documents shall be archived in accordance with legislation.

14. Budget and Resources

The Commission shall prepare a budget within the first three months of its mandate and submit it to the Minister of Indian Residential Schools Resolution Canada for approval. Upon approval of its budget, it will have full authority to make decisions on spending, within the limits of, and in accordance with, its Mandate, its establishing Order in Council, Treasury Board policies, available funds, and its budgetary capacity.

The Commission shall ensure that there are sufficient resources allocated to the community events over the five year period. The Commission shall also ensure that a portion of the budget is set aside for individual statement-taking/truth sharing and to archive the Commission's records and information.

Institutional parties shall bear the cost of participation and attendance in Commission events and community events, as well as provision of documents. If requested by the party providing the documents, the costs of copying, scanning, digitalizing, or otherwise reproducing the documents will be borne by the Commission.

2.2 This Agreement comes into force and will become effective and binding on the parties on the Implementation Date (see Article 1.01 of the IRSSA). For greater certainty, if the IRSSA does not become effective and binding, then this Agreement has no force and effect.

PART III
REPLACEMENT FINANCIAL AND SERVICE COMMITMENTS

3.1. The Settlement Fund established pursuant to Section 3.1 of the Presbyterian Settlement Agreement shall be maintained to the extent required by this Agreement.

3.2 The Settlement Amount is reduced to $1,317,700 (which represents the Presbyterian equivalent of the dollar value of the financial and In-Kind Service contributions made in the Catholic Settlement Agreement, including the maximum amount to be raised through a Canada-wide fund raising campaign by the Catholic Entities less the amounts paid in Compensation by the Church and Board as of the date this Agreement comes into force. Any other amounts in the Settlement Fund may be withdrawn by the Church and Board.

3.3 Except as provided in Section 4.2 of the Presbyterian Settlement Agreement, the Board and Church have no further obligation to contribute to Compensation for IRS Abuse Claims.

3.4 For greater certainty, the Government agrees that it will be responsible for all further Compensation under the DRM, the IAP and all settlements and judgments for IRS Abuse Claims in favour of opt-out claimants. For greater certainty, this does not include settlements or judgments arising from claims for alleged loss or diminution of aboriginal language and culture. Should the Church or Board be named in any legal proceeding in which an IRS Abuse Claim is made, and the Government is not named, the Government agrees to indemnify the Church and Board for any Compensation for IRS Abuse Claims paid by them.

3.5 The parties agree that as of November 20, 2005 the sum of $227,412 has been paid by the Church and Board in Compensation to Claimants for Validated Claims.

3.6 Within 60 days of this Agreement coming into force, the Government and the Church will agree on the amount of Compensation paid by the Church between November 20, 2005 and the date this Agreement comes into force (the "transition period"). If the amount paid in Compensation by the Church and Board between November 20, 2005 and the date upon which this Agreement comes into force exceeds $489,540, then within 60 days of such agreement, the Government will pay to the Church and Board, jointly, such excess amount to be held in the Settlement Fund and applied in accordance with this Agreement.

3.7 No payments other than those provided for in Section 3.6 are required to be paid by the Government to the Church and/or Board to give effect to Section 8.1 of the Presbyterian Settlement Agreement under any circumstances.

3.8 Subject to Section 3.7, the balance in the Settlement Fund as of the date this Agreement comes into force shall be expended within no more than eight years in accordance with the following criteria:

3.8.1 Any amount in the Settlement Fund may, at the complete discretion of the Church and Board, be used to contribute to Compensation payable to a Claimant for an IRS

Abuse Claim, and the Government contribution to such Compensation shall be accordingly reduced.

3.8.2 Any amount in the Settlement Fund may be paid in grants for healing and reconciliation in accordance with Schedule A.

3.8.2.1 All decisions concerning the making of grants or the approval of In-Kind Services shall be made by the Presbyterian Fund for Healing and Reconciliation Committee (“PFHRC” or the “Committee”) which shall be composed of three members appointed by the Anglican Council on Indigenous People, one member appointed by the AFN, two members appointed collectively by the Church and Board, and one member appointed by the Government. Decisions shall be made by a majority of the Committee’s members.

3.8.2.2 The reasonable administration costs of operating the Committee may, with the consent in writing of the Government, be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Government may not unreasonably withhold the consent referred to in this Section.

3.8.3 Where In-Kind Services have been provided by the Church in accordance with this Part and Schedule A, and where the Government and the Church and the Board agree on the dollar value of such services, that dollar value may be withdrawn from the Settlement Fund by the Church and Board, provided that the total of such withdrawals does not exceed $417,000.

3.8.3.1 “In-Kind” Services are subject to verification by the Committee and, on request by and at the expense of Government, to Government to ensure that the program or service provided, as implemented, meets the criteria in Schedule A and expenses are reasonable.

3.8.4 Any monies not paid out by the date set by Section 3.3 shall be transferred to the Aboriginal Healing Foundation, or to another charitable organization agreed upon unanimously by the Committee.

3.9 The Church and Board may reduce the amount in the Settlement Fund by any amount by which the Roman Catholic fundraising campaign falls short of raising $25,000,000 multiplied by a factor of .01668.

3.9.1 No refund shall be paid to the Church and Board by the Government if before determining the shortfall referred to in Section 3.4 the Settlement Fund has paid out monies such that monies are not available to reduce the balance to reflect any Roman Catholic fundraising shortfall in whole or part.

3.9.2 The obligation of the Church and Board to pay the amount (in accordance with Schedule A to this Agreement) that is contingent on the Roman Catholic fundraising campaign does not arise until such campaign has raised funds, and then only to the extent that funds are raised by the campaign multiplied by a factor of .01668.

3.9.3 Within 60 days of each anniversary date of the coming into force of this Agreement and for a period of 7 years thereafter, the Government shall provide the Church and Board with reasonable information as to the amount of money raised in the Roman Catholic Fundraising Campaign and paid into the Roman Catholic Healing and Reconciliation Fund.

3.9.4 For purposes of calculations under this Agreement, the Roman Catholic fundraising campaign will terminate seven years from the date this Agreement comes into force or such longer period as may be agreed to by the Church and Board and the Government, but in no case shall the period exceed 10 years from the coming into force of this Agreement.

3.10 The Trustee Board of The Presbyterian Church in Canada shall hold the Settlement Fund, less any monies properly paid out from it, within its consolidated financial portfolio, which is governed by the Church's Statement of Investment Policies and Procedures (SIP&P). This portfolio is to be managed professionally under the direction and ongoing supervision of the Trustee Board of the Church with a desired return objective set at 3% above the rate of increase in the CPI before fees. The asset mix is to be fixed income 55%, Canadian Equities 20%, Canadian small Cap equities 5%, US Equities 10%, and International Equities 10%.

3.11 Section 4.2 of the Presbyterian Settlement Agreement is amended to provide that the Government shall reimburse the Church and Board as if the release and indemnity provided for in Sections 4.8 and 4.9 thereof were in force, whether or not they are force at the time of the payment by the Church and the Board.

3.12 Section 3.6 of the Presbyterian Settlement Agreement is amended by adding as instances of default a breach of any of the obligations under this agreement to pay money or provide In-Kind Services pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

3.13 The Church will provide documents to the Government as required to assist with validation of applications for the Common Experience Payment (CEP) as that term is defined in the IRSSA.

PART IV IRS ABUSE CLAIMS RESOLUTION

4.1 Part II of the Presbyterian Settlement Agreement, except for Sections 2.2.2, 2.2.3, 2.3, 2.4, 2.17 and 2.18, is repealed and of no further force and effect. Sections 4.1, 4.3, 4.5, 4.6, and 5.6.3 of the Presbyterian Settlement Agreement are also repealed and of no further force and effect. In addition:

4.1.1 Section 2.18.1 is replaced by a provision that the releases shall be in conformity with the releases as provided for in the IRSSA Articles 4.06, 11.01, 11.02 and Schedule P, and the Approval Orders, in the case of Class Members, Cloud Class Members and Non-resident Claimants, and Schedule B hereto in the case of persons who opt-out of the IRSSA, all as set out in Section 4.11 of this Agreement.

4.1.2 Sections 4.7 and 4.8 thereof are amended to provide that their release and indemnity provisions come into effect when there has been full compliance with the provisions of this Agreement concerning the payment of monies into and out of the Settlement Fund.

4.1.3 The remaining provisions of Parts II, IV and V are deemed to be amended to give full force and effect to this Part.

4.2 As long as there is a prospect of settling a claim solely on the basis of the allegations which fall within the definition of an IRS Abuse Claim, it is to be treated as such for the purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding the fact that claims for alleged loss or diminution of aboriginal language or culture or other claims falling outside the definition are also being made.

4.3 In the case of a claim being resolved through the IAP or the DRM, the rights of the Church and Board to participate are as set out therein.

4.4 The Government will participate in and may conclude negotiations to determine the amount of Compensation in any settlement of an IRS Abuse Claim or claim arising under the IAP on terms acceptable to the Government and the Claimant without recourse to the Church and Board.

4.4.1 Where the Church and the Board advise the Government in writing that they wish to be consulted before the Government settles an IAP claim from an IRS without holding a hearing, the Government will so consult provided that the Church and the Board engage in such consultation within an interval of no more than one week from notification by the Government of its intent.

4.5 Where a trial is held in a matter arising under the IAP, neither the Government nor the Church nor Board will rely upon the defence of limitations of the doctrine of laches or other defence not going to the merits.

4.6 The Government will in a timely manner provide the Church and Board with copies of IRS Statements of Claim served on the Government, and copies of Notices of Examinations it serves on IRS Claimants with claims from an IRS in order to facilitate informed decisions about potential participation by the Church and the Board.

4.6.1 The Church and Board may, by notice in writing to the Government, request that copies of the above documents not be forwarded to it either generally or in certain classes of cases, and the Government will respect that request except in such cases where it requires the cooperation of the Church and Board to resolve the claim.

4.7 Where IRS Abuse Claims are being advanced in litigation, the Government and the Church and Board will notify the other of any settlement overtures from claimants, and will work together to develop a joint position for settlement discussions and, if necessary, for trial.

4.7.1 The Church and Board, or any of them, may relieve the Government of the obligations in Section 4.7, as it applies to them, by written notice to the Government.

4.8 Where an IRS Abuse Claim is based on intentional torts arising prior to May 14, 1953, the Government will assert immunity if the matter proceeds to trial and will play no role in the defence after a court finds such immunity. The Government will provide written notice of its intention to the Church and Board not later than 120 days before the start of such trial, and the Church and Board will defend the claims or otherwise settle them.

4.8.1 The Government agrees to wholly indemnify the Church and Board for all Compensation paid to a Claimant pursuant to this Section or Section 4.2 of the Presbyterian Settlement Agreement; and

4.8.2 The Government will further indemnify the Church and Board for legal fees and expenses incurred by them in defending an IRS Abuse Claim based on an intentional tort arising prior to May 14, 1953 for the period of time from and after a court has dismissed the claim against the Government based on Crown immunity to the date of resolution of the claim. The indemnification will be in an amount as agreed between the Government and the Church and Board, or as determined in accordance with Part VII of the Presbyterian Settlement Agreement. In the event of resort to Part VII the parties and any Mediator appointed under Section 7.6 of the Presbyterian Settlement Agreement shall have regard to the rules, principles and caselaw that would apply in the taxation of a solicitor and own client account in the province or territory where the claim was brought.

4.9 Where the Church and Board receive from the IAP Secretariat a copy of a Claimant's IAP application or receive from the Government a copy of an application to the DR Model, the Church and Board agree to be bound by trust conditions imposed on it with respect to confidentiality or, if it does not so agree in one or more instances, to return the document(s) without copying, reading or making use of it in any way.

4.10 In IAP, where the Church and Board elect not to participate in the validation, resolution or defence of IRS Abuse Claims to the extent the following provisions do not conflict with Appendix III of the IAP, then the Government will:

4.10.1 Provided a witness statement is submitted in advance, or the individual provides a full interview to the Government, the Government will pay the reasonable travel and accommodation costs of a member, employee or former employee of the Church or Board to appear at a DRM or an IAP hearing. In other proceedings involving IRS Abuse Claims, the Government will only be responsible for any expense related to the participation of the member, employee or former employee of the Church or Board where the Government requires the participation of such member, employee or former employee for its own purposes; and

4.10.2 The Government will participate in and may conclude negotiations to determine the amount of Compensation in any settlement.

4.11 Releases by Class Members, Cloud Class Members and Non-resident Claimants are as provided for in the IRSSA, specifically Articles 4.06, 11.01, 11.02 and Schedule P, and the Approval Orders. As part of any resolution of a claim brought by any person not bound by the IRSSA arising out of or in relation to an Indian Residential School or the operation generally of Indian Residential Schools, the Government will concurrently secure from the claimant a dismissal of the claim and release for itself and the Church from any and all past, present and future claims, whether or not now known to or existing at law, arising from or connected to, directly or indirectly, an Indian Residential School.

4.11.1 The release by a person not bound by the IRSSA shall be in the form attached as Schedule B.

The Government and the Church and Board agree that they will not advance as evidence or argument in any legal claim against each other in relation to claims arising from or connected to the operation of an IRS, the negotiations leading to and the execution of this Agreement.

SCHEDULE A

THE PRESBYTERIAN FUND FOR HEALING AND RECONCILIATION (“PFHR”)

1. The PFHR Committee established under Section 3.8.2.1 of this Agreement shall receive applications for initiatives or programs designed to assist with healing and reconciliation for former IRS students and their families and communities, and shall make grants or approve In-Kind Services in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
2. The Committee will approve only those In-Kind Services which are new programs or services, or increments to existing programs or services. In addition to receiving applications from community groups, the Committee will also accept applications for grants and funding of In-Kind Services from the Church, but only to fund healing and reconciliation work which is independent of a denominational, religious ministry. Where an existing application for grants and funding of In-Kind Services is proposed the Committee may approve the application for grants or In-Kind Service to the extent that the Committee believes the In-Kind Service or some part thereof is new or would not otherwise continue.
3. The following criteria shall be applied to applications for grants and for the approval of In-Kind Services. Criteria a) and b) are mandatory in all circumstances, and the Committee shall have regard to the remaining criteria in assessing each application:
 - a) Is the program open to all Aboriginal people and groups regardless of denomination?
 - b) Does the program foster health, healing and reconciliation, which can include the building of relationships of mutual respect and trust between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal participants?
 - c) Do Aboriginal people have input in developing and delivery of the program?
 - d) Has the program been effective in the past?
 - e) To what extent are Aboriginal communities involved in the program?
 - f) Does the program or service deal with former students, or their families and communities and the aftermath of IRS including providing assistance with the recovery of their histories?
 - g) What portion of the overall cost of the program addresses the social, psychological, and health issues without regard to religiosity?
4. For greater certainty, the costs or efforts expended in participation at any part of the work of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, or in proceedings to resolve an IRS claim do not qualify for approval by the Committee.

5. Notwithstanding section 2 of this Schedule, the Committee as an interim measure may credit the value of a program or service offered between March 31, 2005 and the coming into force of this agreement toward the In-Kind Service contribution provided that:

- a) it meets the criteria set out in sections 3 and 4 of this Schedule;
- b) the program or service did not exist before March 31, 2005 unless otherwise agreed to by Canada;
- c) the same program or service cannot be certified for a period following the coming into force of this Agreement unless it can be shown that it would not otherwise continue; and
- d) in no case shall the total amount credited for programs and services provided before the coming into force of this Agreement exceed $23,000.

6. The parties agree that the Committee may meet and make decisions under article 5 of this Schedule before the coming into force of this Agreement, and that following the coming into force of this Agreement the decisions the Committee makes in this period shall be ratified without further review and the costs and reasonable expenses incurred shall be reimbursed by the Church and Board and to the credit of their debt under this Agreement. For greater certainty, should this Agreement not come into force the decisions made under articles 5 and 6 shall have no force or effect and the Corporation has no obligation to make reimbursement.

PART II COMING INTO FORCE

2.1 This Agreement comes into force and will become effective and binding on the parties on the Implementation Date (see Article 1.01 of the IRSSA). For greater certainty, if the IRSSA does not become effective and binding, then this Agreement has no force and effect.

2.2 For greater certainty, this Agreement amends not only the Anglican Settlement Agreement but, as well, the said agreement as attached to the Contribution and Cooperation Agreements and the General Synod Support Agreements, and each of those agreements to the extent necessary to give full force and effect to this Agreement.

PART III REPLACEMENT FINANCIAL AND SERVICE COMMITMENTS

3.1 The Settlement Fund established pursuant to Section 3.1 of the Anglican Settlement Agreement shall be maintained to the extent required by this Agreement and the Corporation shall also establish and manage a segregated fund to be known as the Anglican Fund for Healing and Reconciliation (“AFHR”).

3.1.1 The AFHR will be the source of payments to be made in accordance with Schedule B and will be operated and managed as provided for in this Agreement.

3.1.2 The Corporation shall manage the financial affairs of the AFHR, but all decisions concerning the making of grants from the AFHR or the approval of In-Kind Services shall be made by an AFHR Committee (the “Committee”) composed of three members appointed by the Anglican Council on Indigenous Peoples; one member appointed by the AFN, two members appointed by the Council of the General Synod and one member appointed by the Government. Decisions shall be made by a majority of the Committee's members.

3.1.3 The terms on which funds are transferred by the Corporation to the AFHR shall require that the Committee make payments from the Fund exclusively in accordance with the provisions of Schedule B. The AFHR Committee shall provide the Government with quarterly financial statements on its operations within sixty days of the end of each quarter.

3.1.4 Interest accruing on the AFHR shall be used first for the payment of its reasonable administration expenses. Should the reasonable administration expenses of the AFHR exceed, on an annual basis, the amount of interest accrued on the AFHR, then the excess amount of such expenses may be paid by the Corporation, with the consent in writing of the Government from the Settlement Fund. The Government may not unreasonably withhold the consent referred to in this Section. Amounts of accrued interest not required to pay the reasonable expenses of the AFHR on an annual basis will be added to the monies in the AFHR available for the making of grants as provided for in Schedule B.

3.1.5 The funds in the AFHR must be paid out under the terms of this Agreement within twelve years of it coming into force, and any monies not paid out by that date shall be transferred to the Aboriginal Healing Foundation, or to another charitable organization agreed upon unanimously by the Committee.

3.2 Sections 3.3 to 3.6 of the Anglican Settlement Agreement are repealed, and replaced by the following provisions:

Amounts to be Held and Paid Out of the Settlement Fund and AFHR

3.3.1 The parties agree that the total amount the Anglican Entities are required to contribute towards IRS Abuse Claims and healing and reconciliation is $15,687,188 ($$79,000,000 \times 19.8572$ percent), which is the Anglican proportionate equivalent of the maximum amounts required to be contributed by the Catholic Entities for healing and reconciliation, In-Kind Services and through a Canada-wide fund raising campaign under the terms of the Catholic Settlement Agreement.

3.3.1A The parties agree that as at November 20, 2005 the sum of $6,699,125 has been paid by the Anglican Entities in compensation for IRS Abuse Claims.

3.3.2 The Government acknowledges that the amount required to be held by the Corporation is $8,987,975. The parties agree that this sum shall be managed and disbursed by the Corporation as follows:

(a) an amount not to exceed $4,964,300 as provided in Section 3.4 below, to be paid into the AFHR and managed and disbursed in accordance with this Agreement (the “AFHR Amount”); and

(b) an amount of $4,023,675 to be held for eligible In-Kind Services payments (the “In-Kind Amount”) to be held in the Settlement Fund.

3.3.3 Upon the Government being satisfied that the amounts of $4,964,300, representing the maximum amount of the AFHR Amount, and the further amount of $4,023,674, representing the In-Kind Amount, remain in the AFHR and the Settlement Fund, respectively, the balance of the Settlement Fund may be refunded to the Anglican Entities, and their promissory notes to the Corporation cancelled on terms agreed among themselves. Schedule “C” to the Settlement Agreement, being the Contribution and Cooperation Agreement, is repealed, except for the Preamble and Sections 1, 6, 7, and 8 which remain in force.

3.3.4 The Government agrees that it will be responsible for payment of all further Compensation under the DRM and the IAP established pursuant to the Approval Orders, and all settlements and judgments in any IRS Abuse Claims by opt-out claimants. For greater certainty, this does not include settlements or judgments for alleged losses of language and culture. Should any Anglican Entity or Entities be named in any legal proceeding in which an IRS Abuse Claim is made, and the Government is not named, the Government agrees that it will indemnify such Anglican Entity or Entities for any settlement or judgment for Compensation for IRS Abuse Claims paid by them.

3.3.5 Section 4.2 of the Anglican Settlement Agreement is amended to provide that the Government shall reimburse the Anglican Entities as if the release and indemnity provided for in Sections 4.8 and 4.9 thereof were in force.

Monies Held and Payments from the AFHR

3.4.1 The amount to be held and distributed by the AFHR will be 19.8572 percent of the amount raised by the Catholic Canada-wide fundraising campaign as required by the Catholic Settlement Agreement up to a maximum of $4,964,300. For the purpose of calculations under this Agreement, the Catholic fundraising campaign will terminate seven years from the date this Agreement comes into force or such longer period as may be agreed to by the Anglican Entities and the Government, but in no case shall the period exceed 10 years from the coming into force of this Agreement.

3.4.2 No later than sixty days after each anniversary date of this Agreement coming into force, the Government will deliver a statement to the Corporation which will report the net amount raised under the Catholic Settlement Agreement in the previous year times 19.8572 percent, which will represent the amount that the Anglican Entities are required to contribute to the AFHR Amount in that year. The Government will provide the Corporation with a reasonable level of information to verify the net amount raised under the Catholic Settlement Agreement.

3.4.3 Within 60 days of this Agreement coming into force, the Government and the Anglican Entities will agree on the amount of Compensation paid by the Anglican Entities between November 20, 2005 and the date this Agreement comes into force (the “transition period”). Within 60 days of such agreement, the Government will pay to the Corporation:

3.4.3.1 the amount of Compensation, not to exceed $2,200,000, paid by the Anglican Entities for Compensation between November 20, 2005 and the date of this Agreement coming into force, which amount will be irrevocably committed for funding of the AFHR and paid out in accordance with the terms of Schedule B; (the “Committed AFHR Amount”); and

3.4.3.2 the amount of Compensation paid by the Anglican Entities between November 20, 2005 and the date of this Agreement coming into force, which exceeds $2,200,000.

3.4.4 No payments other than those provided for in Section 3.4.3 (a) and (b) are required to be paid by the Government to the Anglican Entities to give effect to Section 8.1 of the Anglican Settlement Agreement under any circumstances.

3.4.5 The final amounts which the Anglican Entities are required to contribute to the AFHR based on the matching 19.8572 percent of the amount raised under the Catholic Settlement Agreement over the period determined in accordance with Section 3.4.1 (the “Matching AFHR Funds”) will be calculated as follows:

3.4.5.1 the Matching AFHR Funds will be first applied to reduce the Committed AFHR Amount until such amount is reduced to zero;

3.4.5.2 the amount by which the Matching AFHR Funds exceed the Committed AFHR Amount will be paid annually from the Settlement Fund into the AFHR during the period of the Catholic fundraising campaign;

3.4.5.3 at the end of the Catholic’s best efforts fundraising campaign obligation, $4,964,300 less the Committed AFHR Amount and the amount by which the Matching AFHR Funds exceed the Committed AFHR Amount will be no longer required to be held in the Settlement Fund and may be refunded to the Anglican Entities.

Funding and Distribution of Eligible In-Kind Services

3.5.1 The Anglican Entities will make eligible In-Kind Services contributions of not less than $4,023,675 over ten (10) years towards healing and reconciliation of former IRS students and their families and communities. The ten (10) year period commences on the day after this Agreement comes into force.

3.5.2 $4,023,675 is calculated by reducing the $4,964,300 matching Anglican commitment based on the $25,000,000 In-Kind Service under the Roman Catholic Settlement Agreement by the sum of $940,625, which represents the amount by which payments of $6,699,125 for Compensation by the Corporation as of November 20, 2005 exceeded the required Anglican amount of $5,758,500 proportionate to the $29,000,000 cash contribution under the Catholic Settlement Agreement.

3.5.3 Any or all of the In-Kind Services may be discharged by an irrevocable cash payment into the AFHR in addition to the commitment set out in Section 3.4.1, and the In-Kind Services shall be deemed to have been discharged to the extent of such payment. All such funds transferred from the In-Kind Service shall be expended in accordance with Schedule B.

3.5.4 The determination of qualifying In-Kind Services shall be made according to the provisions of Schedule B.

3.5.5 A minimum of $402,367 of In-Kind Services, or cash payments into AFHR shall be made in each year of the ten year period or until the contributions total $4,023,675, whichever comes earlier.

3.5.6 Any eligible In-Kind Service approved by the AFHR Committee under Schedule B will be subject to a verification process by the AFHR Committee to verify that the funds approved for such eligible In-Kind Services have been disbursed for the purposes approved.

3.5.7 On receiving verification from the AFHR Committee of the In-Kind Services provided in each twelve month period, the Government will advise the Corporation in writing that it may withdraw the equivalent amount from the Settlement Fund and refund it to the Anglican Entities on terms agreeable among themselves.

3.6 The Anglican Entities will provide documents to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in accordance with Schedule "D".

3.6A Each Anglican Entity will provide documents to the Government as required to assist with validation of applications for the Common Experience Payment (CEP) as that term is defined in the IRSSA.

3.7 Section 3.10 of the Anglican Settlement Agreement is amended by adding as instances of default a breach of any of the obligations under this agreement to pay money or provide In-Kind Services pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Section 3.10.1 and 3.10.2 are repealed as spent.

3.8 The Sections and Schedules of the IRSSA listed below and reproduced in Schedule E hereto are incorporated into and form part of this Agreement by this reference as fully as if contained in the body of this Agreement. The Sections and Schedules of the IRSSA incorporated by reference are: selected Definitions in 1.01, 4.01, 4.05, 4.06, 7.01(2), 7.01(3), 11.01, 11.02, 11.03, 13.02, 13.03, 13.10, 13.11, 15.01(3), Schedule D Appendices II page 19 (iii) (iv), III page 21 (i), IV page 23 (i) (vii), X pages 39 to 42 ,XI pages 43 and 44, Schedule N Article 10A(k), 10B (c) (f), 10D and Part 14 paragraph 3, Schedule P, all plus definitions from Section 1.01 of the IRSSA such as are necessary to give meaning and effect to the foregoing IRSSA Sections and Schedules.

PART IV IRS ABUSE CLAIMS RESOLUTION

4.1 Part II of the Anglican Settlement Agreement except for Sections 2.2.2, 2.2.3, 2.3, 2.5 and 2.18 is repealed and of no further force and effect. Sections 3.8, 3.10.1, 3.10.2, 4.1, 4.3, 4.4, 4.5.1, 4.6, 4.7 and 5.7.3 of the Anglican Settlement Agreement are also repealed and of no further force and effect. In addition:

4.1.1 Sections 4.8 and 4.9 thereof are amended to provide that the release and indemnity provisions come into effect when all monies required to have been paid into and out of the AFHR and Settlement Fund have been so paid in accordance with this Agreement, including where In-Kind Services required by this Agreement have been provided.

4.1.2 The remaining provisions of Parts II, IV and V are deemed to be amended to give full force and effect to this Part.

4.2 As long as there is a prospect of settling a claim solely on the basis of the allegations which fall within the definition of an IRS Abuse Claim, it is to be treated as such for the purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding the fact that claims arising from alleged loss or diminution of aboriginal language or culture or other claims falling outside the definition are also being made.

4.3 In the case of a claim being resolved through the IAP or the DRM, the Anglican Entities' rights to participate are as set out therein.

4.4 The Government will participate in and may conclude negotiations to determine the amount of Compensation in any settlement of an IRS Abuse Claim or claim arising under the IAP on terms acceptable to the Government and the Claimant without recourse to the Anglican Entities.

4.4.1 Where an Anglican Entity which had a presence at an IRS or in whose territorial jurisdiction an IRS operated advises the Government in writing that it wishes to be consulted before the Government settles an IAP claim from such IRS without holding a hearing, the Government will so consult provided that the Anglican Entity engages in such consultation within an interval of no more than one week from notification by the Government of its intent.

4.5 Where a trial is held in a matter arising under the IAP, neither the Government nor the Anglican Entities will rely upon the defence of limitations of the doctrine of laches or other defence not going to the merits.

4.6 The Government will in a timely manner provide an Anglican Entity or its designated representative with copies of IRS Statements of Claim served on the Government and copies of Notices of Examinations it serves on IRS Claimants concerning claims from an IRS where the Anglican Entity had a presence or where the IRS operated within its territorial jurisdiction in order to facilitate informed decisions about potential participation by the Anglican Entity.

4.6.1 An Anglican Entity may, by notice in writing to the Government, request that copies of the above documents not be forwarded to it either generally or in certain classes of cases and the Government will respect that request except in such cases where it requires the cooperation of the Anglican Entity to resolve the claim.

4.7 Where IRS Abuse Claims are being advanced in litigation, the Government and the Anglican Entities will each notify the other of any settlement overtures from claimants, and will work together to develop a joint position for settlement discussions and, if necessary, for trial.

4.7.1 The Anglican Entities, or any of them, may relieve the Government of the obligations in Section 4.7, as it applies to them, by written notice to the Government.

4.8 Where an IRS Abuse Claim is based on intentional torts arising prior to May 14, 1953, the Government will assert immunity if the matter proceeds to trial and will play no role in the defence after a court finds such immunity. The Government will provide written notice of its intention to each Anglican Entity which is a party to these claims not later than 120 days before the start of such trial, and such Anglican Entity will defend the claims or otherwise settle them.

4.8.1 The Government agrees to wholly indemnify the Anglican Entity for all Compensation paid to a Claimant pursuant to this Section or Section 4.2 of the Anglican Settlement Agreement; and

4.8.2 The Government will further indemnify the Anglican Entity for legal fees and expenses incurred by the Anglican Entity in defending an IRS Abuse Claim based on an intentional tort arising prior to May 14, 1953 for the period of time from and after a court has dismissed the claim against the Government based on Crown immunity to the resolution of the claim. The indemnification will be in an amount as agreed between the Government and Anglican Entity, or as determined in accordance with Part VII of the Anglican Settlement Agreement. In the event of resort to Part VII the parties and any Mediator appointed under Section 7.6 of the Anglican Settlement Agreement, shall have regard to the rules, principles and caselaw that would apply in the taxation of a solicitor and own client account in the province or territory where the claim was brought.

4.9 Where an Anglican Entity receives from the IAP Secretariat a copy of a Claimant's IAP application or receives from the Government a copy of an application to the DRM, the Anglican Entity agrees to be bound by trust conditions imposed on it with respect to confidentiality or, if it does not so agree in one or more instances, to return the document(s) without copying, reading or making use of it in any way.

4.10 In IAP, where an Anglican Entity elects not to participate in the validation, resolution or defence of IRS Abuse Claims to the extent the following provisions do not conflict with Appendix III of the IAP, then the Government will:

4.10.1 Provided a witness statement is submitted in advance, or the individual provides a full interview to the Government, the Government will pay the reasonable travel and accommodation costs of a member, employee or former employee of a Anglican Entity to appear at a DRM or an IAP hearing. In other proceedings involving IRS Abuse Claims, the Government will only be responsible for any expense related to the participation of the member, employee or former employee of an Anglican Entity where the Government requires the participation of such member, employee or former employee; and

4.10.2 The Government will participate in and may conclude negotiations to determine the amount of Compensation in any settlement.

4.11 Releases by Class Members, Cloud Class Members and Non-resident Claimants are as provided for in the IRSSA, specifically Articles 4.06, 11.01, 11.02 and Schedule P, and the Approval Orders. As part of any resolution of a claim brought by any person not bound by the IRSSA arising out of or in relation to an Indian Residential School or the operation generally of Indian Residential Schools, the Government will concurrently secure from the claimant a dismissal of the claim and release for itself and the Church from any and all past, present and future claims, whether or not now known to or existing at law, arising from or connected to, directly or indirectly, an Indian Residential School.

4.11.1 The release by a person not bound by the IRSSA shall be in the form attached as Schedule C.

1. Introduction

The “Notice Plan” (or the “Plan”) that follows outlines the dissemination efforts that will be undertaken to provide adequate notice to Class members in the In re Residential Schools Class Action Litigation, including notification of the Hearings (Phase I) and notification of the Opt-Out/Claims process (Phase II). The Plan is based on meeting key objectives, uses extensive and appropriate prior class action notice experience, and is supported by industry standard research tools and data.

Hilsoft Notifications has designed this Notice Plan with valuable input from Aboriginal people and groups, lawyers for the parties, the NCC, the Government, and with direction from the Courts. Hilsoft Notifications’ President, Todd B. Hilsee, has been recognized as a class action notice expert by many U.S. and Canadian judges, and has specific experience designing and implementing large-scale consumer class action notice plans. Hilsee, together with key Hilsoft Notifications’ principals, Barbara A. Coyle, Executive Vice President, Gina M. Intrepido, V.P./Media Director, and Shannon R. Wheatman, Ph. D., V.P./Notice Director, have designed the Plan and notices, and with Carla A. Peak, Notice Manager, will personally oversee implementation through completion.

Hilsoft Notifications has disseminated class action notices in more than 220 major cases, in more than 209 countries and 52 languages. Judges, including in published decisions, and including in Canada, have recognized the importance of the reach calculation methodology Hilsoft Notifications brought from the advertising industry. Courts, including Canadian courts, have previously approved this type of plan, the notice techniques it employs, and the delivery it achieves in terms of the high percentage of Class members reached. Hilsoft Notifications’ plans have always withstood collateral review and appellate challenge.

Hilsoft Notifications wrote and designed all of the notice documents (the “Notice” or “Notices”) in conjunction with the NCC and with much input from former students and community leaders. These Notices follow the highest modern principles in the illustrative notices that Hilsoft wrote and designed for the U.S. Federal Judicial Center (“FJC”), now at www.fjc.gov, at the request of the Advisory Committee on Civil Rules of the Judicial Conference of the United States. Canadian courts have recognized the importance of well designed notices to best communicate with Class members. Hilsoft Notifications’ c.v., including judicial comments recognizing notice expertise, is attached as Schedule 1.

2. Background/Overview

- Aboriginal Groups. Aboriginal people of Canada is the term used to refer to the First Nations, Inuit, and Métis collectively. First Nations is a term of ethnicity used in Canada that has widely replaced the use of the word “Indian.” It refers to Indigenous peoples of North America located in what is now Canada, and their descendants, who are not Inuit or Métis. Both the Canadian Census and Siggner & Associates research and data refer to the term “Native American Indian” or “NAI”; however, for the purpose of this Notice Plan, the term First Nations will be used in its place.
- Residential Schools. The federal government began to play a role in the development and administration of the residential school system for Aboriginal children as early as 1874. The Government of Canada operated nearly every school as a “joint venture” with various religious organizations until 1969, when the federal government assumed total responsibility for the schools. In many instances, church organizations remained actively involved.

The schools were located in every province and territory, except Newfoundland, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island, although the highest concentration of schools was in British Columbia, the Prairies, and the North. Most of the federally run residential schools closed by the mid-1970’s, with a small number remaining open through the 1980’s. The last federally run residential school in Canada closed in 1996.

Aboriginal children were often separated from their families and communities to attend these schools. While not all children had negative experiences at these schools, incidents of physical and sexual abuse have been cited by many former students. Legal claims also allege breach of treaty, loss of education opportunity, forcible confinement and poor conditions at the schools. In addition, because a key objective of the residential school system was the assimilation of Aboriginal children, legal claims allege that the system contributed to a loss of language and culture among Aboriginal people.

As a result, the proposed settlement has been reached.

Note: Among various groups involved in the settlement there are differing views on use of the term “Indian” in connection with the schools. While this term does not apply to Métis and Inuit, the government refers to the schools as “Indian” residential schools, and it is also preferred by First Nations. The settlement agreement is styled the Indian residential schools settlement. The case, on the other hand is named “In re Residential Schools Class Action Litigation.” Accordingly, the Notice Plan and Notices employ the word Indian when referring to the settlement itself, with some practical exceptions (short word length and broad understanding necessary in headlines), but elsewhere use the simpler and still recognizable term understood by all, by referring to the schools as simply “residential schools.”

- Notice Programme. There will be two phases of notice in connection with the Indian Residential Schools Settlement: Phase I publicizes the “Hearing Notice” while Phase II disseminates the “Opt Out/Claims Notice.”

Phase I - “Hearing Notice”

- Provides effective notice coverage to affected people residing both on reserve or within another Aboriginal community or settlement, as well as within the general population.
- Notice message announces the proposed settlement, hearing dates and locations, how to obtain additional information, and how to object, if desired.

Phase II - “Opt Out/Claims Notice”

- Consists of more extensive notice coverage than Phase I, to ensure the most effective reach practicable among those affected prior to the final opt-out deadlines and in conjunction with the launch of registration for a claim form.
- Notice message announces the settlement approval and outlines: the settlement and its benefits, the ability to exercise legal rights including opt-out procedures and deadlines for opting out; and how to obtain additional information necessary to make a claim when claim forms become available.

In both Phase I and Phase II, communications will be produced in languages appropriate to each media vehicle. Multiple languages will be used in some vehicles.

3. Plan Summary

- Objective. Notify the greatest practicable number of former residential school students and their family members, and provide them with opportunities to see, read, or hear notice, understand their rights, and respond if they choose.
- Situation Analysis. The following factors helped us determine the dissemination methods needed to achieve an effective notice effort:
 1. There were an estimated 78,994 residential school former students alive as of 2006,¹ all of whom are Aboriginal.
 2. People affected include all three Aboriginal groups: First Nations, Métis and Inuit.
 3. People affected are located throughout Canada, including on reserve and within other Aboriginal communities/settlements, as well as within the general population.
 4. Those residing outside of an Aboriginal community are located in both rural and urban areas.
 5. A small percentage of affected people are in correctional institutions or reside outside of Canada.
 6. A partial list of people known to be affected is available (reaching at least 25% of former students).
 7. Notice materials must be provided in languages appropriate for communicating with those affected (i.e., English, French, and various key Aboriginal languages).
- Target Audience. The Notice Plan must reach former students of the residential school system, and family members who have rights under the settlement. This includes people from First Nations, Inuit, Inuvialuit, and Métis communities, or any other former student.

Recognizing that many former students are now older (e.g., 45+), using available research data we have calculated the reach among the broader population of potential Class members, i.e., Aboriginal people 25 years of age and older (25+), because their demographic profile and media usage closely represent those of all potential Class members and it ensures the greatest certainty of a broad reach of all groups included in the settlement, including family members, and those former students who were young when the last schools closed. At the same time, our media programme selection will ensure that the older segments are adequately reached, as well as the overall 25+ Aboriginal population.

- Strategies. The notice effort consists of a combination of mailings and paid media placements in Aboriginal media, including television, radio, and publications. To build reach, media placements will appear in mainstream newspapers within the top Aboriginal population Census Metropolitan Areas (“CMAs”) and Census Agglomerations (“CAs”), and, in Phase II only, on mainstream television. Coverage will be further enhanced by organizational mailings/emailings/faxes, and community outreach (in-person distribution of Notice) in Phase II, as well as a neutral informational news release and a website and call centre where Notices may be accessed, questions answered, and where individuals can register to receive claim forms when they are ready.
- Delivery. Combined, the notice efforts will reach at least 91.1% of Aboriginal people 25+, and therefore a similar percentage of both former students and family members, an average of 6.3 times throughout the Phase I and Phase II programmes. Phase I activity alone will reach approximately 65.7% of Aboriginal people aged 25+ an average of 1.8 times and Phase II, 90.8% an average of 5.1 times.² Aboriginal television, Aboriginal radio, organizational and community outreach, the informational news release, and website efforts will further increase the reach and exposure among those affected. This reach is consistent with other effective notice programmes, is the best notice practicable, and meets all legal requirements.

The programme takes into account the older skew of former students, and, although incalculable because of the lack of precise data, our media selection and programming choices are designed to ensure that the reach among the former student Class members is consistent with, if not greater than, the reach among the broader group of the 25+ population that includes them and all family members.

- Notice Tactics. The following notice tactics have been selected to best reach ² Reach calculations do not include unmeasured Aboriginal radio and Aboriginal viewers of Aboriginal TV, and do not include individual notice that may be achieved by organizations delivering to populations, or grass-roots outreach efforts. All of these efforts will be closely monitored and, if possible, calculated and reported to the Courts with a final report affidavit, providing the best and most conservative calculation of the total reach of the notice programmes.

those included in the settlement:

1. Individual Mailings. A personal letter to known Class members, along with the appropriate Summary Notice and Detailed Notice, and an Opt Out Form (Phase II), will be mailed to numerous lists from the Assembly of First Nations (AFN), Inuit, lawyer, and government databases of Class members. The Phase II mailing will also include those who have come forward and provided their contact information during Phase 1.

The Summary Notice will also be mailed to all addresses in the three northern territories of Nunavut, Northwest and Yukon.

2. Organizational Mailings/Emailings/Faxes. First Nation Offices and other community organizations such as Friendship Centres and Aboriginal agencies and organizations, will be contacted and asked for voluntary assistance to make notices available to Class members, by distributing them or posting them for public viewing, publishing the Notice in any newsletters they have, or including a link on their websites, if any.

The appropriate Summary Notice and Detailed Notice (Phase I or Phase II) will also be mailed to all federal and penal institutions, where some former residential school students are located.

3. Aboriginal Television: 30-second units in English and 60-second units (longer length to accommodate translations) in French will appear on the national Aboriginal television network — Aboriginal Peoples Television Network (“APTN”). Various Aboriginal language units will also appear, in 30 or 60-second formats, depending on the language.

- Phase I: Approximately 100 spots will air, over two weeks.
- Phase II: Approximately 180 spots will air, over three weeks.

4. Aboriginal Radio. 60-second units will be placed on approximately 90 Aboriginal stations. Aboriginal and French language stations will air the Notice in the language(s) appropriate for their station.

- Phase I: Approximately 40 spots per station will air, over two weeks.
- Phase II: Approximately 60 spots per station will air, over three weeks.

5. Aboriginal Publications. A full page Summary Notice will appear in approximately 36 Aboriginal publications for both Phase I and Phase II. In bilingual publications, Notice will appear in both English (or French) and the appropriate Native language(s). The actual number of publications used for each Phase will depend upon approval dates in relation to publication issuance dates and advertising deadlines.

6. Mainstream Newspapers. To extend reach, particularly among affected people living outside of an Aboriginal community, both the Phase I and Phase II Summary Notice will appear two times in 31 daily mainstream newspapers. These papers circulate in the top 19 Aboriginal population CMAs/CAs, plus the Québec CMA. Four local newspapers with distribution in areas with a high concentration of Aboriginal people and former students will also carry both Notices two times. An approximate 1/3 page Summary Notice will be placed in the broadsheet newspapers and an approximate 3/4 page in the tabloid papers. A French version of the Notice will appear in the French language newspapers.
7. Mainstream Television (Phase II ONLY). 30-second units in English and 60-second units (longer length to accommodate translations) in French will appear on national and regional television networks.³ A variety of programmes and dayparts will be used. Programme selection will emphasize the need to reach older former students.
 - Approximately 100 Adult 25+ GRPs (gross rating points)⁴ will be sought per week over three weeks on the English networks.
 - Approximately 50 Adult 25+ GRPs will be sought per week over three weeks on the French networks.
8. Informational News Release. A party-neutral, Court-approved informational news release will be issued to the press (e.g., newspapers, news magazines), as well as Aboriginal organizations, agencies, and the AFN, for publication in its newsletter.
9. Internet Activities. For those who have access to the Internet, a neutral and informational website with an easy to remember domain name www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca will be available where affected people can obtain notice documents, and interact and correspond with administrators. Notice documents will be available in English, French, and Inuktitut.
10. Community Outreach. Efforts in Phase II will include community visits in which the main objective will be to achieve personal distribution of notice to as many former students and families of former students as reasonably possible to achieve.

³ Television network and programme selections will be made at the discretion of the media planner.

11. Response Handling. A response handling administrator will oversee a toll-free call center where callers can get questions answered, or request more information. The administrator will keep databases of responses, as well as track, record, transcribe and channel objections to the parties and the Courts. Callers will have access to English, French, and Aboriginal language speakers as needed. The phone line will also link to the Government's residential schools emotional crisis hotline. The administrator will also dovetail with our website activities by administering interactive response-handling aspects of the website, as well as post various legal documents on an ongoing basis.

- Message Content. The proposed Notices have all been designed to provide a clear, concise, plain language statement of affected people's legal rights and options. Summary Notices are simple but substantive roadmaps to all the key information. Broadcast Notices will air on television and radio stations, highlighting the appropriate message (Phase I: the hearings and ability to object; Phase II: the "stay in/opt out" message) and inviting response. Detailed Notices make even more facts available in an easy "Q&A" format. The Informational News Release will highlight key information through multiple channels of distribution. Drafts of all the Notices are entirely consistent with state-of-the-art "noticeable" plain language models, and are attached as Schedule 2.
- Language. Mailed notice packages will be created in English, French and Inuktitut. The Summary Notices for mainstream publications will be in English and French. Aboriginal publications and Broadcast Notices for Aboriginal television and radio will be produced in English, French, and the native language(s) appropriate to each media vehicle (if the publication is available at time of placement). These languages include:

Publications:

- English
- French
- Inuktitut
- Innuinaqtun
- Siglit

- Oji-Cree

Radio:

- English
- French
- Inuktitut
- Cree
- Déné (various dialects, such as Gwich'in and Dogrib)
- Ojibway
- Innu
- Atikamekw

Television:

- English, French, and Native languages appropriate to selected Native language programs, including Inuktitut, Innu, and Cree.

All the elements of the mailing packages (Envelope, Cover Letter, Summary Notice, and Detailed Notice) will be produced in English, French, and Inuktitut. The Informational News Release will be issued in English, French, and Inuktitut. Callers to the 800 number will be able to speak with operators in English, French, and various Aboriginal languages. The website will appear in English, French, and Inuktitut.

4. Notice Schedule Flow Chart – Phase I

Significant communication events within the overall notice programme.

The flow chart below shows a hypothetical schedule for Phase I of the Indian residential schools settlement notice programme. The actual schedule will allow approximately 60 days from the first notice appearance. The appearances of the individual notices and media placements may vary within the notice period. The notice appearances may extend beyond week 6, leading up to the objection date.

6. Methodology

def: Tools and data trusted by the communications industry and courts.

In developing the Notice Plan, we used tools and data sources that are commonly employed by experts in the communications field. These include Print Measurement Bureau (“PMB”)⁵ and Mediamark Research, Inc. (“MRI”)⁶ data, which provide statistically significant readership, demographic and product usage data; Audit Bureau of Circulations (“ABC”)⁷ statements, which certify publication circulation numbers; and BBM⁸ research, which measures television audiences.

These tools, along with demographic breakdowns indicating how many people use each media vehicle, as well as computer software and our industry-standard calculations that take the underlying data and factor out the duplication among audiences of various media vehicles, allow us to determine the net (unduplicated) reach of a particular media schedule. We combine the results of this analysis with our experience and the well-recognized standards of media planning, in order to help determine notice plan sufficiency and effectiveness.

Virtually all of North America’s largest advertising agency media departments utilize, scrutinize, and rely upon such independent, time-tested data and tools, including net reach, de-duplication analysis methodologies, and average frequency of exposure, to guide the billions of dollars of advertising placements that we see today, providing assurance that these figures are not overstated.⁹ These analyses and similar planning tools have become standard analytical tools for evaluations of notice programmes, and have been regularly accepted by courts.

⁶ MRI is the leading source of publication readership and product usage data for the communications industry in the US. MRI offers comprehensive demographic, lifestyle, product usage and exposure to all forms of advertising media collected from a single sample.

⁹ Net Reach is defined as the percentage of a class who was exposed to a notice, net of any duplication among people who may have been exposed more than once. Average Frequency is the average number of times each different person reached will have the opportunity to view a vehicle containing a notice placement.

7. Target Audience

def: The demographics of the people included in the settlement, including but not limited to, the persons most likely to be affected.

An effective notice plan must be guided by a careful and thorough study of demographics, as this more than anything guides necessary media selection and usage in notice campaigns. Based on the research outlined below, the following characteristics best describe those included in the settlement:

- Reside throughout Canada, but with a likely concentration in the west.
- Age 25+, with an emphasis on 45+.
- Almost an equal distribution between those living within reserves or Aboriginal communities/settlements as those living outside of them.
- Affected people living outside of a reserve or Aboriginal community/settlement are more likely to live in urban locations (72%) vs. rural areas (28%).
- More than 90% of the entire Aboriginal population speaks English; approximately 5% speak French; and about 7% speak in their Native language only. Certainly, Class members who are older than the Aboriginal population as a whole rely more on Aboriginal languages, at least in spoken form.
- Likely mirror the overall Aboriginal population on other measures, i.e., tend to be less educated, have lower income and higher unemployment levels, and are more mobile than Canada's general population.
- Population/Size of former student group. Based on the 2001 Canadian Census, there were 976,305 people in Canada who identify themselves as Aboriginal, including 608,850 people of First Nations, 292,310 Métis, and 45,070 Inuit.¹⁰ Canada's Aboriginal Identity population comprises 3.3% of Canada's total population of 29,639,030.

Research prepared by Siggner & Associates Inc.¹¹ estimated the 2001 Aboriginal former residential school attendee ("RSA") population aged 15 and over to be 83,695. Due to mortality of the already-born and aging population, the number was estimated to be 78,994 in 2006. The majority of former students are First Nation members.

¹¹ The 1991 and 2001 Aboriginal Peoples Surveys, 2001 Census data, and other data sources were used in preparing the research.

RSA Groups	2001		2006
First Nations	67,915	81.1%	64,111	81.2%
Métis	6,879	8.2%	6,464	8.2%
Inuit	3,619	4.3%	3,448	4.4%
Aboriginal Origins Only	3,346	4.0%	3,144	4.0%
Inmates	877	1.0%	855	1.1%
Outside Canada	1,059	1.3%	973	1.2%
Total	83,695	100.0%	78,994	100.0%

- Former students’ residence on reserve and within other Aboriginal communities/settlements. Based on Siggner data, the largest percentage of RSA’s is comprised of on reserve First Nation members (52.7%). In fact, there are approximately 630 First Nations in Canada. However, more than 40% of the remaining RSA’s reside outside of a reserve or Aboriginal community/settlement, including 22,470 off reserve First Nation members (or 28.4% of former students) and nearly all of the Métis and “Aboriginal Origins Only” former students.
- Age of former students. Most of the federally run residential schools closed by the mid-1970’s, with a small number remaining open through the 1980’s. The last federally run residential school in Canada closed in 1996. Based on this, the vast majority of former students are 25+, with an emphasis among 35+ years of age. According to the Siggner report, approximately 17% of RSA’s are older than 65.
- Geographic location of former students. Because the residential schools were located in nearly every province and territory of Canada and former students are not necessarily living in the same area where they attended a residential school, former students can be residing throughout Canada.

The following provides demographic trends among the Aboriginal population regarding employment, education, income, language, geography, and mobility, based on 2001 Census data:

- Employment. Unemployment was higher among the Aboriginal population — the unemployment rate for the Aboriginal population was 19.1%, compared to 7.1% for the non-Aboriginal population. The unemployment rate was highest for First Nations and Inuit, both at 22.2%, while the unemployment rate for Métis was 14%.

- Education. While nearly 16% of non-Aboriginal Canadians were university graduates, only 4.4% of Aboriginal people had a university degree. Nearly one half (48%) of the Aboriginal population did not graduate high school, compared to only 30.8% of the non-Aboriginal population. Education levels were much lower among Aboriginal people 65 years of age or older, 78.9% of whom did not graduate high school.
- Income. The average income level among Aboriginal people was 36% lower than that of the non-Aboriginal population. Additionally, the incidence of low income in 2000 was substantially higher among the Aboriginal population compared to the non-Aboriginal population: 31.2% of the Aboriginal “family” population and 55.9% of “unattached” Aboriginal people, versus 12.4% and 37.6% of non-Aboriginal people, respectively.
- Language. A total of 235,075 individuals, or 24% of the Aboriginal Identity population, reported that they had enough knowledge of an Aboriginal language to carry on a conversation. The strongest enclaves of Aboriginal language speakers are in the North and living on reserve or within an Aboriginal community/settlement. English is spoken by more than 90% of the Aboriginal population, while French is spoken by approximately 5%. Approximately 7% of the Aboriginal population speaks only their Native language.

There are between 53 and 70 Aboriginal languages in Canada, with Cree, Inuktitut, and Ojibway being the three strongest.

- Geography. According to the 2001 Census, Canada's most populous province, Ontario, had 188,315 Aboriginal people, the highest absolute number, followed by British Columbia with 170,025. There are currently over 600 First Nations in Canada, of which nearly half are located in the provinces of Ontario or British Columbia.

The highest concentration of Aboriginal population was in the North and on the Prairies. The 22,720 Aboriginal people in Nunavut represent 85.2% of the territory's total population, the highest concentration in the country. Aboriginal people represented more than half (50.5%) of the population in the Northwest Territories, and almost one quarter (22.9%) of the population in the Yukon.

Census data also shows slow, but steady growth among Aboriginal people residing in the nation's cities. In 2001, almost half of the population who identified themselves as Aboriginal (49.1%) lived in urban areas, up from 47% in 1996. At the same time, the proportion of Aboriginal people who lived on reserve and within an Aboriginal community/settlement declined from 32.7% to 31.4%.

One quarter of the Aboriginal population lived in ten metropolitan areas. In fact, in 2001, a total of 245,000 or 25.1% of Aboriginal people lived in ten of the nation's 27 CMAs. Winnipeg had the greatest number, followed by Edmonton, Vancouver, Calgary, Toronto, Saskatoon, Regina, Ottawa-Hull (now known as Ottawa-Gatineau), Prince Albert, and Montreal. The highest concentration was in the CMA of Prince Albert, whose 11,640 Aboriginal people accounted for 29.2% of its population.

The following provides additional information and geographic details for each of the three Aboriginal Identity populations:

First Nations:

- Total population was 608,805 or 62% of the Aboriginal Identity population.

- 22% reported residing in Ontario, 19% in British Columbia, and 43% in the three Prairie Provinces of Manitoba (15%), Alberta (14%), and Saskatchewan (14%).
- Of the 53% living off reserve, 78% lived in urban centres and 22% lived in rural locations.
- Winnipeg had the largest population (22,955), followed by Vancouver (22,700), Edmonton (18,260), Toronto (13,785), and Saskatoon (11,290).

Métis:

- Total population was 292,310 or 30% of the Aboriginal Identity population, an increase of 43% from five years earlier, making it the largest population gain of the three Aboriginal groups.
- Largest reported population lived in Alberta (66,055 or 23%), followed by Manitoba (56,795 or 19%), Ontario (48,345 or almost 17%), British Columbia (44,265 or 15%), and Saskatchewan (43,695 or 15%).
- Of the 97% who lived outside of an Aboriginal community/settlement, 70% lived in urban centres and 30% lived in rural areas.
- The five CMAS with the largest population were: Winnipeg (31,395), Edmonton (21,065), Vancouver (12,505), Calgary (10,575), and Saskatoon (8,305), for a combined total of 29% of the Métis population.

Inuit:

- Total population was 45,070 or 5% of the Aboriginal Identity population.
 - Half of the population lived in Nunavut (22,560 or 50%), with Québec at a distant second (9,535 or 21.2%), followed by Newfoundland and Labrador (4,555 or 10.1%), and Northwest Territories (3,905 or 8.7%).
 - Inuit represented 85% of Nunavut's total population.
 - The five communities with the largest population were: Iqaluit (3,010), Arviat (1,785), Rankin Inlet (1,680), Kuujjuaq (1,540), and Baker Lake (1,405).
 - Inuit represented 94.2% of Arviat's total population, 93.0% of Baker Lake's, 80.2% of Kuujjuaq's, 77.6% of Rankin Inlet's, and 57.9% of Iqaluit's.
 - Inuktitut language remains strong — 70.7% reported an ability to carry on a conversation in Inuktitut and 65.0% reported speaking it at least regularly in their home.
- Mobility. Aboriginal people are more mobile than other Canadians. Overall, in the 12 months before the May 15, 2001 Census, 22% of Aboriginal people moved compared with only 14% of their non-Aboriginal counterparts. About two thirds of those who moved did so within the same community, while about one third of movers changed communities.

Net migration among Aboriginal people was greatest for the rural, non-reserve parts of the nation as compared with net movements for the reserves/communities/settlements or urban areas. During this period, the rural (non-reserve) areas of Canada incurred a net loss of 1.8% due to migration, while there was a net gain of 1.1% to the reserves/communities/settlements, and 0.4% to the CMAs. This pattern of small net increases in movement to the reserves/communities/settlements and larger urban centres has been an observed trend since 1981.

8. Media Selection

def: The media vehicles that will best reach affected people in this particular notice programme.

In addition to individual mailings and organizational and community outreach, a combination of paid notice placements in Aboriginal television, radio, publications, mainstream newspapers and, in Phase II, mainstream television, has been selected to deliver the message to Class members. We have reviewed the merits of all forms of media for this case by comparing alternate schedules.

Based on our analysis, our selection of media allows:

- Documented audience data guaranteeing reach among Aboriginal people.
- Multiple opportunities for Aboriginal people to see the messages.
- The airing of attention-getting and impactful television spots that will present information to Aboriginal people through TV, their number one source of information.
- Ability to reach Aboriginal people through notice airings on targeted Aboriginal television.
- Notice placements in Aboriginal publications, whose distribution includes approximately 630 First Nations, Métis settlements, Inuit communities, Friendship Centres, and various Aboriginal organizations.
- Notice placements in mainstream newspapers in areas with high Aboriginal populations, to extend reach particularly among those living outside of reserves and Aboriginal communities/settlements.
- Affected people to have a written record and the ability to refer back to the Notice, pass it on to others without distortion, and easily respond via the website or 800 number, which offers a connection to the government's crisis support line.
- Notice placements on Aboriginal radio, whose reach includes remote Aboriginal communities.

- Broad reach through mainstream television (Phase II only), including both English and French language networks/stations.
- An effective mix of media and frequency of notice providing affected people various opportunities throughout the notice period to see and react to the message.
- A “noticeable” Notice with arresting graphics and a bold headline to attract the attention of affected people.
- The broadest, most inclusive geographic coverage, ensuring that affected people are not excluded based on where they choose to live, i.e., whether they live within Aboriginal communities or not, in rural or urban areas.
- The most inclusive demographic coverage, ensuring that the broad target of Aboriginal people is effectively reached.

* The Notice Plan for Phase II will benefit by the additional names and addresses of Class members obtained as a result of Phase I notice efforts.

 Because much of the Aboriginal publication circulation is non-paid and/or not independently audited, we conservatively determined the total impressions for audience calculation purposes to be approximately 50% of the total circulation, and did not include possible pass-along readers.

This Plan achieves an effective reach among affected people as well as an opportunity for multiple exposures to notice. Although not quantifiable for purposes of determining the total net reach of the efforts, impressions achieved from the Aboriginal television and radio schedules, organizational and community outreach, informational news release, and website efforts will further add to the reach and frequency of exposure among those affected. Any possible calculations that accrue to the benefit of either net reach or average frequency of notice exposure will be reported to the Courts at the conclusion of the programmes.

¹² Reach calculations do not include unmeasured Aboriginal radio and Aboriginal viewers of Aboriginal TV, and do not include individual notice that may be achieved by organizations delivering to populations, or community outreach efforts. All of these efforts will be closely monitored and, if possible, calculated and reported to the Courts with a final report affidavit, providing the best and most conservative calculation of the total reach of the notice programmes.

10. Net Reach

def: Total different persons who are exposed to a media vehicle containing a notice stated as a percentage of the total.

We employ industry standard methodologies to factor out the duplicate persons reached by the different and overlapping audiences on a media schedule to yield total net persons reached. The results of the proposed notice programme are as follows:

Media	Phase I % of Aboriginal People 25+ Reached	Phase II % of Aboriginal People 25+ Reached	COMBINED % of Aboriginal People 25+ Reached
Mailings¹³	25.3%	50.6%	50.6%*
Aboriginal Publications	38.5%	38.5%	38.5%
Mainstream Newspapers	25.5%	25.5%	27.6%
Mainstream Television	n/a	73.1%	73.1%
COMBINED¹⁴	65.7%	90.8%	91.1%

*Effect of additional mailings for Phase II not incorporated into total combined reach until conclusion of program, and verification of the total net names available for mailings.

The reach percentage provided by the measured paid media alone indicates that the notice programme will be extensive, and highly appropriate for the circumstances of this case. Reach will be further enhanced by Aboriginal television, Aboriginal radio, organizational and community outreach, the informational news release, and website efforts. Reach estimates for the Aboriginal radio and Aboriginal television (among Aboriginal viewers) are not calculable due to the absence of measured audience data. Reach estimates for older former students (i.e., 45 years and older)

¹³ Does not include the additional Individual Notices that will be distributed to affected people by First Nations and other Aboriginal community/settlement offices and organizations, or distributed through community outreach efforts. Phase II mailing reach does not include additional reach that will be achieved by mailing to all those who come forward during Phase I. Reach achieved through mailings will be calculated in the final report.

¹⁴ Net of duplication between all efforts. Reach calculations do not include unmeasured Aboriginal radio and Aboriginal viewers of Aboriginal TV, and do not include individual notice that may be achieved by organizations delivering to populations, or community outreach efforts. All of these efforts will be closely monitored and, if possible, calculated and reported to the Courts with a final report affidavit, providing the best and most conservative calculation of the total reach of the notice programmes.

was also incalculable as a result of low sample sizes for media research data on that more narrow age group, however, an emphasis has been placed on selecting media that targets older people included in the settlement. By the nature of our media selection and programming choices, the reach among the older former student Class members is expected to be consistent with, if not greater than, the reach among the broader group of the 25+ population that includes them and other family members. The number of exposures resulting from the organizational and community outreach, the informational news release, and the website can and will be calculated as much as possible, at the time of our final report.

The audience data used to determine the results in the table above is the same data used by media professionals to guide the billions of dollars of advertising we see today. The statistics and sources we cite are uniformly relied upon in our field. ABC data has been relied on since 1914; 90-100% of media directors use reach and frequency planning¹⁵; all of the leading advertising and communications textbooks cite the need to use reach and frequency planning¹⁶; and a leading treatise says it must be used¹⁷: “In order to obtain this essential information, we must use the statistics known as reach and frequency.” Around the world, audience data has been used for years.¹⁸

Courts have recognized the merits of this quantification methodology, even when challenged, and leading notice professionals have adopted this model since our introduction of it to the class action notice field approximately 17 years ago. Numerous Canadian courts have previously approved the delivery this Plan achieves in terms of the number of affected people reached for a class action lawsuit.

11. Average Frequency of Exposure def: The exposures that will produce a positive change in awareness, attitude or action among those reached by a media schedule.

def: Average Frequency – average number of times that each different person reached will have the opportunity to view a vehicle containing a notice placement.

The Notice Plan is intended to provide affected people with the best practicable opportunity to see, read, and understand the Notice and their rights, so that they may respond if they so choose.

While this Notice Plan must rely upon modern-style, and audience-documented media coverage as reported herein, this Notice Plan provides a higher frequency of exposure than would a direct mail notice programme that sends one notice, one time, to a Class member.¹⁹ Each Aboriginal person 25+ reached will have an average of 1.8 exposure opportunities to the Notice during Phase I, 5.1 during Phase II, and 6.3 overall (Phase I and Phase II combined).²⁰

The frequency of exposure will be further enhanced by Aboriginal television, Aboriginal radio, organizational and community outreach, the informational news release, and website efforts.

While extra exposures are important for settlement messages, during Phase I there is no claims filing message, and affected people, while they have the right to be heard, are not required to take action to remain in the class. The important message comes from the Court and is designed to provide the Notice in an informative and understandable manner. Accordingly, the benefit of excessive message exposure frequency is reduced during Phase I.

On the other hand, the Phase II effort, providing not only notice of the opt-out right, but notice of the ability to come forward and register to take part in the claims filing process, demands additional frequency of notice exposure. This provides focused reminders to take the action needed to get the benefits being offered under a settlement. Well-established communication principles and methods support this premise. Therefore, the benefit of extra message exposure to the same person that results from the overlapping coverage provided by notice placements is very helpful during Phase II.

²⁰ In standard media terminology, “exposures” is defined as opened or read a publication containing a notice placement.

12. Geographic Coverage

def: Ensuring that affected people are not excluded simply because of where they live.

This notification effort takes steps to ensure fair and wide geographic coverage:

- Mailings will go to addresses of known Class members no matter where they may now reside.
- Aboriginal television (APTN) is available in nearly 100% of on reserve Aboriginal households, and 85% of households in the far North.
- Aboriginal radio, including broadcasts via satellite systems, extends reach and builds frequency to Aboriginal people throughout Canada, including those in remote areas.
- Aboriginal publications will provide coverage in all 13 provinces/territories.
- Mainstream newspapers include leading papers in the top 19 Aboriginal CMAs/CAs. Two of the newspapers have national distribution.
- Mainstream television will increase reach throughout Canada.
- The informational news release extends coverage throughout Canada.
- The Internet allows access to the Notice regardless of geography.

Accordingly, the Notice Plan focuses on reaching affected people regardless of where they choose to live.

13. Individual Mailings

def: Reaches affected people directly with notice by mail when current, accurate, and usable addresses are available from defendants or commercially available lists.

A personal letter identifying the known Class member along with a Summary Notice and Detailed Notice (and Opt Out Form in Phase II) will be mailed to Class members on lists provided by the AFN, the National Consortium, the Merchant Law Group, the Makivik Corporation, the Inuvialuit Regional Corporation, the Nunavut Tunngavik Incorporated (NTI), the Labrador Inuit Association, lawyers on the National Certification Committee and any other lawyers with Class member names and addresses, and to a government list of those participating in government lawsuits seeking IAP benefits.

The Government and the Churches, immediately after approval to proceed with Phase I and II, will provide up-to-date lists of all potential Class members and their lawyers who have lawsuits pending against them over residential schools.

In Phase I, mailings are expected to be sent to approximately 15,000 names on the AFN database and approximately 15,000 names on the attorney databases, providing an estimated 20,000 or more net names and addresses from the AFN and lawyer lists alone. In combination with the other lists noted above, the net number of addresses will likely be greater.

Based on additional names expected to be gleaned from Phase I notice efforts and databases being built up further (i.e., from callers and other responders who gave their names and addresses to the administrator), Phase II mailings are expected to be sent to approximately 37,000 names on the AFN database, and approximately 22,000 names on the attorney databases. Conservatively based calculations estimate at least 40,000 net names and addresses will result from the combined AFN and lawyer lists alone. It is quite probable that the Phase II net amount of addresses from all of the combined lists will be greater, increasing the overall reach achieved by individual mailings even further.

For Phase I and II, working through Canada Post, a Summary Notice will also be mailed to all 28,000 addresses in the three northern territories of Nunavut, Northwest and Yukon.

Information will be mailed in English and French. Addresses from the Inuit lists will receive notice materials in Inuktitut and English.

14. Organizational Mailings/Emailings/Faxes def: Reaching out to affected people through organizations with which they are affiliated.

The Notice Plan seeks to provide Aboriginal agencies and organizations that are in contact with affected people with information to pass on to Class members as they are able. The organizations will be asked to provide voluntary assistance in the distribution of Notices to potentially affected people they may regularly interface with, in a variety of ways.

A Notice will be faxed to First Nation offices alerting them to the settlement and attaching a Summary Notice for distribution, as they are able, or public posting for those who visit the office or other public spot on reserve. A Notice will also be faxed to publication editors and radio stations.

A basic notice package will be mailed to First Nation offices and other community/settlement offices, Friendship Centres, treatment and healing centers, IRS Survivors' Society/Branches, Métis organizations, and Inuit associations. The notice package will contain a letter from the Administrator, with a Summary and Detailed Notice. The letter will request voluntary assistance by distributing the Notices to Class members, posting the Notice in a public place where Class members may view it, publishing the Notice in any newsletters they may publish, or posting a link to the settlement website on any website the organization may host.

Email messages will be sent to addresses of Aboriginal organizations with active websites, asking for assistance by posting a link to the settlement website at their site.

The appropriate Summary Notice and Detailed Notice will also be mailed during Phase I and Phase II to all federal and penal institutions where former residential school students may be located. A DVD containing all six language variations of the Television Notice will be distributed to the federal penitentiaries for viewing. Additionally, Summary Notices will be provided to Service Canada for distribution to all permanent service centers and temporary outreach offices.

15. Aboriginal Television - APTN

def: The targeted television network in which notices will air.

Television is rated the number one source of information by 36% of Aboriginal people, higher than any other medium. APTN is the only national, Pan-Aboriginal media in Canada. According to APTN, it is available in nearly 100% of Aboriginal households on reserve, and 85% of Aboriginal households in the far North. Over half (56%) of APTN's programming is exclusive and cannot be seen on any other network.

Programming on APTN is available in a variety of languages:

- 60% English
- 15% French
- 25% in a variety of Aboriginal languages

The Notice will be produced as a 30-second unit for English programs, a 60-second unit for French programs (to accommodate the translation), and 30 or 60-second units for various Aboriginal language programs, depending on the length of the message after translation. The Notices will be developed using images along with a voice-over.

The schedule will include several dayparts to increase the Plan's ability to reach persons with different viewing habits. Programme selection will focus on the most popular programmes (News and Movies) and programmes targeting older segments of affected people, as well as Native Programmes which air in three different blocks each day. Sample programmes include:

Coverage is throughout Canada and includes more than 630 First Nations; Métis settlements; Inuit communities; Friendship Centres; Aboriginal businesses, schools and organizations; as well as various government and health agencies.

More readers than just those who purchase or otherwise receive circulated issues actually open and read a publication. Many secondary readers see the Notice away from home, for example: at a friend's house; at a doctor's office or health organization; at a Friendship Centre or other agency; passed around by co-workers at the place of employment; etc. Exposure in a different environment can increase attentiveness and response potential. It is also beneficial that readership tends to build over a period of time following the publication date. This is evidence that issues can be referred to at any time, thereby, providing readers with a longer, sustained opportunity to learn about the Notice.

Factoring in these additional readers, we estimate the total adult audience exposures to the Notices in these publications could be as much as 800,000 or more. However, because most of the circulation figures cited above are not independently audited and much of it is not "paid" circulation, we did not factor in pass-along readers or the full circulation figures in our reach calculations.

19. Mainstream Newspapers

def: The mainstream newspapers in which notices will appear.

The mainstream newspapers included in the Phase I and Phase II Notice Plans will increase reach particularly among affected people who do not reside on reserves or within other Aboriginal communities/settlements.

The Phase I and Phase II Plan includes two insertions in 31 daily mainstream newspapers, as well as two insertions in four community newspapers with distribution in heavily concentrated Aboriginal areas, for a total of 70 insertions. The daily newspapers selected circulate in the top 19 Aboriginal population CMAs/CAs, where approximately 45% of Canada's Aboriginal population residing outside of a reserve or Aboriginal community/settlement is located, plus two Québec CMA papers. An approximate 1/3 page Summary Notice will be placed in the broadsheet newspapers and an approximate 3/4 page in the tabloid newspapers.

21. Notice Positioning

def: Inserting notices in spots within the media that will help gain affected people's attention.

All notice placements in publications are not equal. Extra care can and will be taken to place the Notice in certain locations within each publication that give the best opportunity for high readership.

Positioning notice placements in the main news section will help ensure that over the course of the media schedule the greatest practicable number of affected people will see the Notice.

Regardless of positioning, the Notices are designed to be highly visible and noticeable. In Aboriginal publications, the Notices will appear as full page units. In mainstream newspapers, the Notices will generally appear as a 3/4 page unit in tabloids and 1/3 page units in broadsheet newspapers. Such page dominant units will enhance reader attention and comprehension.

22. Mainstream Television – Phase II

def: The television networks in which notices will air.

Mainstream television is a high reach medium providing exposure to affected people regardless of where they reside (i.e, within an Aboriginal community, a rural area, or an urban area). According to PMB data, Aboriginal people 25+ are 66% more likely to be heavy television viewers, as compared to the general Canadian 25+ population.

Networks considered include:

- CBC (English)
- CTV (English)
- Global Television (English)
- Radio-Canada (French CBC)
- TVA (French)
- Cable networks with high reach among Aboriginal people (e.g., Discovery Channel)

30-second units in English and 60-second units (longer length to accommodate translations) in French will appear on a variety of programmes and dayparts, with an emphasis placed on programmes targeting older former students.

Approximately 100 Adult 25+ GRPs (gross rating points) will be sought per week over three weeks on the English networks and 50 Adult 25+ GRPs will be sought per week over three weeks on the French networks.

The following provides an example of a television daypart mix:

Daypart	English A25+ GRPs	English GRP Allocation	French A25+ GRPs	French GRP Allocation

23. Informational News Release

def: Seeking non-paid (and other) exposure of court-approved notice information mainly by way of news articles.

Earned media activities (i.e., efforts to present a fair and neutral statement of the notice effort via an informational press release, not via paid advertising) will provide an important role and help get the word out through credible news sources about these important matters (the hearings schedule and, later, the opt-out process and time frame). Earned media efforts may also generate electronic media coverage.

During each Phase, a party-neutral, Court-approved informational news release will be issued to over 390 press outlets throughout Canada. A news release serves a potentially valuable role, providing additional notice exposure beyond that which will be provided through paid media. There is no guarantee that any news stories will result, but if they do, affected people will have additional opportunities to learn that their rights are at stake in credible news media, adding to their understanding.

In Phase II, the informational news release will be issued within one week of approval (or one week from the lift of the stay, whichever comes later) to kick-off the program. Currently this day is anticipated to be March 22, 2007. If possible, other press releases about the launch of Phase II that the various parties may seek to issue should be issued on that date or later, to maximize news interest in the launch of Phase II, on a date when produced Court-approved notices are ready at the website or available through the call centre.

A partial listing of the press outlets that will receive the informational news release is attached in Schedule 3.

24. Internet Activities

def: Delivery of notice via Internet and on-line services.

The use of the Internet is increasing among Aboriginal people and access to the Internet is increasing in Aboriginal communities that were previously unable to connect. According to PMB, Aboriginal people 12 years of age and older (“12+”) are 7% more likely to be heavy Internet users, as compared to the general Canadian 12+ population. Additionally, over half (53.8%) of Aboriginal people 12+ accessed the Internet/World Wide Web in the past month.²¹ We recognize the fact that the older segment of the Aboriginal population is likely not using the Internet as much as the younger segment. However, heavy Internet usage among the Aboriginal population is likely due to the fact that the Aboriginal population is younger in comparison to the general Canadian population and Internet usage is impacted by age. Regardless, it would be impracticable not to include an informational website in the programme.

On-line media tactics include:

- A neutral and informational website where affected people can obtain additional information about the proposed settlement, key dates, and key documents. The website will appear in English, French, and Inuktitut.
- A contact page allowing questions or comments from affected people to the administrator and allowing organizations to request notice materials for distribution to members of their communities.
- During Phase I, Class members can submit objections to the administrator through the website.
- During Phase II, the ability for affected people to register to receive a claim form in the mail when it is ready; and the ability to download an Opt Out Form.
- A website address prominently displayed in all notice materials.
- An easy to remember domain, such as www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca. The same name with an “s” on schools has been acquired and pointed to this site as added protection, and the .com versions have also been pointed to the site for further assurance that people will not miss the site if they don't write it down or type it correctly.

- Registering keywords with major search engines, e.g., Yahoo!, WebCrawler, AltaVista, in order to help the site appear at or near the top of search lists for many key words.
- Links will be sought on key websites, including Aboriginal organization sites, appropriate government sites, etc.

25. Community Outreach

def: In-person distribution of notice in the communities.

During Phase II, the Notice Plan will dovetail with grass-roots community outreach efforts that will be undertaken to provide the critical element of in-person distribution of Opt Out Notices to as many former students and families of former students as reasonably possible. These grass-root efforts, to be designed and undertaken chiefly by the AFN and various Inuit organizations, and possibly others, will provide additional notice exposure beyond that which will be provided through mailings and paid measurable media, and will allow for face-to-face explanations of the notices and answers to basic questions regarding the Settlement and Class members' rights and options.

The community outreach plans should include training to educate managers and on-the-ground agents of their responsibilities and role in disseminating the notices, including assuring that they clearly understand the settlement and the content of the notices.

Hilsoft Notifications will coordinate with the Government and organizations/individuals authorized to implement the community outreach programs (the "implementers"), to ensure that the programs will 1) effectively support and synchronize with this Notice Plan, and 2) provide quantitative data on Notice distribution that can be used in conjunction with our final report on the overall adequacy of notice. Specifically:

- The implementers should quantify and report on the number of notices distributed. The evaluation of the success of the community outreach for purposes of helping achieve the courts' notice plan requirements should be the net percentage of former students who receive notice through the community outreach efforts.
- All statistics reported by the implementers should distinguish, to the greatest extent possible, between former students and family members of former students.
- Implementers should track and record attendance and be sure each attendee receives a notice package.

- Implementers should arrange “group” community meetings whenever possible, so that visits to each community are most efficient, and the ability to cover more communities is thereby possible.
- Efforts should be geographically balanced. The outreach should be designed to be fair and not provide special treatment, for example, to those living in larger clusters.
- Hilsoft Notifications should personally attend initial training “kick off” meeting(s) with regional/provincial/territorial leaders (“field managers”) of the outreach efforts, to help present and explain the information in the Notices to them.
- Common questions received in the communities should be logged and reported regularly to the response handling administrator, through the lawyers, so the administrator can be attuned to them and can develop consistent answers. A designee of the administrator should be a contact point for the field managers who receive questions they do not know how to answer, so that the administrator can provide direction on how those questions are being treated at the call center. The administrator should, in turn, maintain and circulate to field managers “answers to common questions” scripts it has cleared with the lawyers, to cover anything that comes up at the call centre that requires information beyond which is handled in the Summary or Detailed Notice.
- The “agents” of the outreach programs should specifically instruct Class members that they are not able to accept Opt Out Forms directly. Opt Out Forms should be sent by Class members only directly to the administrator’s opt-out mailing address.
- Prior to the community outreach launch, the implementers should specify the quantities, by language, of Summary Notices, Detailed Notices, and Opt Out Forms that they will need so that they can be fulfilled by the administrator during the initial printing process and shipped to the requested locations. Language options for these documents include: English, French, and Inuktitut.
- Implementers do not need to track participation rates (i.e., claim form requests) or opt-out statistics. This data will be tracked by the notice administrator from the forms it will receive.

- Advertising and public service messages about the Settlement and Class members' options should not be part of the community outreach programs, as the Court-approved notices will be widely disseminated in virtually all local and national Aboriginal media and a wide array of general media (including mainstream television), thus any chance of conflicting messages will be avoided.

26. Notice Design Strategy

The Notices will be written and designed in such a manner as to motivate affected people to read and understand the message. The Notices carry a clear message outlining affected people's rights, in clear, concise plain language.

The design and content features are consistent with notices that have been approved by numerous courts, including Canadian courts.

The content and design features are consistent with the highest standards for the communication of legal rights to Class members around the world. They are consistent with the standards embodied in the illustrative "model" notices we wrote and designed for the U.S. Federal Judicial Center, at the request of the Advisory Committee on Civil Rules of the Judicial Conference of the United States, and which are posted at www.fjc.gov. Mr. Hilsee has testified to these standards as applicable across national boundaries and including before Canadian Courts. Indeed, Canadian Courts have recognized the importance of simple, clear, and well designed communications via notices.

- Bold headlines capture attention. The Notice headlines immediately alert even casual readers who may be included in the settlement that they should read the Notice and why it is important. The residential schools will be a recognizable reference to affected people, and the healing message will help readers engage with the Notices, and allows the Courts to communicate with affected people with a sensitive and respectful approach.
- Notice Size. The Notices will appear as full pages in Aboriginal publications, approximately 1/3 pages in mainstream broadsheet newspapers, and approximately 3/4 pages in tabloid sized mainstream newspapers. These page dominant sizes will allow the importance of the message to be obvious, and will ensure the Notices are noticed by even casual readers.
- Visual Approach TV and Print Media. The culturally relevant images of the Eagle feather, a symbol for healing, and that of a Qulliq being lit, which symbolizes light and the warmth of family and community, serve as interesting graphics for pure advertising utility, help set the Notices apart from other ads, and, even more importantly, set a respectful and sensitive tone for readers and viewers to approach Notices dealing with a difficult topic.

- Plain Language. Each of the Notices concisely and clearly state the information in plain, easily understandable language so that affected people can comprehend the Notices effectively.
- Notice design alerts readers as to legal significance, lending credibility. The Notice design ensures that readers know that the communication carries legitimate, important information about what action or steps they can take, and that it is not commercial advertising attempting to sell them something.
- Comprehensive. The comprehensive Summary Notice explains all critical information about affected people's rights. No key information is omitted. Those who choose to read only the Summary Notice will have done so with substantial knowledge about their rights and options. The Detailed Notice, which will be mailed and easily available to those who request it, will provide more information, but remains concise and clear, and thereby easy to interact with and read. The use of the Summary Notice for mailing is based on the readership advantages known to be derived from providing simple, clear and concise notices, consistent with the highest modern standards for notices, together with communications experience identifying that such messages are better read and attended to.
- Prominent website and 800 number. The Notice invites response by providing simple, convenient mechanisms for affected people to obtain additional information, if desired. The 800 number offers a connection to a government emotional support line.
- French/Aboriginal Translation. Notice materials will be translated to appropriate languages for placement in media, carrying plain language goals through these other languages as well.

27. Draft Forms of Notice

Schedule 2 of this Notice Plan contains draft forms of all Phase II Notices:

- Letters that will be sent to individuals known to be affected, and their lawyers, together with attached Notices, as well as to organizations asking for their assistance in distributing the Notices.
- The Outside Mailing Envelope showing how design and content will carefully ensure that recipients understand its relevance and importance.
- The Summary Notice as it will appear in mainstream newspapers and Aboriginal publications, and mailed to individuals known to be affected.
- The Detailed Notice that will appear on the website and be mailed to individuals known to be affected as well as those who request it pursuant to viewing a Summary Notice.
- The 30-second English television script that will be produced and distributed to APTN, as well as the mainstream television networks. (It will be produced as a 60-second unit in French, owing to expansion of length when translating into French; and as a 30 or 60-second unit in various Aboriginal languages, depending on the language and length of translated text.)
- The 30 and 60-second radio scripts that will be produced and distributed to Aboriginal radio stations and networks.
- The neutral Informational News Release that will be issued to news outlets throughout Canada, and to organizations and other third parties.
- The website page where affected people can obtain additional information and documents about the settlement, including the settlement agreement, a Detailed Notice, an Opt Out Form, and request a claim form when available, and other information, on the internet at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca

EXPERTS ON STAFF

Todd B. Hilsee, President ~ Mr. Hilsee was the first to be recognized in the U.S. and Canada as an expert on the design and adequacy of notice, as a result of his work on In re Domestic Air Transp. Litig., 141 F.R.D. 534 (N.D. Ga., 1992), the first of many decisions citing his pioneering use of media audience data to quantify the “net reach” of unknown class members. A leading advocate of “noticeable” notices, he was the only notice expert invited to testify before the Advisory Committee on amendments to Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 23, and subsequently collaborated to write and design the illustrative “model” plain language notices for the Federal Judicial Center, available at www.fjc.gov. Todd has authored numerous articles on notice and due process including law review and journal articles, e.g., the Georgetown Journal of Legal Ethics, and the Tulane Law Review. His due process and notice educational materials have been utilized at law schools including: Harvard, Columbia, New York University, Temple and Cleveland-Marshall. As a communications professional, he spent the majority of his advertising career with Foote, Cone & Belding, the largest U.S. domestic advertising firm, where he was awarded the American Marketing Association's award for effectiveness. He received his B.S. in Marketing from the Pennsylvania State University. Todd can be reached at hilsee@hilsoft.com.

JUDICIAL COMMENTS

Judge Lee Rosenthal, Advisory Committee on Civil Rules of the Judicial Conference of the United States (Jan. 22, 2002), addressing Mr. Hilsee in a public hearing on proposed changes to Rule 23:

I want to tell you how much we collectively appreciate your working with the Federal Judicial Center to improve the quality of the model notices that they're developing. That's a tremendous contribution and we appreciate that very much...You raised three points that are criteria for good noticing, and I was interested in your thoughts on how the rule itself that we've proposed could better support the creation of those or the insistence on those kinds of notices . . .

Judge Marvin Shoob, In re Domestic Air Transp. Antitrust Litig., 141 F.R.D. 534, 548 (N.D. Ga. 1992):

The Court finds Mr. Hilsee's testimony to be credible. Mr. Hilsee's experience is in the advertising industry. It is his job to determine the best way to reach the most people. Mr. Hilsee answered all questions in a forthright and clear manner. Mr. Hilsee performed additional research prior to the evidentiary hearing in response to certain questions that were put to him by defendants at his deposition . . . The Court believes that Mr. Hilsee further enhanced his credibility when he deferred responding to the defendant's deposition questions at a time when he did not have the responsive data available and instead utilized the research facilities normally used in his industry to provide the requested information.

Mr. Justice Cumming, Wilson v. Servier, (Sept. 13, 2000) No. 98-CV-158832, "National Fen/Phen Litigation" (Ont. S.C.J):

[A] class-notification expert, Mr. Todd Hilsee, to provide advice and to design an appropriate class action notice plan for this proceeding. Mr. Hilsee's credentials and expertise are impressive. The defendants accepted him as an expert witness. Mr. Hilsee provided evidence through an extensive report by way of affidavit, upon which he had been cross-examined. His report meets the criteria for admissibility as expert evidence. R. v. Lavallee, [1990] 1 S.C.R. 852.

Judge Elaine E. Bucklo, Carnegie v. Household International, (Aug. 28, 2006) No. 98 C 2178 (D. Ct. Ill.):

Class members received notice of the proposed settlement pursuant to an extensive notice program designed and implemented by Todd B. Hilsee, of Hilsoft Notifications. Mr. Hilsee has worked with the Federal Judicial Center to improve the quality of class notice. His work has been praised by numerous federal and state judges.

Judge Eldon E. Fallon, Turner v. Murphy, USA, Inc., 2007 WL 283431, at *6 (E.D. La.):

*Mr. Hilsee is a highly regarded expert in class action notice who has extensive experience designing and executing notice programs that have been approved by courts across the country. Furthermore, he has handled notice plans in class action cases affected by Hurricanes Katrina, Rita, and Wilma, see In re High Sulfur Content Gasoline Products Liability Litigation, MDL 1632, p. 15-16 (E.D. La. Sept. 6, 2006) (Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in Support of Final Approval of Class Settlement), and has recently published an article on this very subject, see Todd B. Hilsee, Gina M. Intepido, & Shannon R. Wheatman, Hurricanes, Mobility, and Due Process: The "Desire to Inform" Requirement for Effective Class Notice is Highlighted by Katrina, 80 Tul. L.Rev. 1771 (2006) (detailing obstacles and solutions to providing effective notice after Hurricane Katrina).*

Judge William A. Mayhew, Nature Guard Cement Roofing Shingles Cases., (June 29, 2006) J.C.C.P. No. 4215 (Cal. Super. Ct.):

The method for dissemination of notice proposed by class counsel and described by the Declaration of Todd Hilsee of Hilsoft Notifications which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, constitute the fairest and best notice practicable under the circumstances of this case, comply with the applicable California Rules of Court, and satisfy due process;

Judge Sarah S. Vance, In re Educ. Testing Serv. PLT 7-12 Test Scoring Litig., 447 F.Supp.2d 612, 617 (E.D. La. 2006):

At the fairness hearing, the Court received testimony from the Notice Administrator, Todd Hilsee, who described the forms and procedure used to notify class members of the proposed settlement and their rights with respect to it . . . The Court is satisfied that notice to the class fully complied with the requirements of Rule 23.

Judge Douglas L. Combs, Morris v. Liberty Mutual Fire Ins. Co., (Feb. 22, 2005), No. CJ-03-714 (D. Okla.):

I want the record also to demonstrate that with regard to notice, although my experience – this Court's experience in class actions is much less than the experience of not only counsel for the plaintiffs, counsel for the defendant, but also the expert witness, Mr. Hilsee, I am very impressed that the notice was able to reach – be delivered to 97 ½ percent members of the class. That, to me, is admirable. And I'm also – at the time that this was initially entered, I was concerned about the ability of notice to be understood by a common, nonlawyer person, when we talk about legalese in a court setting. In this particular notice, not only the summary notice but even the long form of the notice were easily understandable, for somebody who could read the English language, to tell them whether or not they had the opportunity to file a claim.

Judge Catherine C. Blake, In re Royal Ahold Securities and "ERISA" Litig., (Jan. 6, 2006) MDL-1539 (D. Md.):

I think it's remarkable, as I indicated briefly before, given the breadth and scope of the proposed Class, the global nature of the Class, frankly, that again, at least on a preliminary basis, and I will be getting a final report on this, that the Notice Plan that has been proposed seems very well, very well suited, both in terms of its plain language and in terms of its international reach, to do what I hope will be a very thorough and broad-ranging job of reaching as many of the shareholders, whether individual or institutional, as possibly can be done to participate in what I also preliminarily believe to be a fair, adequate and reasonable settlement.

Judge John Speroni, Avery v. State Farm, (Feb. 25, 1998) No. 97-L-114, "Auto Parts Litigation" (Ill. Cir. Ct. Williamson Co.) (Withstood challenge to Illinois Supreme Court, and the United States Supreme Court denied certiorari on issues including the notice issues):

[T]his Court having carefully considered all of the submissions, and reviewed their basis, finds Mr. Hilsee's testimony to be credible. Mr. Hilsee carefully and conservatively testified to the reach of the Plaintiffs' proposed Notice Plan, supporting the reach numbers with verifiable data on publication readership, demographics and the effect that overlap of published notice would have on the reach figure . . . This Court's opinion as to Mr. Hilsee's credibility, and the scientific basis of his opinions is bolstered by the findings of other judges that Mr. Hilsee's testimony is credible.

Judge Joseph R. Goodwin, In re Serzone Products Liability Litig., 231 F.R.D. 221, 231 (S.D. W. Va. 2005):

The Notice Plan was drafted by Hilsoft Notifications, a Pennsylvania firm specializing in designing, developing, analyzing and implementing large-scale, unbiased legal notification plans. Hilsoft has disseminated class action notices in more than 150 cases, and it designed the model notices currently displayed on the Federal Judicial Center's website as a template for others to follow...To enhance consumer exposure, Hilsoft studied the demographics and readership of publications among adults who used a prescription drug for depression in the last twelve months. Consequently, Hilsoft chose to utilize media particularly targeting women due to their greater incidence of depression and heavy usage of the medication.

Judge Michael Maloan, Cox v. Shell Oil, "Polybutylene Pipe Litigation", 1995 WL 775363, at *6, (Tenn. Ch. Ct.):

Cox Class Counsel and the notice providers worked with Todd B. Hilsee, an experienced class action notice consultant, to design a class notice program of unprecedented reach, scope, and effectiveness. Mr. Hilsee was accepted by the Court as a qualified class notice expert . . . He testified at the Fairness Hearing, and his affidavit was also considered by the Court, as to the operation and outcome of this program.

Judge Marina Corodemus, Talalai v. Cooper Tire & Rubber Co., (Oct. 30, 2001) No. MID-L-8839-00 MT (N.J. Super. Ct. Middlesex Co.):

The parties have crafted a notice program which satisfies due process requirements without reliance on an unreasonably burdensome direct notification process. The parties have retained Todd Hilsee, president of Hilsoft Notification, who has extensive experience designing similar notice programs...The form of the notice is reasonably calculated to apprise class members of their rights. The notice program is specifically designed to reach a substantial percentage of the putative settlement class members.

Currie v. McDonald's Rests. of Canada Ltd., 2005 CanLII 3360 (ON C.A.):

The respondents rely upon the evidence of Todd Hilsee, an individual with experience in developing notice programs for class actions. In Hilsee's opinion, the notice to Canadian members of the plaintiff class in Boland was inadequate . . . In response to Hilsee's evidence, the appellants filed the affidavit of Wayne Pines, who prepared the Boland notice plan . . . I am satisfied that it would be substantially unjust to find that the Canadian members of the putative class in Boland had received adequate notice of the proceedings and of their right to opt out . . . I am not persuaded that we should interfere with the motion judge's findings . . . The right to opt out must be made clear and plain to the non-resident class members and I see no basis upon which to disagree with the motion judge's assessment of the notice. Nor would I interfere with the motion judge's finding that the mode of the notice was inadequate.

Judge Jerome E. Lebarre, Harp v. Qwest Commc'ns, "Arbitration Litigation", (June 21, 2002) No. 0110-10986, (Ore. Cir. Ct. Multnomah Co.):

So, this agreement is not calculated to communicate to plaintiffs any offer. And in this regard I accept the expert testimony conclusions of Mr. Todd Hilsee. Plaintiffs submitted an expert affidavit of Mr. Hilsee dated May 23 of this year, and Mr. Hilsee opines that the User Guide was deceptive and that there were many alternatives available to clearly communicate these matters....

Judge Dewey C. Whitenton, Ervin v. Movie Gallery, Inc., (Nov. 22, 2002) No. 13007 (Tenn. Ch.):

Based on the evidence submitted and based on the opinions of Todd Hilsee, a well-recognized expert on the distribution of class notices . . . MGA and class counsel have taken substantial and extraordinary efforts to ensure that as many class members as practicable received notice about the settlement. As demonstrated by the affidavit of Todd Hilsee, the effectiveness of the notice campaign and the very high level of penetration to the settlement class were truly remarkable . . . The notice campaign was highly successful and effective, and it more than satisfied the due process and state law requirements for class notice.

Judge Joe E. Griffin, Beasley v. Prudential General Insurance Company, (June 13, 2006) No. CV-2005-58-1 (Cir. Ct. Ark.):

Additionally, the Court was provided with expert testimony from Todd Hilsee at the Settlement Approval Hearing concerning the adequacy of the notice program. Based on the Court's review of the evidence admitted and argument of counsel, the Court finds and concludes that the Individual Notice and the Publication Notice, as disseminated to members of the Settlement Class in accordance with provisions of the Preliminarily Approval Order, was the best notice practicable under the circumstances . . . and the requirements of due process under the Arkansas and United States Constitutions.

Judge Fred Biery, McManus v. Fleetwood Enter., Inc., (Sept. 30, 2003) No. SA-99-CA-464-FB, (W.D. Tex.):

Based upon the uncontroverted showing Class Counsel have submitted to the Court, the Court finds that the settling parties undertook a thorough notice campaign designed by Todd Hilsee of Hilsoft Notifications, a nationally-recognized expert in this specialized field . . . The Court finds and concludes that the Notice Program as designed and implemented provided the best practicable notice to the members of the Class, and satisfied the requirements of due process.

Judge Richard G. Stearns, In re Lupron Marketing and Sales Practice Litig., 228 F.R.D. 75, 96 (D. Mass. 2005):

With respect to the effectiveness of notice, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary, I accept the testimony of Todd Hilsee that the plan he designed achieved its objective of exposing 80 percent of the members of the consumer class...

Mr. Justice Cullity, Parsons/Currie v. McDonald's Rests. of Can., (Jan. 13, 2004) 2004 Carswell Ont. 76, 45 C.P.C. (5th) 304, [2004] O.J. No.83:

I found Mr. Hilsee's criticisms of the notice plan in Boland to be far more convincing than Mr. Pines' attempts during cross-examination and in his affidavit to justify his failure to conduct a reach and frequency analysis of McDonald's Canadian customers. I find it impossible to avoid a conclusion that, to the extent that the notice plan he provided related to Canadian customers, it had not received more than a perfunctory attention from him. The fact that the information provided to the court was inaccurate and misleading and that no attempt was made to advise the court after the circulation error had been discovered might possibly be disregarded if the dissemination of the notice fell within an acceptable range of reasonableness. On the basis of Mr. Hilsee's evidence, as well as the standards applied in class proceedings in this court, I am not able to accept that it did.

Judge Catherine C. Blake, In re Royal Ahold Securities & "ERISA" Litig., (June 16, 2006) MDL-1539 (D. Md.):

In that regard, I would also comment on the notice. The form and scope of the notice in this case, and I'm repeating a little bit what already appeared to me to be evident at the preliminary stage, but the form and scope of the notice has been again remarkable . . . The use of sort of plain language, the targeting of publications and media, the website with the translation into multiple languages, the mailings that have been done, I think you all are to be congratulated, and Mr. Hilsee and Claims Administrator as well.

Judge Paul H. Alvarado, Microsoft I-V Cases, (July 6, 2004) J.C.C.P. No. 4106 (Cal. Super. Ct., J.C.C.P. No. 4106):

. . . the Court finds the notice program of the proposed Settlement was extensive and appropriate. It complied with all requirements of California law and due process. Designed by an expert in the field of class notice, Todd B. Hilsee, the notice plan alone was expected to reach at least 80% of the estimated 14.7 million class members. (Hilsee Decl. Ex. 3, ¶28). The Settlement notice plan was ultimately more successful than anticipated and it now appears that over 80% of the class was notified of the Settlement.

Judge Marina Corodemus, Talalai v. Cooper Tire & Rubber Co., (Sept. 13, 2002) No. L-008830.00 (N.J. Super. Ct. Middlesex Co.):

Here, the comprehensive bilingual, English and Spanish, court-approved Notice Plan provided by the terms of the settlement meets due process requirements. The Notice Plan used a variety of methods to reach potential class members. For example, short form notices for print media were placed...throughout the United States and in major national consumer publications which include the most widely read publications among Cooper Tire owner demographic groups . . . Mr. Hilsee designed the notification plan for the proposed settlement in accordance with this court's Nov. 1, 2001 Order. Mr. Hilsee is the president of Hilsoft Notifications and is well versed in implementing and analyzing the effectiveness of settlement notice plans.

Judge Richard J. Shroeder, St. John v. Am. Home Prods. Corp., (Aug. 2, 1999) No. 97-2-06368-4 (Wash. Super. Ct. Spokane Co.):

[T]he Court considered the oral argument of counsel together with the documents filed herein, including the Affidavit of Todd B. Hilsee on Notice Plan...The Court finds that plaintiffs' proposed Notice Plan is appropriate and is the best notice practicable under the circumstances by which to apprise absent class members of the pendency of the above-captioned Class Action and their rights respecting that action.

Judge Carter Holly, Richison v. Am. Cemwood Corp., (Nov. 18, 2003) No. 005532 (Cal. Super. Ct. San Joaquin Co.):

The parties undertook an extensive notice campaign designed by a nationally recognized class action notice expert. See generally, Affidavit of Todd B. Hilsee on Completion of Additional Settlement Notice Plan.

Judge Elaine E. Bucklo, Carnegie v. Household International, (Aug. 28, 2006) No. 98 C 2178 (D. Ct. Ill.):

. . . the Notice was disseminated pursuant to a plan consisting of first class mail and publication developed by Plaintiff's notice consultant, Hilsoft Notification and Todd Hilsee, who the Court recognized as experts in the design of notice plans in class actions. The Notice by first-class mail and publication was provided in an adequate and sufficient manner; constitutes the best notice practicable under the circumstances; and satisfies all requirements of Rule 23(e) and due process.

Judge James R. Williamson, Kline v. The Progressive Corp., (Nov. 14, 2002) No. 01-L-6 (Cir. Ct. Ill. Johnson Co.):

Notice to the Settlement Class was constitutionally adequate, both in terms of its substance and the manner in which it was disseminated. The notice contained the essential elements necessary to satisfy due process . . .

Williams v. Weyerhaeuser Co., 2002 WL 373578, at *10 (Cal. App. 1 Dist.):

The hybrid notice given here--a combination of individual notice and notice by publication--was, as the trial court found, the best practicable method under the circumstances. The mass media campaign in this case appears to have been far more extensive than that approved in Dunk, supra, 48 Cal.App.4th at pp. 1800, 1805, 56 Cal.Rptr.2d 483. Objectors' own experience indicates the campaign was effective. Three of them received individual notices, two learned of the settlement through advertisements, and the others apparently learned of the settlement when one of them went around the neighborhood and told his neighbors about the settlement.

Judge Richard G. Stearns, In re Lupron® Marketing and Sales Practice Litig., (Nov. 24, 2004) MDL 1430 (D. Mass.):

After review of the proposed Notice Plan designed by Hilsoft Notifications...is hereby found to be the best practicable notice under the circumstances and, when completed, shall constitute due and sufficient notice of the Settlement and the Fairness Hearing to all persons and entities affected by and/or entitled to participate in the Settlement, in full compliance with the notice requirements of Rule 23 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and due process.

Hospitality Mgmt. Assoc., Inc. v. Shell Oil Co., 356 S.C. 644, 663, 591 S.E.2d 611, 621 (Sup.Ct.S.C. 2004):

Judge Stuart R. Pollak, Microsoft I-V Cases, (April 1, 2001) J.C.C.P. No. CJC-00-004106 (Cal. Super. Ct. San Francisco Co.):

[C]oncerning dissemination of class notice; and I have reviewed the materials that have been submitted on that subject and basically I'm satisfied. I think it's amazing if you're really getting 80 percent coverage. That's very reassuring. And the papers that you submitted responded to a couple things that had been mentioned before and I am satisfied with all that.

Judge Dudley Bowen, Andrews/Harper v. MCI, (Aug. 18, 1995) No. CV 191-185, “900 Number Class Action” (S.D. Ga.):

Upon consideration of the submissions of counsel and the testimony adduced at the hearing, and upon the findings, observations and conclusions expressed from the bench into the record at the conclusion of the hearing, it is hereby ordered that the aforementioned proposed media plan is approved.

Judge Ivan L.R. Lemelle, In re High Sulfur Content Gasoline Prods. Liability Litig., (Nov. 8, 2006) MDL No. 1632 (E.D. La.):

The Notice Plan for this Class Settlement was consistent with the best practices developed for modern-style “plain English” class notices; the Court and Settling Parties invested substantial effort to ensure notice to persons displaced by the Hurricanes of 2005; and as this Court has already determined, the Notice Plan met the requirements of Rule 23 and constitutional due process.

Judge Catherine C. Blake, In re Royal Ahold Securities & “ERISA” Litig., 437 F.Supp.2d 467, 472 (D. Md. 2006):

The court hereby finds that the Notice and Notice Plan described herein and in the Order dated January 9, 2006 provided Class Members with the best notice practicable under the circumstances. The Notice provided due and adequate notice of these proceedings and the matters set forth herein, including the Settlement and Plan of Allocation, to all persons entitled to such notice, and the Notice fully satisfied the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the requirements of due process.

Judge Salvatore F. Cozza, Delay v. Hurd Millwork Co., (Sept. 11, 1998) No. 97-2-07371-0 (Wash. Super. Ct. Spokane Co.):

I’m very impressed by the notice plan which has been put together here. It seems to be very much a state of the art proposal in terms of notifying class members. It appears to clearly be a very good alternative for notification. The target audience seems to be identified very well, and the Court is very satisfied with the choice of media which has been selected to accomplish this.

Judge James S. Moody, Jr., Mantzouris v. Scarritt Motor Group Inc., (Aug. 10, 2004) No. 8:03 CV 0015-T-30 MSS (M.D. Fla.):

Due and adequate notice of the proceedings having been given and a full opportunity having been offered to the members of the Class to participate in the Settlement Hearing, or object to the certification of the Class and the Agreement, it is hereby determined that all members of the Class, except for Ms. Gwendolyn Thompson, who was the sole person opting out of the Settlement Agreement, are bound by this Order and Final Judgment entered herein.

Judge Marvin Shoob, In re Domestic Air Transp. Antitrust Litig., 141 F.R.D. 534, 555 (N.D. Ga. 1992):

The Court is convinced that the innovative notice program designed by plaintiffs not only comports with due process and is sensitive to defendants’ res judicata rights, but it is the only notice program suitable for this unique and massive consumer class action.

Judge Yada T. Magee, Spitzfaden v. Dow Corning, (March 17, 1997) No. 92-2589, “Breast Implant Litigation” (La. Civ. Dist. Ct. Orleans Parish) (The Louisiana Supreme Court upheld the ruling, finding no error):

Given the definition of this class and the potential size, the efforts taken to notify potential class members was more than sweeping...Accordingly the Court finds that the notice was adequate.

Judge Michael J. O'Malley, Defrates v. Hollywood Entm't Corp., (June 24, 2005) No. 02 L 707 (Ill. Cir. Ct. St. Clair Co.):

. . . this Court hereby finds that the notice program described in the Preliminary Approval Order and completed by HEC complied fully with the requirements of due process, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and all other applicable laws.

The Notice contained the essential elements necessary to satisfy due process, including the Settlement Class definition, the identities of the Parties and of their counsel, a summary of the terms of the proposed settlement, Class Counsel's intent to apply for fees, information regarding the manner in which objections could be submitted, and requests for exclusions could be filed.

Judge Carter Holly, Richison v. Am. Cemwood Corp., (Nov. 18, 2003) No. 005532 (Cal. Super. Ct. San Joaquin Co.):

Judge David Flinn, Westman v. Rogers Family Funeral Home, (March 5, 2001) No. C 98-03165 (Cal. Super. Ct. Contra Costa Co.):

The Court has determined that the Notice given to potential members of the Settlement Class fully and accurately informed potential Members of the Settlement Class of all material elements of the proposed settlement and constituted valid, due and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Settlement Class, and that it constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances.

Judge Stuart R. Pollak, Microsoft I-V Cases, (March 30, 2001) J.C.C.P. No. 4106 (Cal. Super. Ct. San Francisco Co.):

Plaintiffs and Defendant Microsoft Corporation have submitted a joint statement in support of their request that the Court approve the plan for dissemination of class action notice and proposed forms of notice, and amend the class definition. The Court finds that the forms of notice to Class members attached hereto as Exhibits A and B fairly and adequately inform the Class members of their rights concerning this litigation. The Court further finds that the methods for dissemination of notice are the fairest and best practicable under the circumstances, and comport with due process requirements.

Judge John R. Padova, Rosenberg v. Academy Collection Service, Inc. (Dec. 19, 2005) No. 04-CV-5585 (E.D. Pa.):

. . . upon consideration of the Memorandum of Law in Support of Plaintiff's Proposed Class Questionnaire and Certification of Todd Hilsee, it is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiff's form of class letter and questionnaire in the form appended hereto is APPROVED. F.R.Civ.P. 23(c).

Judge Bernard Zimmerman, Ting v. AT&T, “Arbitration Litigation”, 182 F.Supp.2d 902, 912-913 (N.D. Cal. 2002) (Hilsee had testified on the importance of wording and notice design features):

The phrase ‘Important Information’ is increasingly associated with junk mail or solicitations . . . From the perspective of affecting a person’s legal rights, the most effective communication is generally one that is direct and specific.

Judge Robert E. Payne, Fisher v. Virginia Electric & Power Co., (July 1, 2004) No. 3:02CV431 (E.D. Va.):

The record here shows that the class members have been fully and fairly notified of the existence of the class action, of the issues in it, of the approaches taken by each side in it in such a way as to inform meaningfully those whose rights are affected and to thereby enable them to exercise their rights intelligently.

Judge Robert H. Wyatt, Jr., Gray v. New Hampshire Indemnity Co., Inc., (Dec. 19, 2005) No. CV-2002-952-2-3 (Cir. Ct. Ark.):

Notice was direct mailed to all Class members whose current whereabouts could be identified by reasonable effort. Notice was also effected by publication in many newspapers and magazines throughout the nation, reaching a large majority of the Class members multiple times. The Court finds that such notice constitutes the best notice practicable.

Judge Carter Holly, Richison v. Am. Cemwood Corp., (Nov. 18, 2003) No. 005532 (Cal. Super. Ct. San Joaquin Co.):

The notice was reasonable and the best notice practicable under the circumstances, was due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all Class members, and complied fully with the laws of the State of California, the Code of Civil Procedure, due process, and California Rules of Court 1859 and 1860.

In re Synthroid Marketing Litig., 264 F.3d 712, 716 (C.A.7 (Ill.), 2001):

Although officially in the game, the objectors have not presented any objection to the settlement that was not convincingly addressed by the district court. The objectors contend that the settlement should have been larger, that the notice was not sufficient, and that the release of liabilities is too broad.

Judge Harold Baer, Jr., Thompson v. Metropolitan Life Ins. Co., (Sept. 3, 2002) No. 00 Civ. 5071 (HB) (S.D. N.Y.):

The Court further finds that the Class Notice and Publication Notice provided in the Settlement Agreement are written in plain English and are readily understandable by Class Members. In sum, the Court finds that the proposed notice texts and methodology are reasonable, that they constitute due, adequate and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to be provided with notice, and that they meet the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (including Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2) and (e)), the United States Constitution (including the Due Process Clause), the Rules of the Court, and any other applicable law.

Judge Dewey C. Whitenton, Ervin v. Movie Gallery, Inc., (Nov. 22, 2002) No. 13007 (Tenn. Ch.):

The content of the class notice also satisfied all due process standards and state law requirements . . . The content of the notice was more than adequate to enable class members to make an informed and intelligent choice about remaining in the class or opting out of the class.

Judge Edgar E. Bayley, Dimitrios v. CVS, Inc., No. 99-6209; Walker v. Rite Aid Corp., No. 99-6210; and Myers v. Rite Aid Corp., No. 01-2771, (Nov. 27, 2002) (Pa. Ct. C.P. Cumberland Co.):

The Court specifically finds that: fair and adequate notice has been given to the class, which comports with due process of law.

Judge Robert E. Payne, Fisher v. Virginia Electric & Power Co., (July 1, 2004) No. 3:02CV431 (E.D. Va.):

The success rate in notifying the class is, I believe, at least in my experience, I share Ms. Kauffman's experience, it is as great as I have ever seen in practicing or serving in this job . . . So I don't believe we could have had any more effective notice.

Judge Richard G. Stearns, In re Lupron Marketing and Sales Practice Litig., (Nov. 23, 2004) MDL 1430 (D. Mass.):

I actually find the [notice] plan as proposed to be comprehensive and extremely sophisticated and very likely be as comprehensive as any plan of its kind could be In reaching those most directly affected.

Judge James D. Arnold, Cotten v. Ferman Mgmt. Servs. Corp., (Nov. 26, 2003) No. 02-08115 (Fla. Cir. Ct. Hillsborough Co.):

Judge David De Alba, Ford Explorer Cases, (Aug. 19, 2005) JCCP Nos. 4226 & 4270 (Cal. Super. Ct., Sacramento Co.):

It is ordered that the Notice of Class Action is approved. It is further ordered that the method of notification proposed by Todd B. Hilsee is approved.

Judge Judith K. Fitzgerald, In re Pittsburgh Corning Corp., (Nov. 26, 2003) No. 00-22876-JKF (Bankr. W.D. Pa.):

The procedures and form of notice for notifying the holders of Asbestos PI Trust Claims, as described in the Motion, adequately protect the interests of the holders of Asbestos PI Trust Claims in a manner consistent with the principles of due process, and satisfy the applicable requirements of the Bankruptcy Code and the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

Judge Wilford D. Carter, Thibodeaux v. Conoco Phillips Co., (May 26, 2005) No. 2003-481 F (14th J.D. Ct. La.):

Such notices complied with all requirements of the federal and state constitutions, including the due process clause, and applicable articles of the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances and constituted due process and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Class as Defined.

Judge Harold Baer, Jr., Thompson v. Metropolitan Life Ins. Co., 216 F.R.D. 55, 68 (S.D.N.Y. 2003):

The notice provides, in language easily understandable to a lay person, the essential terms of the settlement, including the claims asserted . . . who would be covered by the settlement . . .

Judge Catherine C. Blake, In re Royal Ahold Securities and "ERISA" Litig., (Jan. 6, 2006) MDL-1539 (D. Md.):

I do, at least preliminarily, certainly think this is a very extensive and excellent notice program that has been proposed.

Judge Thomas A. Higgins, In re Columbia/HCA Healthcare Corp., (June 13, 2003) No. 3-98-MDL-1227 (M.D. Tenn.):

Notice of the settlement has been given in an adequate and sufficient manner. The notice provided by mailing the settlement notice to certain class members and publishing notice in the manner described in the settlement was the best practicable notice, complying in all respects with the requirements of due process.

Judge Louis J. Farina, Soders v. General Motors Corp. (Oct. 31, 2003) No. CI-00-04255, (Pa. C.P. Lancaster Co.):

In this instance, Plaintiff has solicited the opinion of a notice expert who has provided the Court with extensive information explaining and supporting the Plaintiff's notice plan...After balancing the factors laid out in Rule 1712(a), I find that Plaintiff's publication method is the method most reasonably calculated to inform the class members of the pending action.

Judge Eldon E. Fallon, Turner v. Murphy, USA, Inc., 2007 WL 283431, at *5 (E.D. La.):

Most of the putative class members were displaced following hurricane Katrina . . . With this challenge in mind, the parties prepared a notice plan designed to reach the class members wherever they might reside. The parties retained Todd Hilsee of Hilsoft Notifications to ensure that adequate notice was given to class members in light of the unique challenges presented in this case.

Judge Michael Canaday, Morrow v. Conoco Inc., (May 25, 2005) No. 2002-3860 G (14th J.D. Ct. La.):

The objections, if any, made to due process, constitutionality, procedures, and compliance with law, including, but not limited to, the adequacy of notice and the fairness of the proposed Settlement Agreement, lack merit and are hereby overruled.

Judge Harold Baer, Jr., Thompson v. Metropolitan Life Ins. Co. 216 F.R.D. 55, 68 (S.D. N.Y. 2003):

[T]he notice campaign that defendant agreed to undertake was extensive . . . I am satisfied, having reviewed the contents of the notice package, and the extensive steps taken to disseminate notice of the settlement, that the class notice complies with the requirements of Rule 23 (c)(2) and 23(e). In summary, I have reviewed all of the objections, and none persuade me to conclude that the proposed settlement is unfair, inadequate or unreasonable.

Judge Catherine C. Blake, In re Royal Ahold Securities & "ERISA" Litig., 2006 WL 132080, at *4 (D. Md.):

The Court further APPROVES the proposed Notice Plan, as set forth in the Affidavit of Todd B. Hilsee On International Settlement Notice Plan, dated December 19, 2005 (Docket No. 684). The Court finds that the form of Notice, the form of Summary Notice, and the Notice Plan satisfy the requirements of Fed.R.Civ.P. 23, due process, constitute the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and shall constitute due and sufficient notice to all members of the Class.

Judge John Kraetzer, Baiz v. Mountain View Cemetery, (April 14, 2004) No. 809869-2 (Cal. Super. Ct. Alameda Co.):

The notice program was timely completed, complied with California Government Code section 6064, and provided the best practicable notice to all members of the Settlement Class under the circumstances. The Court finds that the notice program provided class members with adequate instructions and a variety of means to obtain information pertaining to their rights and obligations under the settlement so that a full opportunity has been afforded to class members and all other persons wishing to be heard.

Judge Harold Baer, Jr., Thompson v. Metropolitan Life Ins. Co., 216 F.R.D. 55, 62 (S.D. N.Y. 2003):

In view of the extensive notice campaign waged by the defendant, the extremely small number of class members objecting or requesting exclusion from the settlement is a clear sign of strong support for the settlement.

Judge John R. Padova, Nichols v. SmithKline Beecham Corp., (April 22, 2005) No. 00-6222 (E.D. Pa.):

After reviewing the individual mailed Notice, the publication Notices, the PSAs and the informational release, the Court concludes that the substance of the Notice provided to members of the End-Payor Class in this case was adequate to satisfy the concerns of due process and the Federal Rules.

Judge John Kraetzer, Baiz v. Mountain View Cemetery, (April 14, 2004) No. 809869-2 (Cal. Super. Ct. Alameda Co.):

The Court has determined that the Notice given to potential members of the Settlement Class fully and accurately informed potential Members of the Settlement Class of all material elements of the proposed settlement and constituted valid, due, and sufficient notice to all potential members of the Settlement Class, and that it constituted the best practicable notice under the circumstances.

Judge Carter Holly, Richison v. Am. Cemwood Corp., (Nov. 18, 2003) No. 005532 (Cal. Super. Ct. San Joaquin Co.):

Not a single Class member—out of an estimated 30,000—objected to the terms of the Phase 2 Settlement Agreement, notwithstanding a comprehensive national Notice campaign, via direct mail and publication Notice.

Judge Elaine Bucklo, In re Synthroid Marketing Litig., (Aug. 14, 1998) MDL 1182 (N.D. Ill.) (Ultimately withstood challenge to 7th Circuit Court of Appeals):

[T]he parties undertook an elaborate notice program...in numerous publications in the United States and abroad which those persons most likely to be class members would read . . . In fact from the affidavits filed, it would appear that notice was designed to reach most of the affected reading public.

Judge Joseph R. Goodwin, In re Serzone Prods. Liability Litig. 2004 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 28297, at *10 (S.D. W. Va.):

The Court has considered the Notice Plan and proposed forms of Notice and Summary Notice submitted with the Memorandum for Preliminary Approval and finds that the forms and manner of notice proposed by Plaintiffs and approved herein meet the requirements of due process and Fed.R.Civ.P. 23(c) and (e), are the best notice practicable under the circumstances, constitute sufficient notice to all persons entitled to notice, and satisfy the Constitutional requirements of notice.

Judge Marina Corodemus, Talalai v. Cooper Tire & Rubber Co., (Oct. 29, 2001) No. L-8830-00 MT (N.J. Super. Ct. Middlesex Co.):

I saw the various bar graphs for the different publications and the different media dissemination, and I think that was actually the clearest bar graph I've ever seen in my life . . . it was very clear of the time periods that you were doing as to each publication and which media you were doing over what market time, so I think that was very clear.

Judge Louis J. Farina, Soders v. General Motors Corp., (Oct. 31, 2003) No. CI-00-04255, (Pa. C.P. Lancaster Co.):

Plaintiff provided extensive information regarding the reach of their proposed plan. Their notice expert, Todd Hilsee, opined that their plan will reach 84.8% of the class members. Defendant provided the Court with no information regarding the potential reach of their proposed plan . . . There is no doubt that some class members will remain unaware of the litigation, however, on balance, the Plaintiff's plan is likely to reach as many class members as the Defendant's plan at less than half the cost. As such, I approve the Plaintiff's publication based plan.

Judge Paul H. Alvarado, Microsoft I-V Cases, (July 6, 2004) J.C.C.P. No. 4106 (Cal. Super. Ct., J.C.C.P. No. 4106):

The notification plans concerning the pendency of this class action were devised by a recognized class notice expert, Todd B. Hilsee. Mr. Hilsee devised two separate class certification notice plans that were estimated to have reached approximately 80% of California PC owners on each occasion.

Judge Robert E. Payne, Fisher v. Virginia Electric & Power Co., (Feb. 12, 2004) No. 3:02-CV-431 (E.D. Va.):

Judge Norma L. Shapiro, First State Orthopaedics et al. v. Concentra, Inc., et al., (May 1, 2006) No. 2:05-CV-04951-NS (E.D. Pa.):

The Court finds that dissemination of the Mailed Notice, Published Notice and Full Notice in the manner set forth here and in the Settlement Agreement meets the requirements of due process and Pennsylvania law. The Court further finds that the notice is reasonable, and constitutes due, adequate, and sufficient notice to all persons entitled to receive notice, is the best practicable notice; and is reasonably calculated, under the circumstances, to apprise members of the Settlement Class of the pendency of the Lawsuit and of their right to object or to exclude themselves from the proposed settlement.

Judge Sarah S. Vance, In re Educ. Testing Serv. PLT 7-12 Test Scoring Litig., 447 F.Supp.2d 612, 627 (E.D. La. 2006):

At the fairness hearing, class counsel, the Special Master, notice expert Todd Hilsee, and the Court Appointed Disbursing Agent detailed the reasons for requiring claims forms . . . As Todd Hilsee pointed out in his testimony, because plaintiffs had the choice of either individualized damages or an expedited payment, to send the expedited payments with the notice has the potential of encouraging plaintiffs to forego individualized recovery for far less than value, merely by cashing the check. The obvious undesirability of this suggestion gives the unmistakable appearance that the objection was captious. The objection to the claims process for expedited payments is overruled.

Judge Richard G. Stearns, In re Lupron® Marketing and Sales Practice Litig., 228 F.R.D. 75, 96 (D. Mass. 2005):

I have examined the materials that were used to publicize the settlement, and I agree with Hilsee's opinion that they complied in all respects with the "plain, easily understood language" requirement of Rule 23(c). In sum, I find that the notice given meets the requirements of due process.

Judge John R. Padova, Nichols v. SmithKline Beecham Corp., (Apr. 22, 2005) No. 00-CV-6222 (E.D. Pa.):

As required by this Court in its Preliminary Approval Order and as described in extensive detail in the Affidavit of Todd B. Hilsee on Design Implementation and Analysis of Settlement Notice Program...Such notice to members of the Class is hereby determined to be fully in compliance with requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e) and due process and is found to be the best notice practicable under the circumstances and to constitute due and sufficient notice to all entities entitled thereto.

Judge Sarah S. Vance, In re Babcock & Wilcox Co., (Aug. 25, 2000) No. 00-0558 (E.D. La.):

Furthermore, the Committee has not rebutted the affidavit of Todd Hilsee, President of Hilsoft Notifications, that the (debtor's notice) plan's reach and frequency methodology is consistent with other asbestos-related notice programs, mass tort bankruptcies, and other significant notice programs...After reviewing debtor's Notice Plan, and the objections raised to it, the Court finds that the plan is reasonably calculated to apprise unknown claimants of their rights and meets the due process requirements set forth in Mullane . . . Accordingly, the Notice Plan is approved.

Judge Joe E. Griffin, Beasley v. Prudential General Insurance Company, (June 13, 2006) No. CV-2005-58-1 (Cir. Ct. Ark.):

. . . received testimony from Mr. Hilsee at the Settlement Approval Hearing concerning the success of the notice campaign, including the fact that written notice reached 97.7% of the potential Class members, the Court finds that it is unnecessary to afford a new opportunity to request exclusion to individual Class Members who had an earlier opportunity to request exclusion, but did not do so. The Court also concludes that the lack of valid objections also supports the Court's decision to not offer a second exclusion window . . . Although the Notice Campaign was highly successful and resulted in actual mailed notice being received by over 400,000 Class Members, only one Class Member attempted to file a purported objection to either the Stipulation or Class Counsels' Application for Fees. The Court finds it significant that out of over 400,000 Class Members who received mailed Notice, there was no opposition to the proposed Settlement or Class Counsels' Application for Fees, other than the single void objection. The lack of opposition by a well-noticed Class strongly supports the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the Stipulation and Class Counsels' Application for Fees.

Judge James R. Williamson, Kline v. The Progressive Corp., (Nov. 14, 2002) No. 01-L-6 (Cir. Ct. Ill. Johnson Co.):

The Court has reviewed the Affidavit of Todd B. Hilsee, one of the Court-appointed notice administrators, and finds that it is based on sound analysis. Mr. Hilsee has substantial experience designing and evaluating the effectiveness of notice programs.

Judge Joseph R. Goodwin, In re Serzone Products Liability Litig., 231 F.R.D. 221, 236 (S.D. W. Va. 2005):

As Mr. Hilsee explained in his supplemental affidavit, the adequacy of notice is measured by whether notice reached Class Members and gave them an opportunity to participate, not by actual participation. (Hilsee Supp. Aff. ¶ 6(c)(v), June 8, 2005)...Not one of the objectors support challenges to the adequacy of notice with any kind of evidence; rather, these objections consist of mere arguments and speculation. I have, nevertheless, addressed the main arguments herein, and I have considered all arguments when evaluating the notice in this matter. Accordingly, after considering the full record of evidence and filings before the court, I FIND that notice in this matter comports with the requirements of Due Process under the Fifth Amendment and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2) and 23(e).

Judge Catherine C. Blake, In re Royal Ahold Securities and "ERISA" Litig., (Nov. 2, 2006) MDL-1539 (D. Md.):

The global aspect of the case raised additional practical and legal complexities, as did the parallel criminal proceedings in another district. The settlement obtained is among the largest cash settlements ever in a securities class action case and represents an estimated 40% recovery of possible provable damages. The notice process appears to have been very successful not only in reaching but also in eliciting claims from a substantial percentage of those eligible for recovery.

Judge Alfred G. Chiantelli, Williams v. Weyerhaeuser Co., (Dec. 22, 2000) No. 995787, "Hardboard Siding Litigation" (Cal. Super. Ct. San Francisco Co.):

The Class Notice complied with this Court's Order, was the best practicable notice, and comports with due process . . . Based upon the uncontroverted proof Class Counsel have submitted to the Court, the Court finds that the settling parties undertook an extensive notice campaign designed by Todd Hilsee of Hilsoft Notifications, a nationally recognized expert in this specialized field.

Judge John R. Padova, Nichols v. SmithKline Beecham Corp., (April 22, 2005) No. 00-6222 (E.D. Pa.):

Pursuant to the Order dated October 18, 2004, End-Payor Plaintiffs employed Hilsoft Notifications to design and oversee Notice to the End-Payor Class. Hilsoft Notifications has extensive experience in class action notice situations relating to prescription drugs and cases in which unknown class members need to receive notice.

Regional Senior Justice Winkler, Baxter v. Canada (Attorney General), (March 10, 2006) No. 00-CV-192059 CPA (Ont. Super. Ct.):

The plaintiffs have retained Todd Hilsee, an expert recognized by courts in Canada and the United States in respect of the design of class action notice programs, to design an effective national notice program . . . the English versions of the Notices provided to the court on this motion are themselves plainly worded and appear to be both informative and designed to be readily understood. It is contemplated that the form of notice will be published in English, French and Aboriginal languages, as appropriate for each media vehicle.

Judge James T. Genovese, West v. G&H Seed Co., (May 27, 2003) No. 99-C-4984-A (La. Jud. Dist. Ct. St. Landry Parish):

The court finds that, considering the testimony of Mr. Hilsee, the nature of this particular case, and the certifications that this court rendered in its original judgment which have been affirmed by the – for the most part, affirmed by the appellate courts, the court finds Mr. Hilsee to be quite knowledgeable in his field and certainly familiar with these types of cases...the notice has to be one that is practicable under the circumstances. The notice provided and prepared by Mr. Hilsee accomplishes that purpose . . .

Judge Milton Gunn Shuffield, Scott v. Blockbuster Inc., (Jan. 22, 2002) No. D 162-535 (Tex. Jud. Dist. Ct. Jefferson Co.) (Ultimately withstood challenge to Court of Appeals of Texas. Peters v. Blockbuster 65 S.W.3d 295, 307 (Tex. App.-Beaumont, 2001):

In order to maximize the efficiency of the notice, a professional concern, Hilsoft Notifications, was retained. Todd Hilsee of that firm prepared and oversaw the notification plan. The record reflects that Mr. Hilsee is very experienced in the area of notification in class action settlements...This Court concludes that the notice campaign was the best practicable, reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the settlement and afford them an opportunity to present their objections . . . The notice campaign was highly successful and effective, and it more than satisfied the due process and state law requirements for class notice.

Judge Susan Illston (N.D. Cal.), on Hilsoft Notifications presentation at the ABA's 7th Annual National institute on Class Actions, Oct. 24, 2003, San Francisco, Cal.:

The notice program that was proposed here today, I mean, it's breathtaking. That someone should have thought that clearly about how an effective notice would get out. I've never seen anything like that proposed in practice . . . I thought the program was excellent. The techniques available for giving a notification is something that everyone should know about.

OTHER COMMENTS

Geoffrey P. Miller, Max Greenberg Professor at Law, NYU, testified at the Scott v. Blockbuster Fairness Hearing on Dec. 10-11, 2001, before Judge Milton Shuffield:

I really have never seen in the many years I've been looking at class actions, a notice campaign in a consumer case that was done with this much care and this much real forethought and imagination. It's very difficult to reach 40 million people, and I can't imagine doing a better job than as what was done in this case.

Arthur R. Miller, Bruce Bromley Professor of Law, Harvard Law School, in a letter addressed to Mr. Hilsee dated June 2, 2004:

I read your piece on Mullane with great interest and am delighted to learn the details. Indeed, I will probably incorporate some of it in my teaching next fall. I think your analysis is rock solid.

The Indian residential schools settlement has been approved.

Please read this detailed notice.

This is a court authorized notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

The Indian residential schools settlement has been approved by the Courts. Now, former students and their families must decide whether to stay in the settlement or remove themselves (opt out) from it. This notice describes the settlement benefits and how to get them for those who stay in, and it explains what it means to opt out and how to opt out. The settlement provides:

- At least $1.9 billion for “common experience” payments for former students who lived at the schools;
- A process to allow those who suffered sexual or serious physical abuses, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, to get between $5,000 and $275,000 each—or more money if they can also show a loss of income; and
- To benefit former students and families: $125 million to the Aboriginal Healing Foundation for healing programmes; $60 million for truth and reconciliation to document and preserve the experiences of survivors; and $20 million for national and community commemorative projects.

Family members who were not students will not get payments.

More details about these benefits are provided in the settlement agreement which is available by calling 1-866-879-4913, or going to www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca.

YOUR OPTIONS NOW:
REQUEST A CLAIM FORM	If you are a former student and want a payment from the settlement, and you never want to sue the Government of Canada or the Churches on your own, do not opt out; instead, call now to register and a claim form will be mailed to you after Month 00, 2007. When it arrives, fill it out and return it.
REMOVE YOURSELF (OPT OUT)	If you don't want a payment, or you think you can get more money than the settlement provides by suing the Government or the Churches on your own, then you must opt out by submitting an Opt Out Form postmarked by Month 00, 2007 .
DO NOTHING	Get no payment. Give up rights to sue.

These rights and options are explained in this notice. Please read carefully.

Have a Lawsuit in Québec? If you have your own residential schools lawsuit pending in Québec, see question 30 and talk to your lawyer immediately about your options.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why was this notice issued?

You have a right to know about a settlement of class action lawsuits and about your options. This notice explains the lawsuits, the settlement, and your legal rights. Multiple Courts in Canada, (the “Courts”) are overseeing all of the various lawsuits and class action lawsuits together known as In re Residential Schools Class Action Litigation. The “Defendants” are the Government of Canada (“Government”) and various church-related entities including: The General Synod of the Anglican Church of Canada, The Dioceses of the Anglican Church of Canada, The Presbyterian Church in Canada, The United Church of Canada, The Methodist Church of Canada, and various Catholic entities (together called the “Churches”).

2. What is the lawsuit about?

Residential schools were boarding schools for Aboriginal children that operated throughout Canada for over a century. Canada and religious organizations operated the schools. Harms and abuses were committed against the children. Various lawsuits were started against the Government, the Churches, and others, based on the operation and management of residential schools in Canada.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action one or more people called “class representatives” sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of these people are a “Class.” The courts resolve the issues for everyone affected; except for those who remove themselves (opt out) from the Class.

4. Why is there a settlement?

Both sides agreed to a settlement to avoid the delays, costs, and risks of trials. The AFN, the Government of Canada, the Churches, as well as the class representatives and the lawyers representing them think the settlement is best for former students and their families.

5. What is the status of the settlement?

Notices were issued in June, July, and August of 2006, and then hearings were held across Canada. The Courts considered all objections to the settlement and then approved it. Now, former students and their families must decide whether to remove themselves (opt out) from the settlement. Former students who stay in the settlement may request a claim form be sent to them as soon as it is ready. Then, shortly after the opt out deadline of Month 00, 2007, claim forms will be mailed to former students, and then payments to those who submit valid claim forms can begin. There is a chance that if too many people opt out, the settlement will not be implemented, and no payments will ever be issued.

WHO IS COVERED BY THE SETTLEMENT?

There are approximately 80,000 living Aboriginal former students of the residential school system.

6. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

The settlement includes former students of recognized residential schools in Canada and their family members. This includes Aboriginal people from First Nations, Inuit, Inuvialuit, and Métis communities. Those who resided at the schools and family members of former students are all included in the settlement, but may be eligible for different benefits.

QUESTIONS? CALL TOLL-FREE 1-866-879-4913 OR VISIT WWW.RESIDENTIALSCHOOLSETTLEMENT.CA

7. Are day students part of the settlement?

If you attended during the day but did not live at a residential school you are not a Class member. However, if you were allowed to be on school grounds to take part in school activities you may be able to make a claim if you were abused. See question 18.

8. Which schools are included?

The list of recognized residential schools and hostels is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca or by calling toll-free 1-866-879-4913. If you attended a residential school not on the list, you may ask that it be added. Submit the name of the school and any relevant information about it at the website or by writing to: Residential Schools Settlement, Suite 3-505, 133 Weber St. North, Waterloo, Ontario, N2J 3G9. The Government will research the proposed institution and determine whether it should be added to the list. If a school you suggest is not added, you may appeal that decision.

9. What if I have my own lawsuit against the Government and/or Churches?

You are included in this settlement even if you have a separate residential schools lawsuit. However, if you have a residential schools lawsuit currently pending in Québec see question 30 below. Read this notice carefully and talk to your lawyer as soon as possible to see how it will affect your rights to continue with your lawsuit.

10. I'm still not sure if I'm included in the settlement.

If you are not sure whether you are included, you may call 1-866-879-4913 with questions.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS—WHAT YOU GET

11. What does the settlement provide?

The settlement provides:

- Common Experience Payment (“CEP”) Fund – At least $1.9 billion, plus interest, will be made available for lump sum payments to former students who lived at one of the residential schools. Payments will be $10,000 for the first school year (or part of a school year), plus $3,000 for each school year (or part of a school year) after that. If there is not enough money in the fund to pay all valid claims, the Government will add money to the fund. However, if there is any money remaining in the CEP fund after all valid claims are paid: (1) if the amount is less than $40,000,000, all of the remaining money will be given to the National Indian Brotherhood Trust Fund and to the Inuvialuit Education Foundation for educational programmes for all First Nations, Inuit, Inuvialuit, and Métis people; (2) if the amount is greater than $40,000,000, former students who submit valid claim forms will get an equal share of “Personal Credits,” not cash, up to a maximum of $3,000. These credits can be used for personal, family, or group education services. Any balance remaining in the CEP fund after paying the Personal Credits will be paid to the National Indian Brotherhood Trust Fund and to the Inuvialuit Education Foundation for educational programmes for former students and their families.
- Independent Assessment Process (“IAP”) – A new independent assessment process (replacing the Government’s ADR process - See question 17) allows those who suffered sexual or serious physical abuses, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, to qualify for between $5,000 and $275,000 each. More may be awarded if you also show a loss of income. Altogether, the maximum IAP amount is $430,000. Awards are based on a point system for different abuses and resulting harms. The more points the greater the payment. There is a review process if you don't agree with the amount granted to you. Up to $15,000 for future care is available, and a contribution of 15% of the total award to help with legal costs is also available.

- Healing Fund – $125 million will be given to the Aboriginal Healing Foundation for a five year period to fund healing programmes for former students and their families. This is in addition to the $390 million that the Government has previously funded to establish the Aboriginal Healing Foundation for the benefit of both living former students and the families of deceased students.
- Truth and Reconciliation Fund – $60 million to research, document, and preserve the experiences of the survivors and their families for future generations.
- Commemoration Fund – $20 million for national and community commemorative projects.

More details are in a document called the Settlement Agreement which is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca or by calling 1-866-879-4913.

12. Who can get a common experience payment (CEP)?

All former students who lived at a residential school and who were alive on May 30, 2005, are eligible for a CEP. Also, any former student who attended the Mohawk Institute Residential Boarding School in Brantford, Ontario between 1922 and 1969, and was alive on October 5, 1996, is also eligible for a CEP.

13. What about families of former students?

Family members of residential school students will not receive payments unless the student recently died (see question 12). However, family members will be able to take advantage of the healing, education and other programmes funded by the settlement.

14. Will my social assistance benefits be affected if I take the CEP?

The Government is working with provincial and territorial governments, and federal departments to try to ensure that any payment you receive will not affect the amount, nature, or duration of any social benefits or social assistance benefits received by former students.

15. Will the CEP be taxable?

No. The Government has determined that CEP payments will not be taxable.

16. Can I get a payment if I previously brought an abuse claim?

Yes, even if you already won, lost, or settled an abuse claim, either in court, by negotiation, or under the Government's alternative dispute resolution ("ADR") process, you are still eligible for a CEP and it's possible that you may qualify for additional money under the new IAP. Check with your lawyer.

17. What about my abuse claim in the Government's ADR process?

Since the settlement was approved by all the Courts, all applications to the current ADR process have ended. Anyone who applied to the ADR process before Month 00, 2006, now has a choice to continue in the ADR process or apply to the IAP. More detailed information on the IAP is in Schedule D of the Settlement Agreement which is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca.

18. Who is eligible for the Independent Assessment Process (IAP)?

If you suffered sexual or serious physical abuse, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, you may be eligible if: (a) you are a former student who attended and lived at a residential school; or (b) you were invited to take part in an authorized school activity (while under the age of 21) even if you did not live at a school. You may need a lawyer to help you with an IAP claim.

19. Can I get a CEP if I also have an IAP claim?

Yes. CEP payments are in addition to any payments for serious abuse claims under the IAP.

20. Will mental health and emotional support services continue?

Yes, the settlement provides that mental health and emotional support services will be available to CEP recipients and to those former students resolving abuse claims through the IAP, as well as those participating in truth and reconciliation, or commemorative projects. Call 1-866-925-4419.

21. What am I giving up in exchange for the settlement benefits?

All former students and family members who do not remove themselves (see “Removing Yourself from the Settlement” below) will be releasing the Government and the Churches, and all related people and entities, from all legal claims pertaining to residential schools. The “released” claims are described in Article 11, starting on page 58, of the Settlement Agreement available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca or by calling 1-866-879-4913. The full Settlement Agreement describes the released claims with specific descriptions, in necessarily accurate legal terminology, so read the whole thing carefully, and talk to a lawyer if you have questions about the released claims or what they mean. The lawyers involved in the settlement are listed at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca.

HOW TO GET A PAYMENT

22. How can I get a payment?

If you are a former student just call 1-866-879-4913 or go to the website and register to have a claim form mailed to you. Claim forms will be mailed after Month 00, 2007. When the claim form arrives, fill it out and send it back.

23. What if I don't have any records?

Don't worry. When you get the claim form, fill it out and send it back. The Government will use all the school records it has to verify your claim. If more information is needed, you may be contacted.

24. When will I get a payment?

The legal process is moving as fast as possible. First former students and their families have until Month 00, 2007, to remove themselves from the settlement. After that, claim forms will be mailed to former students who request one after seeing this notice. After you return your completed claim form, it will be processed promptly, and if you are eligible, a payment will be issued. Please be patient, and check www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca for updates.

QUESTIONS? CALL TOLL-FREE 1-866-879-4913 OR VISIT WWW.RESIDENTIALSCHOOLSETTLEMENT.CA

25. What about advance payments on the CEP?

As of December 31, 2006, the Government is no longer accepting applications for the Advance Payment Program. Important: if you received an advance payment you will still need to fill out a claim form to get the full CEP payment you are eligible for.

REMOVING YOURSELF (OPTING OUT) FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you don't want a payment, or you think you can get more money than the settlement provides by suing on your own, then you must take steps to remove yourself. This is called opting out.

26. If I opt out, can I get money from this settlement?

No. If you opt out you will not get any settlement payment—no CEP and no IAP money. You will not be bound by anything that happens in this settlement. Your only option will be to sue the Government or the Churches, on your own. You will only keep your rights to do that if you opt out. Please check with a lawyer before opting out.

27. If I don't opt out, can I sue later?

No. By staying in the settlement, you give up the right to sue the Government, the Churches, or any Defendant in the class actions, over anything to do with residential schools. You must opt out from this Class to start your own lawsuit. Remember, the opt out deadline is Month 00, 2007.

28. How do I opt out of the settlement?

To remove yourself, you must send in an Opt Out Form. You can get one at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca. You must mail your Opt Out Form postmarked by Month 00, 2007 to: Residential Schools Opt Outs, Suite 3-505, 133 Weber St. North, Waterloo, Ontario, N2J 3G9. Keep a copy of your completed Opt Out Form.

29. Can family members opt out from the settlement?

Yes, family members can opt out of the settlement. Family members who opt out will not be bound by anything that happens in this settlement; however the only option they will have is to sue the Government or the Churches, on their own.

30. What if I have a lawsuit pending in Québec?

The process is quite different if you have a residential schools lawsuit going on in Québec. You must stop that lawsuit before Month 00, 2007, or else you will automatically be removed (opted out) from this settlement and you won't get a payment from this settlement. Check with your lawyer right away.

THE LAWYERS

31. Do I have a lawyer in the case?

The Court website, www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca, lists the law firms that signed onto the settlement, representing former students and family members. If you want to, you may contact one of the lawyers on the list for advice.

32. Will I have to pay a lawyer to get a CEP?

You don't need to hire and pay a lawyer to submit a claim to get a CEP. The lawyers on the list at the website have agreed not to charge a fee to help their clients apply for a CEP. Please note they are not obligated to represent new clients. But, if you have already hired a lawyer, ask if he/she will help you get a CEP without charging you a fee—he/she may be required to do so.

33. How will the lawyers be paid?

The Government will pay the lawyers listed at the website for their work on the settlement. These payments to the lawyers will not reduce the money available for former students.

34. Will I have to pay a lawyer to get an IAP payment?

You may hire a lawyer to help you to make a claim under the IAP for a serious abuse. The IAP process can be complex and you should have a lawyer assist you. Lawyers, who may include the same lawyers listed at the website, will charge you additional fees for any IAP payment you get. If you are represented by a lawyer, your IAP payment will be adjusted by the Government to provide an extra 15% towards any fee a lawyer may charge you, but you must pay anything beyond that, up to an additional 15%, plus taxes.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

35. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you don't remove yourself before Month 00, 2007, you can't sue the Defendants about residential schools on your own, ever again. Payments are not automatic. If you never fill out and submit a claim form after it becomes available, you'll get no money from this settlement. There will be a four-year period to submit a claim form. The claim form will identify the deadline.

Official Court Notice

The Indian residential schools settlement has been approved. The healing continues.

The Indian residential schools settlement has been approved by the Courts. Now, former students and their families must decide whether to stay in the settlement or remove themselves (opt out). This notice describes the settlement benefits and how to get them for those who stay in, and it explains what it means to opt out and how to opt out.

The settlement provides:

1) At least $1.9 billion for “common experience” payments to former students who lived at one of the schools. Payments will be $10,000 for the first school year (or part of a school year) plus $3,000 for each school year (or part of a school year) after that.

2) A process to allow those who suffered sexual or serious physical abuses, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, to get between $5,000 and $275,000 each—or more money if they can show a loss of income.

3) Money for programmes for former students and their families for healing, truth, reconciliation, and commemoration of the residential schools and the abuses suffered: $125 million for healing; $60 million to research, document, and preserve the experiences of the survivors; and $20 million for national and community commemorative projects.

You won't have to show you were abused to get a common experience payment, and you can get one even if you had an abuse lawsuit, and even if you won, settled, or lost.

Eligible former students who stay in the settlement can get a payment from it. Family members who were not students will not get payments. However, former students—and family members—who stay in the settlement will never again be able to sue the Government of Canada, the Churches who joined in the settlement, or any other defendant in the class actions, over residential schools.

If you want to stay in the settlement and receive a payment from it, complete and return the claim form when it is sent to you. If you received this notice in the mail, you will receive a claim form after Month 00, 2007.

If you opt out from the settlement you will not get any payment from it. However, former students or family members who opt out will keep any rights they may have to sue over residential schools.

To opt out, you must complete, sign, and mail the enclosed Opt Out Form postmarked by Month 00, 2007.

You don't have to hire a lawyer to opt out, but you may want to consult one before you do. If you stay in the settlement, you don't have to hire and pay a lawyer to get a common experience payment. Of course, you may hire your own lawyer and pay that lawyer to represent you with an abuse claim.

For more information read the enclosed detailed notice, go to www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca where you will find the complete settlement agreement, call 1-866-879-4913, or write to Residential Schools Settlement, Suite 3-505, 133 Weber St. North, Waterloo, Ontario N2J 3G9.

Your Options Now

Await a Claim Form

Remove Yourself (Opt Out)

If you don't want a payment, or you think you can get more money than the settlement provides by suing the Government or the Churches on your own, then you must opt out by submitting an Opt Out Form postmarked by Month 00, 2007.

Do Nothing: get no payment, give up rights to sue.

GETTING MORE INFORMATION PAGE 8

36. How do I get more information?

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why was this notice issued?

You have a right to know about a settlement of class action lawsuits and about your options. This notice explains the lawsuits, the settlement, and your legal rights. Multiple Courts in Canada, (the “Courts”) are overseeing all of the various lawsuits and class action lawsuits together known as In re Residential Schools Class Action Litigation. The “Defendants” are the Government of Canada (“Government”) and various church-related entities including: The General Synod of the Anglican Church of Canada, The Dioceses of the Anglican Church of Canada, The Presbyterian Church in Canada, The United Church of Canada, The Methodist Church of Canada, and various Catholic entities (together called the “Churches”).

2. What is the lawsuit about?

Residential schools were boarding schools for Aboriginal children that operated throughout Canada for over a century. Canada and religious organizations operated the schools. Harms and abuses were committed against the children. Various lawsuits were started against the Government, the Churches, and others, based on the operation and management of residential schools in Canada.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action one or more people called “class representatives” sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of these people are a “Class.” The courts resolve the issues for everyone affected; except for those who remove themselves (opt out) from the Class.

4. Why is there a settlement?

Both sides agreed to a settlement to avoid the delays, costs, and risks of trials. The AFN, the Government of Canada, the Churches, as well as the class representatives and the lawyers representing them think the settlement is best for former students and their families.

5. What is the status of the settlement?

Notices were issued in June, July, and August of 2006, and then hearings were held across Canada. The Courts considered all objections to the settlement and then approved it. Now, former students and their families must decide whether to remove themselves (opt out) from the settlement. Then, shortly after the opt out deadline of Month 00, 2007, claim forms will be available for former students, and then payments to those who submit valid claim forms can begin. There is a chance that if too many people opt out, the settlement will not be implemented, and no payments will ever be issued.

WHO IS COVERED BY THE SETTLEMENT?

There are approximately 80,000 living Aboriginal former students of the residential school system.

6. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

The settlement includes former students of recognized residential schools in Canada and their family members. This includes Aboriginal people from First Nations, Inuit, Inuvialuit, and Métis communities. Those who resided at the schools and family members of former students are all included in the settlement, but may be eligible for different benefits.

QUESTIONS? CALL TOLL-FREE 1-866-879-4913 OR VISIT WWW.RESIDENTIALSCHOOLSETTLEMENT.CA

7. Are day students part of the settlement?

If you attended during the day but did not live at a residential school you are not a Class member. However, if you were allowed to be on school grounds to take part in school activities you may be able to make a claim if you were abused. See question 18.

8. Which schools are included?

The list of recognized residential schools and hostels is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca or by calling toll-free 1-866-879-4913. If you attended a residential school not on the list, you may ask that it be added. Submit the name of the school and any relevant information about it at the website or by writing to: Residential Schools Settlement, Suite 3-505, 133 Weber St. North, Waterloo, Ontario, N2J 3G9. The Government will research the proposed institution and determine whether it should be added to the list. If a school you suggest is not added, you may appeal that decision.

9. What if I have my own lawsuit against the Government and/or Churches?

You are included in this settlement even if you have a separate residential schools lawsuit. However, if you have a residential schools lawsuit currently pending in Québec see question 30 below. Read this notice carefully and talk to your lawyer as soon as possible to see how it will affect your rights to continue with your lawsuit.

10. I'm still not sure if I'm included in the settlement.

If you are not sure whether you are included, you may call 1-866-879-4913 with questions.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS—WHAT YOU GET

11. What does the settlement provide?

The settlement provides:

- Common Experience Payment (“CEP”) Fund – At least $1.9 billion, plus interest, will be made available for lump sum payments to former students who lived at one of the residential schools. Payments will be $10,000 for the first school year (or part of a school year), plus $3,000 for each school year (or part of a school year) after that. If there is not enough money in the fund to pay all valid claims, the Government will add money to the fund. However, if there is any money remaining in the CEP fund after all valid claims are paid: (1) if the amount is less than $40,000,000, all of the remaining money will be given to the National Indian Brotherhood Trust Fund and to the Inuvialuit Education Foundation for educational programmes for all First Nations, Inuit, Inuvialuit, and Métis people; (2) if the amount is greater than $40,000,000, former students who submit valid claim forms will get an equal share of “Personal Credits,” not cash, up to a maximum of $3,000. These credits can be used for personal, family, or group education services. Any balance remaining in the CEP fund after paying the Personal Credits will be paid to the National Indian Brotherhood Trust Fund and to the Inuvialuit Education Foundation for educational programmes for former students and their families.
- Independent Assessment Process (“IAP”) – A new independent assessment process (replacing the Government’s ADR process - see question 17) allows those who suffered sexual or serious physical abuses, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, to qualify for between $5,000 and $275,000 each. More may be awarded if you also show a loss of income. Altogether, the maximum IAP amount is $430,000. Awards are based on a point system for different abuses and resulting harms. The more points the greater the payment. There is a review process if you don't agree with the amount granted to you. Up to $15,000 for future care is available, and a contribution of 15% of the total award to help with legal costs is also available.

- Healing Fund – $125 million will be given to the Aboriginal Healing Foundation for a five year period to fund healing programmes for former students and their families. This is in addition to the $390 million that the Government has previously funded to establish the Aboriginal Healing Foundation for the benefit of both living former students and the families of deceased students.
- Truth and Reconciliation Fund – $60 million to research, document, and preserve the experiences of the survivors and their families for future generations.
- Commemoration Fund – $20 million for national and community commemorative projects.

More details are in a document called the Settlement Agreement which is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca or by calling 1-866-879-4913.

12. Who can get a common experience payment (CEP)?

All former students who lived at a residential school and who were alive on May 30, 2005, are eligible for a CEP. Also, any former student who attended the Mohawk Institute Residential Boarding School in Brantford, Ontario between 1922 and 1969, and was alive on October 5, 1996, is also eligible for a CEP.

13. What about families of former students?

Family members of residential school students will not receive payments unless the student recently died (see question 12). However, family members will be able to take advantage of the healing, education and other programmes funded by the settlement.

14. Will my social assistance benefits be affected if I take the CEP?

The Government is working with provincial and territorial governments, and federal departments to try to ensure that any payment you receive will not affect the amount, nature, or duration of any social benefits or social assistance benefits received by former students.

15. Will the CEP be taxable?

No. The Government has determined that CEP payments will not be taxable.

16. Can I get a payment if I previously brought an abuse claim?

Yes, even if you already won, lost, or settled an abuse claim, either in court, by negotiation, or under the Government's alternative dispute resolution ("ADR") process, you are still eligible for a CEP and it's possible that you may qualify for additional money under the new IAP. Check with your lawyer.

17. What about my abuse claim in the Government's ADR process?

Since the settlement was approved by all the Courts, all applications to the current ADR process have ended. Anyone who applied to the ADR process before Month 00, 2006, now has a choice to continue in the ADR process or apply to the IAP. More detailed information on the IAP is in Schedule D of the Settlement Agreement which is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca.

18. Who is eligible for the Independent Assessment Process (IAP)?

If you suffered sexual or serious physical abuse, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, you may be eligible if: (a) you are a former student who attended and lived at a residential school; or (b) you were invited to take part in an authorized school activity (while under the age of 21) even if you did not live at a school. You may need a lawyer to help you with an IAP claim.

19. Can I get a CEP if I also have an IAP claim?

Yes. CEP payments are in addition to any payments for serious abuse claims under the IAP.

20. Will mental health and emotional support services continue?

Yes, the settlement provides that mental health and emotional support services will be available to CEP recipients and to those former students resolving abuse claims through the IAP, as well as those participating in truth and reconciliation, or commemorative projects. Call 1-866-925-4419.

21. What am I giving up in exchange for the settlement benefits?

All former students and family members who do not remove themselves (see “Removing Yourself from the Settlement” below) will be releasing the Government and the Churches, and all related people and entities, from all legal claims pertaining to residential schools. The “released” claims are described in Article 11, starting on page 58, of the Settlement Agreement available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca or by calling 1-866-879-4913. The full Settlement Agreement describes the released claims with specific descriptions, in necessarily accurate legal terminology, so read the whole thing carefully, and talk to a lawyer if you have questions about the released claims or what they mean. The lawyers involved in the settlement are listed at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca.

HOW TO GET A PAYMENT

22. How can I get a payment?

If you are a former student and you received this Notice in the mail, a claim form will be mailed to you after Month 00, 2007. When the claim form arrives, fill it out and send it back.

23. What if I don't have any records?

Don't worry. When you get the claim form, fill it out and send it back. The Government will use all the school records it has to verify your claim. If more information is needed, you may be contacted.

24. When will I get a payment?

The legal process is moving as fast as possible. First former students and their families have until Month 00, 2007, to remove themselves from the settlement. After that, claim forms will be mailed to former students. After you return your completed claim form, it will be processed promptly, and if you are eligible, a payment will be issued. Please be patient, and check www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca for updates.

25. What about advance payments on the CEP?

As of December 31, 2006, the Government is no longer accepting applications for the Advance Payment Program. Important: if you received an advance payment you will still need to fill out a claim form to get the full CEP payment you are eligible for.

REMOVING YOURSELF (OPTING OUT) FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you don't want a payment, or you think you can get more money than the settlement provides by suing on your own, then you must take steps to remove yourself. This is called opting out.

26. If I opt out, can I get money from this settlement?

No. If you opt out you will not get any settlement payment—no CEP and no IAP money. You will not be bound by anything that happens in this settlement. Your only option will be to sue the Government or the Churches, on your own. You will only keep your rights to do that if you opt out. Please check with a lawyer before opting out.

27. If I don't opt out, can I sue later?

No. By staying in the settlement, you give up the right to sue the Government, the Churches, or any Defendant in the class actions, over anything to do with residential schools. You must opt out from this Class to start your own lawsuit. Remember, the opt out deadline is Month 00, 2007.

28. How do I opt out of the settlement?

To remove yourself, you must send in an Opt Out Form. If you received this notice in the mail an Opt Out Form came with it. Or you can get one at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca. You must mail your Opt Out Form postmarked by Month 00, 2007 to: Residential Schools Opt Outs, Suite 3-505, 133 Weber St. North, Waterloo, Ontario, N2J 3G9. Keep a copy of your completed Opt Out Form.

29. Can family members opt out of the settlement?

Yes, family members can opt out of the settlement. Family members who opt out will not be bound by anything that happens in this settlement; however the only option they will have is to sue the Government or the Churches, on their own.

30. What if I have a lawsuit pending in Québec?

The process is quite different if you have a residential schools lawsuit going on in Québec. You must stop that lawsuit before Month 00, 2007, or else you will automatically be removed (opted out) from this settlement and you won't get a payment from this settlement. Check with your lawyer right away.

THE LAWYERS

31. Do I have a lawyer in the case?

The Court website, www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca, lists the law firms that signed onto the settlement, representing former students and family members. If you want to, you may contact one of the lawyers on the list for advice.

32. Will I have to pay a lawyer to get a CEP?

You don't need to hire and pay a lawyer to submit a claim to get a CEP. The lawyers on the list at the website have agreed not to charge a fee to help their clients apply for a CEP. Please note that they are not obligated to represent new clients. But if you have already hired a lawyer, ask if he/she will help you get a CEP without charging you a fee—he/she may be required to do so.

33. How will the lawyers be paid?

The Government will pay the lawyers listed at the website for their work on the settlement. These payments to the lawyers will not reduce the money available for former students.

34. Will I have to pay a lawyer to get an IAP payment?

You may hire a lawyer to help you make a claim under the IAP for a serious abuse. The IAP process can be complex and you should have a lawyer assist you. Lawyers, who may include the same lawyers listed at the website, will charge you additional fees for any IAP payment you get. If you are represented by a lawyer, your IAP payment will be adjusted by the Government to provide an extra 15% towards any fee a lawyer may charge you, but you must pay anything beyond that, up to an additional 15%, plus taxes.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

35. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you don't remove yourself before Month 00, 2007, you can't sue the Defendants about residential schools on your own, ever again. Payments are not automatic. If you never fill out and submit a claim form after it becomes available; you'll get no money from this settlement. There will be a four-year period to submit a claim form. The claim form will identify the deadline.

Courts to issue further notice to former students of Canada's Indian residential schools and their families: the settlement has been approved by the Courts, and now former students must decide whether to opt out.

OTTAWA, ON, Month 00, 2007—The second phase of a national notification programme began today, on behalf of Courts across Canada, to alert former students of the Indian residential school system and their families that they must decide whether to stay in the settlement or remove themselves (opt out) from it by Month 00, 2007.

Notices will be distributed, published, mailed, and broadcast throughout Canada, describing the settlement benefits and how to get them for those who stay in, and explaining what it means to opt out and how to opt out.

This is the continuation of a notification programme that began in June of last year, when former students and their families learned how to give their views about the fairness of the settlement. Then, nine Courts across Canada held public hearings. All of the Courts approved the settlement after those hearings. The settlement provides:

1) At least $1.9 billion for "common experience" payments to former students who lived at one of the schools. Payments will be $10,000 for the first school year (or part of a school year), plus $3,000 for each school year (or part of a school year) after that.

2) A process to allow those who suffered sexual or serious physical abuses, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, to get between $5,000 and $275,000 each. Students could get more money if they also show a loss of income.

3) Money for programmes for former students and their families for healing, truth, reconciliation, and commemoration of the residential schools and the abuses suffered: $125 million to the Aboriginal Healing Foundation; $60 million to research, document, and preserve the experiences of the survivors; and $20 million for national and community commemorative projects.

Family members who were not students will not get payments. Former students who opt out will not get any payment from the settlement. However, former students or family members who opt out will keep any right they may have to sue the Government of Canada, the Churches that joined in the settlement, or any of the defendants in the class action lawsuits, over residential schools. The opt out deadline is Month 00, 2007.

Those who wish to opt out must complete, sign, and mail an Opt Out Form postmarked by Month 00, 2007. The Opt Out Form is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca, by calling 1-866-879-4913, or by writing to Residential Schools, Suite 3-505, 133 Weber St. North, Waterloo, Ontario N2J 3G9.

In the alternative, eligible former students who stay in the settlement can get a payment from it. However, former students—and family members—who stay in the settlement will never again be able to sue the Government of Canada, the Churches who joined in the settlement, or any other defendant in the class actions, over residential schools.

Those who want to stay in the settlement and ask for a payment, may write, call 1-866-879-4913, or go to the website. Claim forms will be mailed after Month 00, 2007. A toll free telephone call center at 1-866-879-4913 has been set up to handle inquiries, with a link to crisis line services. Also, a website displays the detailed notice, settlement agreement, list of recognized schools and hostels, and other information at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why was this notice issued?

You have a right to know about a settlement of class action lawsuits and about your options. This notice explains the lawsuits, the settlement, and your legal rights. Multiple Courts in Canada, (the “Courts”) are overseeing all of the various lawsuits and class action lawsuits together known as In re Residential Schools Class Action Litigation. The “Defendants” are the Government of Canada (“Government”) and various church-related entities including: The General Synod of the Anglican Church of Canada, The Dioceses of the Anglican Church of Canada, The Presbyterian Church in Canada, The United Church of Canada, The Methodist Church of Canada, and various Catholic entities (together called the “Churches”).

2. What is the lawsuit about?

Residential schools were boarding schools for Aboriginal children that operated throughout Canada for over a century. Canada and religious organizations operated the schools. Harms and abuses were committed against the children. Various lawsuits were started against the Government, the Churches, and others, based on the operation and management of residential schools in Canada.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action one or more people called “class representatives” sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of these people are a “Class.” The courts resolve the issues for everyone affected; except for those who remove themselves (opt out) from the Class.

4. Why is there a settlement?

Both sides agreed to a settlement to avoid the delays, costs, and risks of trials. The AFN, the Government of Canada, the Churches, as well as the class representatives and the lawyers representing them think the settlement is best for former students and their families.

5. What is the status of the settlement?

Notices were issued in June, July, and August of 2006, and then hearings were held across Canada. The Courts considered all objections to the settlement and then approved it. Now, former students and their families must decide whether to remove themselves (opt out) from the settlement. Former students who stay in the settlement may request a claim form be sent to them as soon as it is ready. Then, shortly after the opt out deadline of Month 00, 2007, claim forms will be mailed to former students, and then payments to those who submit valid claim forms can begin. There is a chance that if too many people opt out, the settlement will not be implemented, and no payments will ever be issued.

WHO IS COVERED BY THE SETTLEMENT?

There are approximately 80,000 living Aboriginal former students of the residential school system.

6. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

The settlement includes former students of recognized residential schools in Canada and their family members. This includes Aboriginal people from First Nations, Inuit, Inuvialuit, and Métis communities. Those who resided at the schools and family members of former students are all included in the settlement, but may be eligible for different benefits.

QUESTIONS? CALL TOLL-FREE 1-866-879-4913 OR VISIT WWW.RESIDENTIALSCHOOLSETTLEMENT.CA

7. Are day students part of the settlement?

If you attended during the day but did not live at a residential school you are not a Class member. However, if you were allowed to be on school grounds to take part in school activities you may be able to make a claim if you were abused. See question 18.

8. Which schools are included?

The list of recognized residential schools and hostels is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca or by calling toll-free 1-866-879-4913. If you attended a residential school not on the list, you may ask that it be added. Submit the name of the school and any relevant information about it at the website or by writing to: Residential Schools Settlement, Suite 3-505, 133 Weber St. North, Waterloo, Ontario, N2J 3G9. The Government will research the proposed institution and determine whether it should be added to the list. If a school you suggest is not added, you may appeal that decision.

9. What if I have my own lawsuit against the Government and/or Churches?

You are included in this settlement even if you have a separate residential schools lawsuit. However, if you have a residential schools lawsuit currently pending in Québec see question 30 below. Read this notice carefully and talk to your lawyer as soon as possible to see how it will affect your rights to continue with your lawsuit.

10. I'm still not sure if I'm included in the settlement.

If you are not sure whether you are included, you may call 1-866-879-4913 with questions.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS—WHAT YOU GET

11. What does the settlement provide?

The settlement provides:

- Common Experience Payment (“CEP”) Fund – At least $1.9 billion, plus interest, will be made available for lump sum payments to former students who lived at one of the residential schools. Payments will be $10,000 for the first school year (or part of a school year), plus $3,000 for each school year (or part of a school year) after that. If there is not enough money in the fund to pay all valid claims, the Government will add money to the fund. However, if there is any money remaining in the CEP fund after all valid claims are paid: (1) if the amount is less than $40,000,000, all of the remaining money will be given to the National Indian Brotherhood Trust Fund and to the Inuvialuit Education Foundation for educational programmes for all First Nations, Inuit, Inuvialuit, and Métis people; (2) if the amount is greater than $40,000,000, former students who submit valid claim forms will get an equal share of “Personal Credits,” not cash, up to a maximum of $3,000. These credits can be used for personal, family, or group education services. Any balance remaining in the CEP fund after paying the Personal Credits will be paid to the National Indian Brotherhood Trust Fund and to the Inuvialuit Education Foundation for educational programmes for former students and their families.
- Independent Assessment Process (“IAP”) – A new independent assessment process (replacing the Government’s ADR process - See question 17) allows those who suffered sexual or serious physical abuses, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, to qualify for between $5,000 and $275,000 each. More may be awarded if you also show a loss of income. Altogether, the maximum IAP amount is $430,000. Awards are based on a point system for different abuses and resulting harms. The more points the greater the payment. There is a review process if you don't agree with the amount granted to you. Up to $15,000 for future care is available, and a contribution of 15% of the total award to help with legal costs is also available.

- Healing Fund – $125 million will be given to the Aboriginal Healing Foundation for a five year period to fund healing programmes for former students and their families. This is in addition to the $390 million that the Government has previously funded to establish the Aboriginal Healing Foundation for the benefit of both living former students and the families of deceased students.
- Truth and Reconciliation Fund – $60 million to research, document, and preserve the experiences of the survivors and their families for future generations.
- Commemoration Fund – $20 million for national and community commemorative projects.

More details are in a document called the Settlement Agreement which is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca or by calling 1-866-879-4913.

12. Who can get a common experience payment (CEP)?

All former students who lived at a residential school and who were alive on May 30, 2005, are eligible for a CEP. Also, any former student who attended the Mohawk Institute Residential Boarding School in Brantford, Ontario between 1922 and 1969, and was alive on October 5, 1996, is also eligible for a CEP.

13. What about families of former students?

Family members of residential school students will not receive payments unless the student recently died (see question 12). However, family members will be able to take advantage of the healing, education and other programmes funded by the settlement.

14. Will my social assistance benefits be affected if I take the CEP?

The Government is working with provincial and territorial governments, and federal departments to try to ensure that any payment you receive will not affect the amount, nature, or duration of any social benefits or social assistance benefits received by former students.

15. Will the CEP be taxable?

No. The Government has determined that CEP payments will not be taxable.

16. Can I get a payment if I previously brought an abuse claim?

Yes, even if you already won, lost, or settled an abuse claim, either in court, by negotiation, or under the Government's alternative dispute resolution ("ADR") process, you are still eligible for a CEP and it's possible that you may qualify for additional money under the new IAP. Check with your lawyer.

17. What about my abuse claim in the Government's ADR process?

Since the settlement was approved by all the Courts, all applications to the current ADR process have ended. Anyone who applied to the ADR process before Month 00, 2006, now has a choice to continue in the ADR process or apply to the IAP. More detailed information on the IAP is in Schedule D of the Settlement Agreement which is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca.

18. Who is eligible for the Independent Assessment Process (IAP)?

If you suffered sexual or serious physical abuse, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, you may be eligible if: (a) you are a former student who attended and lived at a residential school; or (b) you were invited to take part in an authorized school activity (while under the age of 21) even if you did not live at a school. You may need a lawyer to help you with an IAP claim.

19. Can I get a CEP if I also have an IAP claim?

Yes. CEP payments are in addition to any payments for serious abuse claims under the IAP.

20. Will mental health and emotional support services continue?

Yes, the settlement provides that mental health and emotional support services will be available to CEP recipients and to those former students resolving abuse claims through the IAP, as well as those participating in truth and reconciliation, or commemorative projects. Call 1-866-925-4419.

21. What am I giving up in exchange for the settlement benefits?

All former students and family members who do not remove themselves (see “Removing Yourself from the Settlement” below) will be releasing the Government and the Churches, and all related people and entities, from all legal claims pertaining to residential schools. The “released” claims are described in Article 11, starting on page 58, of the Settlement Agreement available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca or by calling 1-866-879-4913. The full Settlement Agreement describes the released claims with specific descriptions, in necessarily accurate legal terminology, so read the whole thing carefully, and talk to a lawyer if you have questions about the released claims or what they mean. The lawyers involved in the settlement are listed at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca.

HOW TO GET A PAYMENT

22. How can I get a payment?

If you are a former student just call 1-866-879-4913 or go to the website and register to have a claim form mailed to you. Claim forms will be mailed after Month 00, 2007. When the claim form arrives, fill it out and send it back.

23. What if I don't have any records?

Don't worry. When you get the claim form, fill it out and send it back. The Government will use all the school records it has to verify your claim. If more information is needed, you may be contacted.

24. When will I get a payment?

The legal process is moving as fast as possible. First former students and their families have until Month 00, 2007, to remove themselves from the settlement. After that, claim forms will be mailed to former students who request one after seeing this notice. After you return your completed claim form, it will be processed promptly, and if you are eligible, a payment will be issued. Please be patient, and check www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca for updates.

QUESTIONS? CALL TOLL-FREE 1-866-879-4913 OR VISIT WWW.RESIDENTIALSCHOOLSETTLEMENT.CA

25. What about advance payments on the CEP?

As of December 31, 2006, the Government is no longer accepting applications for the Advance Payment Program. Important: if you received an advance payment you will still need to fill out a claim form to get the full CEP payment you are eligible for.

REMOVING YOURSELF (OPTING OUT) FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you don't want a payment, or you think you can get more money than the settlement provides by suing on your own, then you must take steps to remove yourself. This is called opting out.

26. If I opt out, can I get money from this settlement?

No. If you opt out you will not get any settlement payment—no CEP and no IAP money. You will not be bound by anything that happens in this settlement. Your only option will be to sue the Government or the Churches, on your own. You will only keep your rights to do that if you opt out. Please check with a lawyer before opting out.

27. If I don't opt out, can I sue later?

No. By staying in the settlement, you give up the right to sue the Government, the Churches, or any Defendant in the class actions, over anything to do with residential schools. You must opt out from this Class to start your own lawsuit. Remember, the opt out deadline is Month 00, 2007.

28. How do I opt out of the settlement?

To remove yourself, you must send in an Opt Out Form. You can get one at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca. You must mail your Opt Out Form postmarked by Month 00, 2007 to: Residential Schools Opt Outs, Suite 3-505, 133 Weber St. North, Waterloo, Ontario, N2J 3G9. Keep a copy of your completed Opt Out Form.

29. Can family members opt out from the settlement?

Yes, family members can opt out of the settlement. Family members who opt out will not be bound by anything that happens in this settlement; however the only option they will have is to sue the Government or the Churches, on their own.

30. What if I have a lawsuit pending in Québec?

The process is quite different if you have a residential schools lawsuit going on in Québec. You must stop that lawsuit before Month 00, 2007, or else you will automatically be removed (opted out) from this settlement and you won't get a payment from this settlement. Check with your lawyer right away.

THE LAWYERS

31. Do I have a lawyer in the case?

The Court website, www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca, lists the law firms that signed onto the settlement, representing former students and family members. If you want to, you may contact one of the lawyers on the list for advice.

32. Will I have to pay a lawyer to get a CEP?

You don't need to hire and pay a lawyer to submit a claim to get a CEP. The lawyers on the list at the website have agreed not to charge a fee to help their clients apply for a CEP. Please note they are not obligated to represent new clients. But, if you have already hired a lawyer, ask if he/she will help you get a CEP without charging you a fee—he/she may be required to do so.

33. How will the lawyers be paid?

The Government will pay the lawyers listed at the website for their work on the settlement. These payments to the lawyers will not reduce the money available for former students.

34. Will I have to pay a lawyer to get an IAP payment?

You may hire a lawyer to help you to make a claim under the IAP for a serious abuse. The IAP process can be complex and you should have a lawyer assist you. Lawyers, who may include the same lawyers listed at the website, will charge you additional fees for any IAP payment you get. If you are represented by a lawyer, your IAP payment will be adjusted by the Government to provide an extra 15% towards any fee a lawyer may charge you, but you must pay anything beyond that, up to an additional 15%, plus taxes.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

35. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you don't remove yourself before Month 00, 2007, you can't sue the Defendants about residential schools on your own, ever again. Payments are not automatic. If you never fill out and submit a claim form after it becomes available, you'll get no money from this settlement. There will be a four-year period to submit a claim form. The claim form will identify the deadline.

Official Court Notice

The residential schools settlement has been approved. The healing continues.

The residential schools settlement has been approved by the Courts. Now, former students and their families must decide whether to stay in the settlement or remove themselves (opt out). This notice describes the settlement benefits and how to get them for those who stay in, and it explains what it means to opt out and how to opt out.

The settlement provides:

1) At least $1.9 billion for “common experience” payments to former students who lived at one of the schools. Payments will be $10,000 for the first school year (or part of a school year) plus $3,000 for each school year (or part of a school year) after that.

2) A process to allow those who suffered sexual or serious physical abuses, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, to get between $5,000 and $275,000 each—or more money if they can show a loss of income.

3) Money for programmes for former students and their families for healing, truth, reconciliation, and commemoration of the residential schools and the abuses suffered: $125 million for healing; $60 million to research, document, and preserve the experiences of the survivors; and $20 million for national and community commemorative projects.

You won't have to show you were abused to get a common experience payment, and you can get one even if you had an abuse lawsuit, and even if you won, settled, or lost.

Eligible former students who stay in the settlement can get a payment from it. Family members who were not students will not get payments. However, former students—and family members—who stay in the settlement will never again be able to sue the Government of Canada, the Churches who joined in the settlement, or any other defendant in the class actions, over residential schools.

If you want to stay in the settlement and receive a payment from it, complete and return the claim form when it is sent to you. If you received this notice in the mail, you will receive a claim form after Month 00, 2007.

If you opt out from the settlement you will not get any payment from it. However, former students or family members who opt out will keep any right they may have to sue over residential schools.

To opt out, you must complete, sign, and mail the enclosed Opt Out Form postmarked by Month 00, 2007.

You don't have to hire a lawyer to opt out, but you may want to consult one before you do. If you stay in the settlement, you don't have to hire and pay a lawyer to get a common experience payment. Of course, you may hire your own lawyer and pay that lawyer to represent you with an abuse claim.

For more information read the enclosed detailed notice, go to www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca where you will find the complete settlement agreement, call 1-866-879-4913, or write to Residential Schools Settlement, Suite 3-505, 133 Weber St. North, Waterloo, Ontario N2J 3G9.

Your Options Now

Await a Claim Form

If you are a former student and you want a payment from the settlement, and you never want to sue the Government of Canada or the Churches on your own, do not opt out; instead a claim form will be mailed to you after Month 00, 2007. When it arrives, fill it out and return it.

Remove Yourself (Opt Out)

If you don't want a payment, or you think you can get more money than the settlement provides by suing the Government or the Churches on your own, then you must opt out by submitting an Opt Out Form post-marked by Month 00, 2007.

Do Nothing: get no payment, give up rights to sue.

36. How do I get more information?

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why was this notice issued?

You have a right to know about a settlement of class action lawsuits and about your options. This notice explains the lawsuits, the settlement, and your legal rights. Multiple Courts in Canada, (the “Courts”) are overseeing all of the various lawsuits and class action lawsuits together known as In re Residential Schools Class Action Litigation. The “Defendants” are the Government of Canada (“Government”) and various church-related entities including: The General Synod of the Anglican Church of Canada, The Dioceses of the Anglican Church of Canada, The Presbyterian Church in Canada, The United Church of Canada, The Methodist Church of Canada, and various Catholic entities (together called the “Churches”).

2. What is the lawsuit about?

Residential schools were boarding schools for Aboriginal children that operated throughout Canada for over a century. Canada and religious organizations operated the schools. Harms and abuses were committed against the children. Various lawsuits were started against the Government, the Churches, and others, based on the operation and management of residential schools in Canada.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action one or more people called “class representatives” sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of these people are a “Class.” The courts resolve the issues for everyone affected; except for those who remove themselves (opt out) from the Class.

4. Why is there a settlement?

Both sides agreed to a settlement to avoid the delays, costs, and risks of trials. The AFN, the Government of Canada, the Churches, as well as the class representatives and the lawyers representing them think the settlement is best for former students and their families.

5. What is the status of the settlement?

Notices were issued in June, July, and August of 2006, and then hearings were held across Canada. The Courts considered all objections to the settlement and then approved it. Now, former students and their families must decide whether to remove themselves (opt out) from the settlement. Then, shortly after the opt out deadline of Month 00, 2007, claim forms will be available for former students, and then payments to those who submit valid claim forms can begin. There is a chance that if too many people opt out, the settlement will not be implemented, and no payments will ever be issued.

WHO IS COVERED BY THE SETTLEMENT?

There are approximately 80,000 living Aboriginal former students of the residential school system.

6. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

The settlement includes former students of recognized residential schools in Canada and their family members. This includes Aboriginal people from First Nations, Inuit, Inuvialuit, and Métis communities. Those who resided at the schools and family members of former students are all included in the settlement, but may be eligible for different benefits.

QUESTIONS? CALL TOLL-FREE 1-866-879-4913 OR VISIT WWW.RESIDENTIALSCHOOLSETTLEMENT.CA

7. Are day students part of the settlement?

If you attended during the day but did not live at a residential school you are not a Class member. However, if you were allowed to be on school grounds to take part in school activities you may be able to make a claim if you were abused. See question 18.

8. Which schools are included?

The list of recognized residential schools and hostels is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca or by calling toll-free 1-866-879-4913. If you attended a residential school not on the list, you may ask that it be added. Submit the name of the school and any relevant information about it at the website or by writing to: Residential Schools Settlement, Suite 3-505, 133 Weber St. North, Waterloo, Ontario, N2J 3G9. The Government will research the proposed institution and determine whether it should be added to the list. If a school you suggest is not added, you may appeal that decision.

9. What if I have my own lawsuit against the Government and/or Churches?

You are included in this settlement even if you have a separate residential schools lawsuit. However, if you have a residential schools lawsuit currently pending in Québec see question 30 below. Read this notice carefully and talk to your lawyer as soon as possible to see how it will affect your rights to continue with your lawsuit.

10. I'm still not sure if I'm included in the settlement.

If you are not sure whether you are included, you may call 1-866-879-4913 with questions.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS—WHAT YOU GET

11. What does the settlement provide?

The settlement provides:

- Common Experience Payment (“CEP”) Fund – At least $1.9 billion, plus interest, will be made available for lump sum payments to former students who lived at one of the residential schools. Payments will be $10,000 for the first school year (or part of a school year), plus $3,000 for each school year (or part of a school year) after that. If there is not enough money in the fund to pay all valid claims, the Government will add money to the fund. However, if there is any money remaining in the CEP fund after all valid claims are paid: (1) if the amount is less than $40,000,000, all of the remaining money will be given to the National Indian Brotherhood Trust Fund and to the Inuvialuit Education Foundation for educational programmes for all First Nations, Inuit, Inuvialuit, and Métis people; (2) if the amount is greater than $40,000,000, former students who submit valid claim forms will get an equal share of “Personal Credits,” not cash, up to a maximum of $3,000. These credits can be used for personal, family, or group education services. Any balance remaining in the CEP fund after paying the Personal Credits will be paid to the National Indian Brotherhood Trust Fund and to the Inuvialuit Education Foundation for educational programmes for former students and their families.
- Independent Assessment Process (“IAP”) – A new independent assessment process (replacing the Government’s ADR process - see question 17) allows those who suffered sexual or serious physical abuses, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, to qualify for between $5,000 and $275,000 each. More may be awarded if you also show a loss of income. Altogether, the maximum IAP amount is $430,000. Awards are based on a point system for different abuses and resulting harms. The more points the greater the payment. There is a review process if you don't agree with the amount granted to you. Up to $15,000 for future care is available, and a contribution of 15% of the total award to help with legal costs is also available.

- Healing Fund – $125 million will be given to the Aboriginal Healing Foundation for a five year period to fund healing programmes for former students and their families. This is in addition to the $390 million that the Government has previously funded to establish the Aboriginal Healing Foundation for the benefit of both living former students and the families of deceased students.
- Truth and Reconciliation Fund – $60 million to research, document, and preserve the experiences of the survivors and their families for future generations.
- Commemoration Fund – $20 million for national and community commemorative projects.

More details are in a document called the Settlement Agreement which is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca or by calling 1-866-879-4913.

12. Who can get a common experience payment (CEP)?

All former students who lived at a residential school and who were alive on May 30, 2005, are eligible for a CEP. Also, any former student who attended the Mohawk Institute Residential Boarding School in Brantford, Ontario between 1922 and 1969, and was alive on October 5, 1996, is also eligible for a CEP.

13. What about families of former students?

Family members of residential school students will not receive payments unless the student recently died (see question 12). However, family members will be able to take advantage of the healing, education and other programmes funded by the settlement.

14. Will my social assistance benefits be affected if I take the CEP?

The Government is working with provincial and territorial governments, and federal departments to try to ensure that any payment you receive will not affect the amount, nature, or duration of any social benefits or social assistance benefits received by former students.

15. Will the CEP be taxable?

No. The Government has determined that CEP payments will not be taxable.

16. Can I get a payment if I previously brought an abuse claim?

Yes, even if you already won, lost, or settled an abuse claim, either in court, by negotiation, or under the Government's alternative dispute resolution ("ADR") process, you are still eligible for a CEP and it's possible that you may qualify for additional money under the new IAP. Check with your lawyer.

17. What about my abuse claim in the Government's ADR process?

Since the settlement was approved by all the Courts, all applications to the current ADR process have ended. Anyone who applied to the ADR process before Month 00, 2006, now has a choice to continue in the ADR process or apply to the IAP. More detailed information on the IAP is in Schedule D of the Settlement Agreement which is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca.

18. Who is eligible for the Independent Assessment Process (IAP)?

If you suffered sexual or serious physical abuse, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, you may be eligible if: (a) you are a former student who attended and lived at a residential school; or (b) you were invited to take part in an authorized school activity (while under the age of 21) even if you did not live at a school. You may need a lawyer to help you with an IAP claim.

19. Can I get a CEP if I also have an IAP claim?

Yes. CEP payments are in addition to any payments for serious abuse claims under the IAP.

20. Will mental health and emotional support services continue?

Yes, the settlement provides that mental health and emotional support services will be available to CEP recipients and to those former students resolving abuse claims through the IAP, as well as those participating in truth and reconciliation, or commemorative projects. Call 1-866-925-4419.

21. What am I giving up in exchange for the settlement benefits?

All former students and family members who do not remove themselves (see “Removing Yourself from the Settlement” below) will be releasing the Government and the Churches, and all related people and entities, from all legal claims pertaining to residential schools. The “released” claims are described in Article 11, starting on page 58, of the Settlement Agreement available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca or by calling 1-866-879-4913. The full Settlement Agreement describes the released claims with specific descriptions, in necessarily accurate legal terminology, so read the whole thing carefully, and talk to a lawyer if you have questions about the released claims or what they mean. The lawyers involved in the settlement are listed at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca.

HOW TO GET A PAYMENT

22. How can I get a payment?

If you are a former student and you received this Notice in the mail, a claim form will be mailed to you after Month 00, 2007. When the claim form arrives, fill it out and send it back.

23. What if I don't have any records?

Don't worry. When you get the claim form, fill it out and send it back. The Government will use all the school records it has to verify your claim. If more information is needed, you may be contacted.

24. When will I get a payment?

The legal process is moving as fast as possible. First former students and their families have until Month 00, 2007, to remove themselves from the settlement. After that, claim forms will be mailed to former students. After you return your completed claim form, it will be processed promptly, and if you are eligible, a payment will be issued. Please be patient, and check www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca for updates.

25. What about advance payments on the CEP?

As of December 31, 2006, the Government is no longer accepting applications for the Advance Payment Program. Important: if you received an advance payment you will still need to fill out a claim form to get the full CEP payment you are eligible for.

REMOVING YOURSELF (OPTING OUT) FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you don't want a payment, or you think you can get more money than the settlement provides by suing on your own, then you must take steps to remove yourself. This is called opting out.

26. If I opt out, can I get money from this settlement?

No. If you opt out you will not get any settlement payment—no CEP and no IAP money. You will not be bound by anything that happens in this settlement. Your only option will be to sue the Government or the Churches, on your own. You will only keep your rights to do that if you opt out. Please check with a lawyer before opting out.

27. If I don't opt out, can I sue later?

No. By staying in the settlement, you give up the right to sue the Government, the Churches, or any Defendant in the class actions, over anything to do with residential schools. You must opt out from this Class to start your own lawsuit. Remember, the opt out deadline is Month 00, 2007.

28. How do I opt out of the settlement?

To remove yourself, you must send in an Opt Out Form. If you received this notice in the mail an Opt Out Form came with it. Or you can get one at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca. You must mail your Opt Out Form postmarked by Month 00, 2007 to: Residential Schools Opt Outs, Suite 3-505, 133 Weber St. North, Waterloo, Ontario, N2J 3G9. Keep a copy of your completed Opt Out Form.

29. Can family members opt out of the settlement?

Yes, family members can opt out of the settlement. Family members who opt out will not be bound by anything that happens in this settlement; however the only option they will have is to sue the Government or the Churches, on their own.

30. What if I have a lawsuit pending in Québec?

The process is quite different if you have a residential schools lawsuit going on in Québec. You must stop that lawsuit before Month 00, 2007, or else you will automatically be removed (opted out) from this settlement and you won't get a payment from this settlement. Check with your lawyer right away.

THE LAWYERS

31. Do I have a lawyer in the case?

The Court website, www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca, lists the law firms that signed onto the settlement, representing former students and family members. If you want to, you may contact one of the lawyers on the list for advice.

32. Will I have to pay a lawyer to get a CEP?

You don't need to hire and pay a lawyer to submit a claim to get a CEP. The lawyers on the list at the website have agreed not to charge a fee to help their clients apply for a CEP. Please note that they are not obligated to represent new clients. But if you have already hired a lawyer, ask if he/she will help you get a CEP without charging you a fee—he/she may be required to do so.

33. How will the lawyers be paid?

The Government will pay the lawyers listed at the website for their work on the settlement. These payments to the lawyers will not reduce the money available for former students.

34. Will I have to pay a lawyer to get an IAP payment?

You may hire a lawyer to help you make a claim under the IAP for a serious abuse. The IAP process can be complex and you should have a lawyer assist you. Lawyers, who may include the same lawyers listed at the website, will charge you additional fees for any IAP payment you get. If you are represented by a lawyer, your IAP payment will be adjusted by the Government to provide an extra 15% towards any fee a lawyer may charge you, but you must pay anything beyond that, up to an additional 15%, plus taxes.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

35. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you don't remove yourself before Month 00, 2007, you can't sue the Defendants about residential schools on your own, ever again. Payments are not automatic. If you never fill out and submit a claim form after it becomes available; you'll get no money from this settlement. There will be a four-year period to submit a claim form. The claim form will identify the deadline.

GETTING MORE INFORMATION

36. How do I get more information?

Courts to issue further notice to former students of Canada's residential schools and their families: the settlement has been approved by the Courts, and now former students must decide whether to opt out.

OTTAWA, ON, Month 00, 2007—The second phase of a national notification programme began today, on behalf of Courts across Canada, to alert former students of the residential school system and their families that they must decide whether to stay in the settlement or remove themselves (opt out) from it by Month 00, 2007.

Notices will be distributed, published, mailed, and broadcast throughout Canada, describing the settlement benefits and how to get them for those who stay in, and explaining what it means to opt out and how to opt out.

This is the continuation of a notification programme that began in June of last year, when former students and their families learned how to give their views about the fairness of the settlement. Then, nine Courts across Canada held public hearings. All of the Courts approved the settlement after those hearings. The settlement provides:

1) At least $1.9 billion for "common experience" payments to former students who lived at one of the schools. Payments will be $10,000 for the first school year (or part of a school year), plus $3,000 for each school year (or part of a school year) after that.

2) A process to allow those who suffered sexual or serious physical abuses, or other abuses that caused serious psychological effects, to get between $5,000 and $275,000 each. Students could get more money if they also show a loss of income.

3) Money for programmes for former students and their families for healing, truth, reconciliation, and commemoration of the residential schools and the abuses suffered: $125 million to the Aboriginal Healing Foundation; $60 million to research, document, and preserve the experiences of the survivors; and $20 million for national and community commemorative projects.

Family members who were not students will not get payments. Former students who opt out will not get any payment from the settlement. However, former students or family members who opt out will keep any right they may have to sue the Government of Canada, the Churches that joined in the settlement, or any of the defendants in the class action lawsuits, over residential schools. The opt out deadline is Month 00, 2007.

Those who wish to opt out must complete, sign, and mail an Opt Out Form postmarked by Month 00, 2007. The Opt Out Form is available at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca, by calling 1-866-879-4913, or by writing to Residential Schools, Suite 3-505, 133 Weber St. North, Waterloo, Ontario N2J 3G9.

In the alternative, eligible former students who stay in the settlement can get a payment from it. However, former students—and family members—who stay in the settlement will never again be able to sue the Government of Canada, the Churches who joined in the settlement, or any other defendant in the class actions, over residential schools.

Those who want to stay in the settlement and ask for a payment, may write, call 1-866-879-4913, or go to the website. Claim forms will be mailed after Month 00, 2007. A toll free telephone call center at 1-866-879-4913 has been set up to handle inquiries, with a link to crisis line services. Also, a website displays the detailed notice, settlement agreement, list of recognized schools and hostels, and other information at www.residentialschoolsettlement.ca.
